Miss Ida Tarbell 60, Fifth Avenue N.Y.

I, Clarence A. Gorrie take the freedom to write to you. It may be rude but there are reasons for me to be careless. I want to leave some of my thoughts behind of little more old

I suppose you know I am 67 years

I can't half see or hear and I forget much. I cannot bring to memory as you do in "All in a day's Work".

Please excuse poor writing I can scarcely see to dot I's or cross T's

I did not know a year ago that you were living but I see you were living and still doing.

I may add to these stories of what you can expect of me to do and not to do.

I am boarding three miles out of Wellsboro and see that I like not the paper I pray God but I will use what I can.

If the Lord chooses

C. A. G

Digital Images, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.

What I want is to get as much as I can represented
L. A. Green.

Digital Images, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.