RAYMOND MASSEY

Surrey Hotel

November 17, 1938.

Dear Miss Tarbell,

I am certainly not forgetting your invitation to be a guest of the Pen and Brush Club on the second Sunday in January, at 4 o'clock, January 8, at 16 East 10th Street.

I am very excited and delighted that you were pleased with "Abe Lincoln in Illinois". I can tell you that it was with some considerable trepidation that I played "Abe" before you, - and that you liked my performance is the greatest reward I could have.

Again my sincere thanks for your invitation to which I am so looking forward,

Yours very sincerely,

Raymond Massey
