

PALACE HOTEL,
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

31 Oct

1894

My dear Miss Lumbell

Thank you for your kind note recd from Baltimore recd on Monday. I second article recd yesterday than recd the second article with much interest & pleasure. It is I think better than the first, but there is still room for much further improvement. Each article should be written by you, then type written & laid by for about one week, & then taken up for final revision - This you have not had time words with the first second articles, but you have now time enough; & can do much better than you have done - Please do not think that I am not even now entirely satisfied, only I see you can do better, & I know you will try & that you will surely succeed.

I feel so much interest in you that I must make you a success - I noticed two or three things evidently mis-prints to which I wished to call your attention unfortunately I did not mark the margin & cannot now find them
I hope to receive the third article in a day or two in time to answer before

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

it is printed, & have telegraphed Mr. McBlure to give you my address "Raymond, Pasadena Cal." I shall probably soon receive a letter addressed there immediately on receipt of this letter. — I was sorry you had not sent the paragraph relating to Bonaparte's rupture with Josephine as I particularly wished to rewrite that portion.
It must be clear & explicit & without modesty, if you will allow me to use that word for I know you could not do anything or write anything inconsistent if you kind W. - You were to me - Lady always will be one whom I shall be glad to have known as a friend -

I shall be home again before the third is beyond change, & before the fourth is printed, & we can make the 4-5 lb just what they should be - Can we not?

I have been so much pleased with you in every way, you have taken all my suggestions so kindly that I feel we could not have done better than in selecting you to write Napoleon

Now goodbye Mrs Hubbard when we remember both I send my best love to my dear Miss Bonaparte
Your friend
