

THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE of JEWS AND CHRISTIANS

For Justice, Amity and Understanding among Protestants, Catholics and Jews

300 Fourth Avenue, New York City

October 3rd, 1937.

To Members and Friends of
The National Conference of Jews and Christians:

In view of the intolerant attacks upon religion in European countries and the tendency of some groups in America to stir-up strife and ill will, we are sending a copy of the Fall Bulletin announcing our tenth anniversary program to each of our members in the hope that when you have a moment of leisure to read it, you will agree to join in this effort to build up the forces that will be able to cope with the situation wherever it may arise.

It is easier to put out a fire when it starts if there is an organized fire department ready to handle the situation than to have to organize one while the blaze is spreading.

The best possible insurance against intolerance gaining the upper hand in any community is a well organized group of intelligent citizens of the three faiths.

Each individual member, without much effort can do his share this anniversary year.

1. He can renew his own membership and in doing so increase the efficiency of this whole program by increasing the membership fee which he paid last year, and,

2. He can, by joining the membership committee, get one or more of his neighbors and friends to become a member of the National Conference.

Will you please check each item on the enclosed card that you may conveniently undertake and return the card at once in the enclosed envelope.

Sincerely yours,

Director.
