May 18, 1932

Dear Mr. Angly:

How skillfully you used my verbosity! Thank you for making me sound so wise.

I appreciate better perhaps than most of your readers the understanding and the craftsmanship it takes to get out of wandering talk, such as I poured on you the other day, a coherent and interesting study colored throughout with something of the writer's personality.

Cultivate your vein - it is worth it - and do not be afraid to use the salt box.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Edward Angly
The Herald Tribune
New York City

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library