Miss Ida M. Tarbell.

Dear Miss Tarbell,-

I would like to have your autograph to add to my collection of Lincoln authors, and I am enclosing a copy of the following Address to ask if you will kindly write under the speech what you think of it, or a note of sentiment, autographing and dating it, that I may have it bound in leather to place in my library.

If you will grant this request, it will be sincerely appreciated by

Yours truly,

John E. Borst.
