Slave Case
1847

January 19, 1923

Hon. Frank K. Dunn,
Charleston, Ill.

My dear Judge Dunn:

I have your letter of January 13, with copy of Mr. McIntyre's history of the Matson Slave Trial in 1847.

I am especially glad to have this document, and particularly grateful to you for the trouble you have taken in securing it for me.

Don't think of apologizing for any delay in sending it. I know the difficulty in following matters of this kind up, and I am really grateful for the trouble which I know you have taken in my interest.

I am just starting out on a piece of Lincoln work of a rather informal nature and fresh personal observations, and such a document as this cannot but be of real assistance.

I am, dear Judge Dunn, gratefully and

Sincerely yours,
