NOTED FRENCH CRITIC ADDRESSES STUDENTS

M. FIRMIN ROZ SPEAKS ON CON-DITIONS IN FRANCE

Speaking on conditions in France at the present time, M. Firmin Roz, noted French lecturer and literary critic, delivered an address in Alden Hall at 8:30, Thursday evening. The lecture was scheduled for the afternoon, but owing to unavoidable delays the speaker was unable to fill the engagement until evening. A large gathering was present in spite of the fact that his entire speech was given in French. M. Roz presented in a clear and forceful manner the change in the economic, educational, political, religious, and athletic life of France since the days preceding the World War. Before the war the economic conditions were stable; there was no great wealth, but every one had enough to live in comfort. After the war the cost of living rose enormously, and luxury increased to a similar extent. This economic worry infects the whole French nation.

The war has also brought about a great change in the educational system. The secondary schools formerly gave an excellent general education, but for economic reasons the number of years was shortened and the courses were made more definite and practical. This change has proved rather unsatisfactory, and scholars and business men alike wish to return to the old system. For what they want is not men who have been trained to do one certain thing but men who have been trained and taught how to work.

The lecturer then explained why the young men of France had ceased to take an interest in the internal activities of the government. For one reason he believes that there is nothing in politics to attract the college student. As soon as some great character or some big issue arises, the interest which had previously been shown in this activity will be revived.

The religious sentiment of France is gradually turning toward a more tolerant condition. Twenty years ago, during the administration of President Loubet, the church and state were separated. This move caused a strong feeling between the Catholics and those opposed to Catholicism. But recently a spirit of tolerance has been created and fostered by the students.

As a result of the presence of the American army in France, a real liking for sports has sprung up. The speaker gave a humorous illustration of this interest in American games. A friend of his who was a candidate for the Senate arrived at a small town to

OHIO ALLEGHENIANS

MEET FOR BANQUET

ALUMNI HAVE SUCCESSFUL REUN-ION IN CLEVELAND

Nearly 100 members of the Allegheny Alumni Association of Cleveland, Ohio, met in the Hotel Cleveland on April 28.

Mr. A. W. Robertson, '06, former president of the Pittsburgh Alumni Association, brought a personal message from Mr. A. W. Thompson, who was unexpectedly called East. Mr. Thompson sent also a map of the grounds and buildings of Allegheny ten years from now, which is expressive of the high goal that has been set.

Mr. Cornelius Laffer '20, and Hugh Wells '13, entertained during the dinner with clever musical parodies. Dr. W. A. Elliott discussed present problems of all the phases of college life, and the following officers were elected: John W. Barkley '11, president; Cornelius Laffer '20, vice president; Ida F. Preston '11, secretary-treasurer. Miss Preston is to hold her office indefinitely.

The latter part of the evening was spent in an informal reception at which Mrs. Elliott and Miss Ruth Elliott were guests.

FACULTY NOTES

Dr. F. G. Henke delivered the commencement address at the Springboro High School last Friday evening.

Professor G. L. Doty's mother and sister, Miss Alice Doty and Mrs. Wm. Kemmerling, of Monroe, Mich., are visiting him for several days.

PUBLICATION BOARD ELECTS CAMPUS STAFF

CHARLES W. HAVICE IS CHOSEN
NEW EDITOR OF COLLEGE
WEEKLY

At a meeting of the Allegheny College Publication Board held Thursday, April 26, Charles W. Havice, '24, was elected editor-in-chief of the Campus for the ensuing year. At the same meeting the complete staff for the year was named on the recommendation of the president editor, W. Melville Jones, and the approval of the board. All selections were based on the results of competition. The new editor and staff will assume charge of the college weekly beginning next week.

Mr. Havice was elected to the editorship on the basis of three years faithful work on the Campus staff. During the past year, as one of the news editors, he has had general charge of all the club and society news, and he has also been an efficient helper to the editor-in-chief in the make-up of the paper at the printing shop.

Assisting the new editor-in-chief will be Mr. C. M. Dale, '24, and Mr. T. A. Siedle, '24, as managing editor. Both of these men have worked for three years on the staff. Dale for the past year has been athletic editor, and Siedle has been news editor in charge of special college news. The duties of these men will be to render general assistance to the editor in managing and shaping the policy of the Campus.

The departmental editors as selected by the Publication Board are Ralph H. Demmler, news editor; William A. Risher, athletic editor; Lloyd M. Shaf-

DR. GORDON SPEAKER FOR SUNDAY SERVICE

BUFFALO PASTOR HOLDS IM-PORTANT CHARGE

Vesper services for May will be held next Sunday afternoon, May 6, at 3:30 o'clock, with the Reverend Arthur H. Gordon, D. D., pastor of the Delaware Avenue Baptist Church of Buffalo, as preacher.

Dr. Gordon, as the leading minister of the Baptist denomination in Buffalo, has had charge of the largest and principal church there for a number of years. The fact that he is closely associated with the Baptist Theological Seminary at Rochester, N. Y., indicates that his position in his church is one of influence and authority.

Although Dr. Gordon has not previously appeared at Allegheny as preacher, he will undoubtedly be well received, for he is a lecturer of rather wide reputation. He is also well known as a writer for magazines and religious weekly journals.

The college has been most fortunate this year in securing for the Vesper services, men eminent in all phases of religious activity. Not the least of these is Dr. Gordon, and his address should prove interesting, especially as he will make clear the viewpoint of another denomination on some topic of common concern.

A MESSAGE TO ALUMNI

Dear Alumni:

We are making a special effort to compile a new Allegheny College song book this year. We have run a students' song contest which has given us a number of good, snappy Allegheny songs which can be used in a new edition. Many of the old favorites will also be used.

We should like to have at least fifty compositions from the alumni to add to the songs we now have. Your hearty cooperation is necessary to make this possible. The new song book will be compiled this summer, and we must have your offerings by June 1st. If you have any good songs which were not in the last Allegheny song book, we shall be glad to have them.

Address all correspondence to CHASE GAGE,
College Song Leader.

ALLEGHENY TRACKMEN WIN EASY VICTORY OVER THIEL

Blue and Gold Champions Amass Large
Score Over Lutherans

Affording little or no opposition to the well trained Blue and Gold track stars, the green representatives from Thiel College were overwhelmingly defeated on Montgomery field last Saturday afternoon by a score of 130 to 5. This is the first year for track athletics in the Greenville institution and due credit must be given the individual members of the team for the great battle which they waged in the face of tremendous odds. The matinee meeting was featured by the performance of Bliss who shattered Corbett's mark of 11.06 in the 2 mile run when he covered the distance in 11 minutes 14.5 seconds. This is all the more remarkable when it is considered that weather conditions were anything but favorable to fast time. The other events with the exception of the mile, were run in rather slow time owing to the condition of the track.

Threatening skies and a handful of spectators in the stands greeted the starters in the century dash as they took their marks. The versatile Judd, with 18 points, led the individual scorers. Fred Parnell was a close second with 16 tallies. Thiel's five points came as the result of their scoring only five third places.

Ellsworth took the opening event, the hundred yard dash, in easy fashion. Montgomery surprised the crowd by coping second. Taylor proved to be a little better than Weining and barely nosed out the freshman for pole vault honors. Dnmere and Wimmer placed first in the 220 and 440 dashes respectively.

One of the surprises of the meet came in the half-mile run when Mackintosh, a new man, beat out Captain Wimmer for honors. Little was the

ALUMNI BULLETIN IS LARGEST EVER ISSUED

ACTIVITY OF ALLEGHENY LIFE IS COMPREHENSIVELY RE-VIEWED

The alumni number of the College Bulletin, which will be mailed this week, is a double number, the largest one yet issued. It is filled with a wide variety of news of interest to the alumni. The first page is occupied by greetings from the President, F. W. Hixson, in which he extends an invitation to the sons and daughters of Allegheny to return for commencement. The article entitled "On the Campus" gives a running account of campus news.

There is an article on the debating season, written by Dr. Stanley S. Swartley, and several pages are given to athletics. The section reserved for alumni meetings gives an account of many gatherings and dinners among the various alumni associations. The commencement program is given in full and the class reunions for commencement are announced by those who are managing them.

The Founder's Day exercises occupy an important place in the bulletin, and a resume of Miss Tarbell's address and the exercises of the day are included.

Under "Necrology" the biographies of four alumni who have died recently are given. Several are filled with personal news of alumni from far and near, giving an account of the splendid achievement of many of Allegheny's graduates.

STUDENTS APPEAR IN LOCAL MUSICAL SHOW

A number of Allegheny students participated in the presentation of "Kathleen," a very entertaining musical comedy in two acts, which was given under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. at the Academy theater last Monday and Tuesday. The leading roles were very ably portrayed by Miss Alta Postance, '22, and Mr. Russell Gearhart, '26. Mr. Harry Troup, '25, also had a title role. All the men in the choruses were college men. A number of college girls living in town were in the choruses also.

The play itself was very clever. It abounded in humor and brought many laughs to the capacity audiences attending the two performances. The musical numbers received hearty applause, especially the solos by Miss Postance and Mr. Gearhart.

MR. C. W. GILL TAKES TRIP IN EN-DOWMENT INTEREST

Mr. Charles W. Gill, '07, assistant treasurer, has just returned from a two weeks' trip in connection with the Second Century Fund. Alumni and friends of the college were visited in Greensburg, Latrobe, Johnstown, Uniontown, Charleroi and other Monongahela river towns. Mr. Gill returned to Pittsburgh in time to be present at the notable Alumni dinner to Miss Tarbell. He reports steady progress in the collection of the subscriptions, notwithstanding the fact of the past year's unfavorable business conditions.

PHILO-FRANKLIN CONTEST TO BE HELD TOMORROW

FIVE STUDENTS ENTER FINAL ORATORICAL EVENT OF
THE YEAR

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock the Philo-Franklin Oratorical Contest will be held in Ford Memorial Chapel. The contestants are Daniel W. Steenken, H. Grant Cummings, John M. Pratt, C. Leo Sutton, and A. H. Bartlett. This will be the final number on Allegheny's program of forensic activities and should be well worth attending.

This contest is an annual event, held under the auspices of the Philo-Franklin Forum, and for many years it has been looked forward to by the entire student body with considerable interest and expectation. It is one of the most important forensic activities of the year, and one in which the best speakers of the College compete. There has always been keen competition and enthusiasm shown in the contest and the indications are that the rivalry this year will be just as strong as ever. All of the entrants have been hard at work for some time so that all will be prepared to do their best to win one of the prizes.

The contest is open to all men of the college who are members of the Philo-Franklin Forum, and cash prizes are offered for the best original orations delivered by contestants. The income from a permanent endowment fund donated by five former members of the old Philo-Franklin Literary Society, is used to provide these prizes. Dr. William A. Elliott is at present trustee of this fund.

ALUMNUS SPEAKS ON THE NEW DARK AGES

DR. H. R. HARPER, '10, REFLECTS
HONOR ON ALMA MATER

That another Allegheny alumnus has attained to a position of distinction and influence came to the attention of the Campus last week through the report in a Denver, Colorado, newspaper of a speech made by Dr. Heber Reese Harper, '10, who was recently elected Chancellor of the University of Denver.

Dr. Harper, prior to his appointment as head of this great Methodist university, was assistant to the president of Boston University where he had received his degree of S. T. B.

Dr. Harper's speech on "The New Dark Ages or the New Renaissance" is of interest to Alleghenians not only because he is an eminent alumnus, but because he presents in it a rather unusually optimistic view of present day social conditions.

Briefly reviewing some contemporary literature and commenting on current public opinion, Dr. Harper discussed five "major fears" which are actuating the pessimistic attitude that is so prevalent today. They are: First, a biological fear that the race is deteriorating; second, a psychological fear that the race is losing its outstanding leadership through mass development; third, an economic fear that industry has overreached itself and bears in its body the seeds of decay; fourth, an administrative fear that the bigness and complexity of governments have made them unmanageable and that present administrative ability is inadequate to the demands; fifth, a moral fear that the present generation is wild and has renounced its allegiance to moral standards.

In refuting these fears, Dr. Harper said there are tendencies now operating which are counteracting the causes ingenious hope is better than the most ingenious hope is better than the most rational doubt.

The account also told of the meeting of Dr. Harper and Mr. S. H. Birdsell, '60, and their pleasant reminiscences of Allegheny.

In a debate between Grove City and Thiel College on the proposition, "Resolved that the cabinet parliamentary form of government should be introduced into the United States," Dr. C. F. Ross acted as a judge at Grove City, while Dr. C. B. Coleman filled the same position at Greenville.

CAMPUS RETURNS TO SPRING-TIME BEAUTY

GRASS AND SHRUBS HERALD
VANQUISHED ICE AND SNOW

When the equinox finally switched his tail across the equator, brushed the flies from his flanks, and casually started grazing toward his northern pastures, our hopes of spring rose with the mounting orbit of the sun. But the solar beast is as slow as any other ox and fully as perverse, and the spring recess sent us shivering to our homes to spend the greater portion of that period in a vain search for Easter joys amid Christmas weather. Our return found Meadville at its worst, cold, clammy, and damp. It seemed that it would never change, but suddenly one day the sun shone out, and we saw that spring had come.

The knoll is green, a tender, ravishing green that reaches its deepest lushness in the hollow by the fountain where the little lake gathers in the winter thaws. Against the sombre gloom of the pine trees, where the blackbirds whistle and shrill, hangs the tinted mist of maple buds and elm tassels. And beyond the grassy slope to Old Wilcox the feathery green of barberry leaves mellow to a heather mixture against the purple of the bricks and bushes.

The campus force has trimmed the walks and shrubs. Several dead trees have fallen under the saw. The powerhouse yard is neat and trim, and all precautions are being made to preserve the beauty of Allegheny's matchless campus.

ALLEGHENY SENDS MEN TO Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION

FOUR DELEGATES TO ATTEND
MEETING AT GETTYSBURG

All colleges and universities in the state will send delegates to the Y. M. C. A. state officers' convention which will be held at Gettysburg College, on May 4, 5, 6. Allegheny will send four delegates: J. E. Larson, secretary-treasurer of the state student committee, F. W. Mason, H. T. Taylor, and C. W. Havice.

This one of the most important meetings of the student associations and serves to strengthen and centralize the various organizations in the state. Programs will be formed and problems discussed.

Last year the convention was held at the University of Pittsburgh to which Allegheny sent five delegates.

PI DELTA EPSILON PLEDGES SIX MEN

FRATERNITY MAINTAINS HIGH STANDARDS FOR MEM-BERSHIP

Six pledges of Pi Delta Epsilon are now distinguished on the campus by their pledge ribbon of sea green and pearl gray which they will wear until initiation into the national honorary journalistic fraternity. These six men, Messrs. William J. Dale, Ralph H. Demmler, Merrill W. Doolittle, Clifton T. Little, William A. Risher, and Lloyd M. Shaffer, were elected at the meeting of the fraternity held last Wednesday evening.

Although there have been founded other journalistic honorary fraternities at various times, Pi Delta Epsilon is now considered by journalists as the leading organization of its type. It is necessarily so because of the severely high standards which it maintains throughout all its chapters, with which the national head keeps in close touch. President Warren G. Harding, Irvin S. Cobb, and T. A. Clark are among the active and well-known members of Pi Delta Epsilon, all of whom except President Harding are still engaged in professional writing.

The local chapter was instituted here a year ago this spring, and since that time has exerted a powerful influence over all college publications. Smokers have been given at some of the fraternity houses for the entertainment of the young journalists of Allegheny, and much enthusiasm and interest has been aroused in publication work here. The fraternity encourages under-graduates to compete for positions on the collegiate publications, and has during the last year created interest in several editorial contests that have been instituted under the leadership of the national chapter head.

Membership in this organization is given only after two years active and successful work on some college publication.

Mr. William J. Dale since his entrance here last year has been actively engaged in Kaldron work, doing a considerable amount of writing both last year and for the number that will be published this spring.

Mr. Ralph H. Demmler, who was recently elected editor of the 1923-1924 student manual, is completing his second year of "Campus" writing, and will now head its news department.

Mr. Merrill W. Doolittle consistently produced material for the Kaldron during his first two years of college, and this year is serving it as an associate editor. His work has been well

PITTSBURGH ALUMNI HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET

MISS IDA M. TARBELL IS PRESENT
AT ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING

Three hundred alumni packed the University Club at the annual banquet of the Allegheny College Alumni Association of Pittsburgh last Thursday evening, April 26. A brilliant program that included Ida M. Tarbell, President Fred W. Hixson and Mr. David Jamison was the feature of the evening.

President F. W. Hixson in his address, "Looking Forward," predicted that in less than twenty-five years Allegheny College would be known from coast to coast as well as she is now known in this immediate region of the country. "This can only be accomplished," he said, "if Allegheny can have the backing and support of the alumni."

First, the alumni must keep interested in the college. If the college paper doesn't suit you, write the editor. If the college isn't running correctly, write the president. Keep in touch with the affairs of the college.

"In the second place, the college needs the support of the alumni in the new building project. The college needs a new administration building, a men's dormitory, a recitation building, and a building that can accommodate the student body and their friends as a general meeting place."

"Come back to Allegheny at commencement time. There is no better

The new policy recently established of mailing the Campus to all alumni of the college has shown very fine results. The hope that the alumni of the college would be kept in closer touch with the institution and that the alumni body would become more interested in the college and its activities has begun to be realized. It is as yet too early to predict the outcome of the new plan but the results at present are very favorable. Many communications have been received from various alumni during the past two weeks—many of these letters from distant places and from alumni whose interest in Allegheny has lagged since their graduation. From both old and young graduates of the college have come greetings and good wishes to the students of the college. It is the hope that this policy will create a closer relationship between students and alumni—and that a deeper feeling will be aroused in this large body of Allegheny graduates toward their Alma Mater.

Saturday was a day of victories for Allegheny. In both the track meet and the swimming meet the Blue and Gold men won by large margins. The teams did not lie down on the job because they early realized their superiority, but gave all their energy throughout the meets. But there was one discouraging and humiliating element of the contests: the moral support of the student body was decidedly lacking, especially at the track events. An estimate of 150 students would exaggerate the number who came out to support their team. The women of the college were represented by some few dozen. There were probably four Faculty members. Such a lack of cooperation on the part of the College has a demoralizing influence on those who are giving all they have to add more glory to their institution. We cannot afford to neglect the small but important part which falls to us. When we meet Alfred here this Saturday, let us have the bleachers filled with enthusiastic, cheering Alleghenians.

Allegheny had the privilege of entertaining a guest of international note during the past week. M. Firmin Roz, representative of L'Alliance Francaise, literary critic and educator, lectured to Alleghenians in his native tongue at the meeting held on last Thursday evening. He also addressed the students in English at Chapel Friday morning. One of the most valuable effects of this prominent Frenchman's visit is to encourage a larger and more sympathetic group consciousness—a feeling that France and our country have many common interests and problems.

fer., society editor; Clifton Little, feature editor; and Charles C. Taylor, special writer. All these men have worked on the staff for two years. Their duties will be to take direct charge of assignments and to supervise the writing of news on the part of the underclassmen.

Assisting Mr. Demmler in the news department are Messrs. J. Niel Homer, Edwin J. Schruers, and J. Stuart McQuiston. These reporters will be sophomores next and will do the major part of the writing up of general college news.

The reporters under Mr. Risher in the athletic department are Messrs. Richard Beyer, Edgar Dehne, and Karl Reimer. They will cover the major athletic events.

In the society and alumni department, headed by Mr. Shaffer, the reporters are to be Messrs. John M. Pratt, G. Alfred Palmer, and J. Allison Rupert. It will be the function of this department to write up fraternity and sorority news as well as the social and club activities of the college. The alumni news also is included in this department.

The young women on the staff who will take care of the news from Hulings Hall are Misses Eleanore Taylor, Kathryn Robins, and Alice Skelton.

Positions on the staff of the Campus come entirely as a reward for work done. The competition this past year has been exceptionally keen due to the large number of students working on the paper. The Publication Board, consisting of the editors of three publications, Melville Jones, Alicia Tobin, Charles Bollinger, general manager, J. E. Larson, and three faculty members, Professors Elliott, Schultz, and Coleman, has examined the results of the past year's competition and has selected the staff as outlined above.

SENIOR MEN URGED TO ANSWER KALDRON QUESTIONNAIRES

With rapid progress being made toward the completion of the Kaldron, the staff is very anxious to receive replies to the questionnaires recently addressed to the men of the senior class. From the nature of the questions it is expected that some answers of extreme interest will be received, and the material thus provided will without doubt be used to good advantage in an entirely new section of the Allegheny annual. The staff hit upon this scheme for improving the college life section of the Kaldron, which will be an especially big feature of this year's book. There is absolutely no danger that the replies will be so unanimous in sentiment as to lack interest. The whole college will await with pleasure the verdict of the senior men on many of our institutions and customs.

CRITIC ADDRESSES STUDENTS

make a campaign speech. He was overcome with joy when he saw the large crowd that had turned out, but he was soon disillusioned when he was told that there was a boxing match to be held that day. Although there are few large fields or stadiums in France, it has not diminished the fondness for football, baseball, or basketball.

In conclusion M. Roz stated that this love for athletics is a bond which will link the youth of France with the youth of America and he hoped that the friendship of these two nations would become stronger in succeeding generations.

M. Roz came to America as a representative of L'Alliance Francaise and to secure American college students who are qualified to receive the scholarships awarded by the French government. Before his lecture on Thursday evening, Le Petit Salon held a formal dinner in his honor at the Lafayette Hotel.

M. ROZ SPEAKS AT CHAPEL

After his lecture in Alden Hall last Thursday evening, M. Firmin Roz remained to see the college and to extend greetings from the French people to the students in chapel the next morning.

"Do you realize," he asked after a brief introduction, "what America means to us of France? When we think of America, we think only of the United States; of the land of the government of the people, for the people, and by the people. We think of the immense development of a continent where everything was to be done, and where everything was done. America is a land of freedom and plenty to us, and when some poor man is pushed to the wall, we say, 'Oh, if only he had an uncle in America.'"

"The United States," he continued, "is great because it is a nation of pioneers. The pioneer is an idealist, a realist-idealist, and this is the fundamental character of the American."

"Speaking of the soldiers, nurses, and welfare workers who crossed the sea to the aid of France in the Great War, M. Roz said that he could best express himself in a phrase with which an American officer once paid tribute to the soldiers of France: 'Thank God, I have seen them.'"

"It gives me great pleasure," he said, "to express the gratitude and admiration of the people of France, and should any one from Allegheny College visit Paris, I shall do my best to make his stay most pleasant and profitable."

done, and upon his steady labor much of the success of this year's "Kaldron" will rest.

Mr. Clifton T. Little has done all his writing for the "Campus" and has been recently elected as feature editor of this publication. He began work on the staff in his sophomore year and has since been an active writer.

Mr. William A. Risher has also done his work on the weekly publication. Not only has he done his share of the writing, but he has done a great deal to forward the make-up work in the printing office. He has been elected as editor of the athletic department.

Mr. Lloyd M. Shaffer, since his freshman year, has been a steady contributor to the "Campus," and at the same time has been plying his talents with the "Kaldron" staff. He is now editor of the society and alumni department.

The six neophytes are now busy preparing for the pre-initiatory examination which the chapter rigidly enforces as one of the prerequisites to the wearing of the much prized hexagonal key of Pi Delta Epsilon.

BUCKNELL ADDS DEPARTMENT OF RELIGION TO CURRICULUM

A new department in religious education at Bucknell University will be headed by Leland Foster Wood, beginning next September. Heretofore, courses in this subject have been taught at the university, but the creation of a separate department is a new step.

Mr. Wood was graduated from the University of Rochester in 1908, and after receiving his Master of Arts degree there he completed a course in the Rochester Theological Seminary, which granted him the degree of Bachelor of Divinity in 1915. He will receive his degree of Doctor of Philosophy this June. While in college Mr. Wood was a leader in athletics. He has had practical experience in mission work in the African Congo.

DICKINSON CHEMIST INVENTS APPARATUS FOR DETECTING RUM

A rum detecting apparatus that promises to revolutionize the work of prohibition agents in securing invulnerable evidence against violators of the Eighteenth Amendment has been invented by Dr. Ernest Vuilleumier, Professor of chemistry at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa. By means of this apparatus, it is possible to tell the percentage of alcohol in a sample liquid in fifteen minutes. It has the added advantage of being so compact that it can be carried in a handbag.

Major Adams, superintendent of the Pennsylvania State Constabulary, who witnessed the first demonstration, has put his official oke on the invention by ordering the Pennsylvania State policemen equipped with the apparatus at once, to aid Governor Pinchot in his campaign against bootleggers.

Dr. Vuilleumier has named his invention "The Dickinson Alchometer" after Dickinson College in whose laboratories the invention was conceived and perfected. He is the son of Chas. Vuilleumier, Swiss Consul at Philadelphia and a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. He received his doctor's degree for graduate work at the University of Berne, Switzerland.

WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN HAS NEW PRESIDENT

The Rev. Elmer Guy Cutshall, Wesley Foundation representative at the University of Pennsylvania was elected to the presidency of West Virginia Wesleyan College at a special meeting of the Trustees on April 26. This appointment fills the vacancy created last year when Dr. Wallace B. Fleming resigned to assume the presidency of Baker University.

During the past two years the Rev. Cutshall has presided over the welfare of the eight hundred Methodist students at the University of Pennsylvania with a rare sympathy and understanding that has opened the way to wholehearted fellowship among the incoming freshmen who would otherwise be deprived of such companionship. His brilliant work in the Wesley Foundation Field has been conspicuously successful, and undoubtedly contributed largely to his election to the presidency of West Virginia Wesleyan College.

Previous to this he was a member of the Rock River Conference. He received his degree of doctor of philosophy from the University of Chicago.

GARRETT

Established in 1855

One of the really great theological seminaries of the country.
WALTER DILL SCOTT, President
Northwestern University

"With intimate acquaintance of most of the seminaries of the United States, extending from the time when I was president of the Federal Council, I wish to offer my testimony that no church in American Protestantism has, taking it by and large,
any higher grade of seminaries than has Methodism. In development of curricula, modern scholarship, and general progressiveness, I think they are in the very van of theological education and in the matter of supervised field work they have made a distinct place for themselves. Of the Methodist group Garrett stands in the forefront."

"Hindu Philosophy" was the subject of discussion at the meeting of the Philosophy and Education club held last Wednesday evening at the Alpha Chi Rho house. Mrs. Ruth Thoburn gave an interesting paper in which she told of some of her experiences among the Hindus. Following this address there was a general discussion and comparison of the superstitious peculiarities of Hindu and Chinese philosophy.

During the business meeting Mrs.
Thoburn and Harry Hummer were introduced into the club. The officers for next year were elected as follows:
President, Charles Havice; vice-president, Harry Hummer; secretary, Miss Virginia Berry, and treasurer, Miss Dorothea Reed.

"Hypnotism" will be the subject of discussion in the next meeting and some of the members will have an opportunity to undergo a hypnotic state.

THOBURN CLUB

"The Pastor's Relation to the Community" was the general topic for discussion at the meeting of the Thoburn Club held last Thursday evening in the Classical Club room of the Library. The plan of having different members of the club speak instead of having outside speakers was again carried out successfully, and several well prepared talks were given. "His Pastoral Work" and "Social Welfare of the Community" were presented by Mr. Harry Hummer and Mr. Robert Leeper respectively.

Alumni Activity ShowsCo-operation With College

Although only two fraternities held parties during the past week, the real spring weather of the last few days will doubtless bring on an increase in social activities. Spring parties will absorb the interest of the fraternity groups from now until the closing of college.

Alumni activity has been particularly strong during the past week. An alumni banquet was held in Pittsburgh and one in Cleveland. Prominent members of our Alma Mater spoke at these reunions.

A dinner was held on Sunday at the Phi Kappa Psi house for Phi Psi Daughters and Sisters who are attending college. The dinner was chaperoned by Miss Alice Spaulding.

A fraternity party chaperoned by Dr.
and Mrs. Ling was held at the Phi Psi house on Friday evening.

Phi Delta Theta held a chapter party at their house last Friday evening at which Dr. and Mrs. I. R. Beller chaperoned. Among the other guests were Miss Fannie Mitchell, Dr. John Hazen, and Mr. Carlson of Titusville.

Phi Gamma Delta held a small Founders Day dinner, Tuesday, May
1. All freshmen and active town members were entertained by the chapter in celebration of the 75th anniversary of the founding of the national fraternity.

"SHOW me," says the math. teacher—and when the chalk clouds have settled down there are a lot of figures signed "Q. E. D."
which aren't "Q. E. D." at all.

Say "Show me" to the shaving cream you're using and see what answer you get. Will it soften your beard right down to the base before the breakfast bell has rung twice? Will it leave your skin smooth and supple after every shave and give you the well-groomed look of perfect skin health?

Every day men are finding how much easier shaving can be made because of the speed and thoroughness with which Williams' softens the beard. Likewise, they are finding a help for their skin in Williams' that they never found in any other shaving cream. Try it may surprise you.

ALFRED MAY OFFER STRONG OPPOSITION

UP-STATERS HAVE DEVELOPED CONSIDERABLY SINCE
LAST YEAR

According to all reports Alfred is going to bring down a first class tank squad to oppose our varsity in their second clash of the season. An exciting meet should be held on Montgomery field this Saturday. Last year Allegheny and Alfred met in a dual meet at the latter place. Allegheny won by a fairly large score but in all of the events our men were pressed hard to win. Alfred's 1923 team is stronger than the one of last spring and a much better meet can be looked forward to. Alfred boasts of a wealth of long distance runners this year. They draw their material from their cross country squad which was one of the best in New York state last fall. The Adventists boast of some good sprinters also and Lobaugh, who starred in the football game between the colleges last fall with his wonderful run, may appear in the dashes of Saturday's track meet.

ELIMINATION GAMES GIVE KEEN COMPETITION

T. O. McQuiston assured his place on the varsity tennis team Monday by defeating R. W. Pratt in the finals of the college tournament. The semi-finalists, R. W. Pratt, J. E. Brownell, and R. E. Piper, have the right to challenge any members of last year's team. The challenges will be played early this week, in order that the five best men can practice for the coming matches.

The end of this week three teams will come to Meadville. West Virginia Thursday, W. and J. Friday, and Carnegie Tech Saturday is the order. West Virginia has a much better team than last year as is evidenced by the fact that last season's first man is only in the third place on the present team.

The other teams are equally strong. Tech especially has a fast aggregation. O'Connor, one of the Plaid's men, is junior champion of Pittsburgh. The team is coached by Chuck Garland, one time champion of the United States. All three matches will be of the best and the success of the entire season depends on the outcome. Therefore the students should be out en masse in order to assure victory for Capt. Clark's team.

LOCAL SWIMMERS ARE TOO MUCH FOR THIEL

BLUE AND GOLD NATATORS TAKE

Distinctly outclassing their rivals, Allegheny's swimming team defeated the Thiel tankmen in the local pool Saturday night, April 28, by a 53-6 score. The Blue and Gold swimmers took first and second in every event of the contest. This was the first of two swimming meets with the Thiel natators, the return meet being scheduled at Greenville next Saturday, May 5.

The outstanding stars for Allegheny were Wright and Hill who swam in practically all the events and alternated with one another in taking first and second places. Thiel's best swimmer was Berkman, who placed in two events, and also swam for the visitors in the 160 yard relay.

The events of the contest and their results are as follows:

THE COZY CORNER

Business Building

THE selling of commodities is fundamental in every business, and selling life insurance affords the maximum of satisfaction and remuneration. For the life insurance salesman is a business builder and finds innumerable ways to serve the community and make himself indispensable in the conduct of modern affairs.

The life insurance salesman is not only a business builder but he is in business for himself, creating a competence permanent and continuous. It is the best paid work for those who are ambitious and willing to work, and who have the character and stamina necessary to stamp their individuality upon the business and on their community.

The traditions and practices of the JOHN HANCOCK are such that the college graduate can take a peculiar pride in representing this company. You are liable to remain in the business you enter on leaving college. Before making a definite decision inquire into life insurance as a career. Write, "Agency Department."
