OF ALLEGHENY COLLEGE

TAKE HER TO THE SENIOR DANCE — TOMORROW NIGHT.

VOLUME NO. XL. NO. 26 MEADVILLE, PA., MAY 10, 1922 PRICE FIVE CENTS

SENIOR DANCE TO BE HELD TOMORROW NIGHT

EARL FULLER'S "COLLEGE BOYS" WILL FURNISH MUSIC FOR ALL-COLLEGE AFFAIR.

Undoubtedly one of the largest events of the college year will be the Senior all-college dance in the gymnasium next Thursday evening, May 11, at 8 o'cock. The Senior committee, after much hard work, has planned this to be the biggest and best affair held on the hill this season.

The question of who is going to furnish the music for the occasion has been definitely decided by the committee in securing the famous Earl Fuller's "Original College Boys." This orchestra is recognized as one of the best attractions on the road and the persons in charge are to be congratulated upon their excellent choice. The orchestra is composed of musicians selected from various colleges all over the country and massed into a combination that is out of the ordinary. Mr. Green, the leader, is a Penn-State man of the class of '18. The other players are from Pitt, Tech, State, W. and J. and U. of Michigan.

Much interest has been aroused by the fact that one of their number is no other than Albert Trezise, of Dubois, ex-'22 Allegheny. "Al" entered the college with the present Senior class, and was very active on the hill. Playing first clarinet, he held an important position in the band his first year. Recently he received a Carnegie medal for saving the life of a young lad in Meadville. The boy had slipped and fallen into Mill run, but was finally rescued by Trezise after an exciting struggle. The next year Mr. Trezise went from Allegheny to the University of Pittsburgh, where he continued his studies. Old friends of "Al" will be glad of the opportunity of seeing him again.

Not only has the orchestra an enviable reputation for having pep, but it has a perfect rhythm and delightful harmony. It also gives a varied program by the introduction of popular vocal numbers.

The "Boys" are touring eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania and will come direct from Wooster. This aggregation is under the management of Earl Fuller, of Pittsburgh. Mr. Fuller is also manager of various other musical organizations, including Reed's and Shinner's, and guarantees his "Original College Boys" to be a receipt for a perfect evening.

As this entertainment is out of the ordinary run of college social functions, it is hoped that it will receive the support of the entire student body.

Tickets may be procured at the various Fraternity houses and at the door.

DR. J. R. SCHULTZ SPEAKS AT COMMERCIAL COLLEGE

DISCOVERY OF AMERICA ALONG POETIC LINES IS THEME OF ADDRESS.

On Monday morning of this week, Dr. J. Richie Schultz addressed the students of the Meadville Commercial College upon the subject, "Discovering America."

The discovery of America in literature, poetry and along commercial lines was especially emphasized by the speaker. He deplored the habit of our ancestors adopting the names of European towns and cities instead of using names that are distinctly American. He said, "It took 200 years to get rid of 'sky-lark' in American poetry."

In this phase of literary work, he paid a tribute to two great American authors, Mark Twain and O. Henry, for their portrayal or real American characters.

American painters should paint the landscape of this country, Americans should see America first, and the people of this great land should do everything in their power to promote things American.

"Let us not be afraid of a little effort," said Dr. Schultz, "when you have discovered for your own advantage the pleasure of America's worthwhile things, be sure that you give it back to your community in the form of personal service."

KLEE-O-KLEET WILL GIVE CHINESE PLAY ON THURSDAY, JUNE 1

PRODUCTION IS UNDER THE DIRETION OF MISS FANNIE MITCHELL AND PROF. H. S. GOODFELLOW.

With frequent rehearsals under the direction of Miss Fannie Mitchell and Prof. H. S. Goodfellow, "The Chinese Lantern," by Lawrence Housman, the play to be produced by the Klee-O-Kleet Club on June 1, is rapidly progressing.

The play might properly be classed as a high comedy with enough burlesque to make it prove interesting to everyone. The love plot that runs throughout the entire story finds a picturesque setting in the art studio of an old master. A theme almost of tragedy is presented by Mee Mee, the little slave girl, and her lover, Tikipu. The comedy that Olangtsi, Mrs. Olangtsi and Yunglangtsi together with the other characters provoke, is most amusing and entertaining.

The cast consists of:

Olangtsi, a master of arts ..... Clara Weller

Mrs. Olangtsi, called Mrs. Back-of-the-House .... Myrtle Peters

Yunglangtsi ..... Isabel Johnson

Josi Mosi, a Chinese Jew rag and bone merchant..... Helen Bowman

Cosi Mosi, his brother, a money lender ..... Lois Halderman

Tikipu, a bottle washer and general drudge ..... Mildred Ellis

Mee Mee, a Korean slave girl..... Dorothie Davids

Wiowani, an old master, Helen Shaffer

Students, Apprentices and Craftsmen.

Pee-Ah-Bee ..... Marion Minch

Kan-Kin..... Lucile Leffingwell

Tee-Pee ..... Margaret Prather

Hiti-Titi..... Mary Katherine Barnes

New-Lyn ..... Mildred Hileman

Nau-Tee..... Dorothy Davidson

Li-Long..... Olive Hammerton

CAPTAIN F. W. GODDARD SPEAKS AT CHAPEL

REVIEW OF WORK DONE BY SALVATION ARMY IS GIVEN IN SHORT TALK.

Captain F. W. Goddard of the local organization of the Salvation Army briefly and in concise terms gave an impressive glimpse of the work being done by the Army here and abroad, at the Chapel hour last Friday morning.

He told of several instances of the effective work of the organization since the war, and although he expressed no verbal appeal, the plea was all the stronger for the fact that it was not put into words.

Mr. Goddard was born in Nottingham, England. Because of the fact that his family was opposed to his desire to join the Salvation Army there, when but a lad of 16 years, he left England and came to Canada, allying himself with the Canadian headquarters.

Many people do not know that the Salvation Army has a system of changing the location of their captains not unlike the system used by the Methodist Church with the ministers. While the Methodists can keep a pastor for several years by making such a request, each Captain of the Salvation Army is allowed but two years in one place. At the culmination of his two years' work in one field, he is liable to a change at any time. A two-weeks' notice is given of the fact that he is to move.

Captain Goddard went from Canada to Philadelphia, from there to New York city, where he was married, and where, on account of the sickness of his wife, he was compelled to give up the active work of the Army for some months.

After her recovery he was transferred back to Philadelphia, from there to Phillipsburgh, Pa., and from Phillipsburgh to Meadville. Mr. Goddard and his family have been here over two years and are prepared for the call that may come at any time to take up their work in some other city.

Allegheny's Orator Wins Second Honors

M. E. Graham Represents College at Civic Oratorical League Contest

Mortimer E. Graham, representing Allegheny College, received second place at the Twelfth Annual Contest of the Civic Oratorical League held on last Wednesday morning. The contest was held at the Soldiers Memorial Hall in Pittsburgh. "Hinges of Destiny" received first place, by Howard F. Lowry, of Wooster. This speech had been in preparation for over a year and has been awarded first place in several other contests.

The speakers and speeches in order of their places are:

"Hinges of Destiny," Howard F. Lowry, of Wooster.

"The Parting of the Ways," Mortimer E. Graham, Allegheny.

"The Hope of the World," William Fifield Whitman, Colgate.

"Our Tariff Policy," Henry Adair McCracken, W. and J.

"A Modern Pharoah," George H. Cheney, Ohio Wesleyan.

"The Present Crisis," Gregg I. Milligan, U. of P.

The judges were: President A. A. Johnston, of Geneva College; President I. H. Brumbaugh, of Juniata College, and Prof. B. W. King, of West Virginia University. Dr. S. S. Swartly is the Allegheny Faculty member of the league.

"The Parting of the Ways," the speech given by Mortimer E. Graham at the contest, was repeated at the chapel service last Saturday morning. "Revolutionary movements which rock the very foundations of our institutional life, have their roots deep in the soil of preceding ages," said Mr. Graham. The Reformation is an example of this movement. It started as a small spark, but has spread down through the ages, until now, not only our religious, but also our economic life is afire with revolt.

The Federation of Labor started in 1881 with 50,000 members; now there are four million. Last March, when President Lewis of the United Mine Workers said, "We will strike, and keep on striking until the future of unionism is assured," the revolutionary doctrine of national unionism was set before the people.

With the coal strike of April 1st the situation became clear. The American Federation of Labor is in absolute support of the miners. The National Manufacturers' Association is backing the operators. Thus, two classes, nationally organized, are in open conflict with each other.

The problem of siding either with the employer or the employee is the one which the people must decide. Both capital and labor have their good and bad points. This is the parting of the ways.

If the citizen follows the path of either class, then he will sell himself to the domination of that class. We must find a new way that is equally just to both classes. This way is already marked by the corporations which have rejected both capital and labor and have brought the two together in joint management of industry.

This is the true course and must be followed by the people so that our supremacy shall continue.

This is the second time in fifteen years that Allegheny has taken a second place in this contest. The last time was four years ago, when the college was awarded second honors. Wooster was also the winner of last year's contest.

ANNUAL PUBLICATION IS NEARING COMPLETION

KALDRON WILL HAVE MANY INTERESTING FEATURES.

This year's Kaldron is rapidly nearing completion. Editor John C. Bird expects to have the annual publication ready at an early date, providing the work continues to progress as rapidly as it has during the past month.

As soon as the engravings arrive, the forms will be filled up and made ready for the press. Several sections, including the Senior panels and the art section, have been completed and more are expected to be finished soon.

There will be several new features this year. The front of the book will contain views of the campus. A new and pleasing kind of humor section is promised, as well as a complete calendar. As to the nature of these features, nothing could be learned, since the staff is holding them as a surprise for the student body.

Some exceptional photographs have been made by John Bird and they should interest not only the undergraduates, but they should recall pleasant memories to the mind of the "old grad."

PLANS ARE COMPLETED FOR MOVIE ON MAY 16

"JULIUS CAESAR" IS KNOWN AS BEST CLASSIC PRODUCTION.

All plans are now completed for the presentation next Tuesday, May 16, of the motion picture "Julius Caesar" by the Classical Club. The film will be shown in the Chapel at 8 p. m.

This is the first time that a film of this nature has been brought to the school by a departmental club of the Hill, and it promises to fulfill all the expectations it has aroused. As was announced in the last issue of the Campus, the picture is replete with thrills, romance and beautiful scenery, as well as being in its details accurate as to historical fact. It has been seen and appreciated by hundreds of audiences both in the United States and abroad and has aroused much favorable comment. Many place this movie as the foremost classic photoplay in the circuit.

The film version follows closely Shakespeare's drama of the same name and for that reason will appeal greatly to students of English who doubtless want to see for themselves the scenery portrayed by the dramatist. But it has a real interest, too, for the person equipped with a general reading knowledge of Rome and the Romans of the last century B. C. Aside from having these educational qualities, "Julius Caesar" can be classed among the real "thrillers" which feature Wm. S. Hart and Douglass Fairbanks, for the battle scenes and adventures are gripping in their realistic picturization.

Two machines will be used for the showing, assuring the audience of continuous and clear projection. Through fortunate arrangements with the producers, it has been possible to obtain this picture at such a nominal cost that only 35 cents will be charged for admission. It is hoped that all who can will take the opportunity thus offered to see this famous motion picture.

Vice President—Helen Shaffer.

Secretary and Treasurer—Linnie Louden.

Second Junior Member—Mary Wickham.

Sophmore Member—Eleanore Taylor.

Y. M. C. A. OFFICERS HOLD STATE CONFERENCE

JOHN E. LARSON, OF ALLEGHENY, WAS ELECTED A MEMBER OF GOVERNING COMMITTEE

One of the most auspicious college student events of the year was the Conference of College Y. M. C. A. Officers of Pennsylvania, which was held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of the past week at the University of Pittsburgh. This Conference had representation from practically every college and university of the state, every institution sending from one to six delegates. Its purpose was to discuss and outline the program of the Student Associations of the State for the coming year.

An important change in the officiary of the organization was voted favorably upon. This change will be of interest to Alleghenians since Allegheny will have a direct power in the state work. A committee of counsel will govern and direct the affairs of the various geographic groups of the state. Mr. J. E. Larson was elected as a member of this committee to represent Allegheny, Thiel, Westminster Grove City, as well as Clarion, Edinboro and Slippery Rock Normal Schools. Allegheny has been given particular distinction in that Mr. Larson will also serve as Secretary-Treasurer of the council, which means that the college will be practically a center for the organization throughout Pennsylvania. Other members of this counsel are from Washington and Jefferson, Bucknell, Dickenson and Lafayette.

Many prominent speakers addressed the conference. Howard Heinz, president of the Heinz Co., spoke on "The Unique Function of the Student Y. M. C. A."; Dr. Thoburn, of the Christ M. E. church, of Pittsburgh, discussed "What of Reality is There in the Christian Life;" and Messrs Tinker, Miller, Olmstead and Straney, all very well known in Y. M. C. A. work, gave many valuable suggestions and methods for the men in conference.

The representatives from Allegheny at this conference were the Messrs. Boynton, Larson, Havice, Thoburn and Wills.

COLLEGE STUDENT TAKES PART IN CHURCH PLAY

JOHN S. ROACH, '23, IS LEADING CHARACTER IN "TRIAL OF PAUL."

That the local churches have the co-operation of the college is evidenced by the active part taken by the students from time to time. A recent illustration of this fact is in reference to the "Trial of Paul," a play given by an organization of the Stone church. The principal part in this religious play, that of St. Paul, was very successfully interpreted by John S. Roach, '23. Mr. Roach merited much favorable comment from those who saw the presentation for his ability to so ably act the difficult role assigned him.

The play gave a very impressive picture of the later life of Paul, and was one which made a great appeal.

CIRCUIT RIDER OF PIONEER DAYS GIVES INTERESTING TALK AT Y. M. C. A.

The Rev. Mr. Canday spoke at the Y. M. C. A. meeting, relating many of his early experiences in the preaching field. The Rev. Mr. Canday has had many interesting and exciting experiences in connection with his work, and gave an exceptionally good description of the work that was done by the old circuit riders of the earlier days.

Many people are inclined to think that the duties of the ministers of that time were not as great as at the present time, and it was to dispel this misconception that Mr. Canday devoted much of his talk. He was himself a circuit rider in Missouri and had many inspiring experiences there, both in the regular pastoral work and in the revival services.

Since the times and the scenes that he discussed were for the most part those that are wholly unknown to the present generation, what Mr. Canday said was of special interest.

Mr. C. T. Boynton, the new president, had charge, and, after the closing prayer by Dr. I. R. Beiler, the meeting was dismissed.

ALLEGHENY DEBATERS WILL MEET MT. UNION

QUESTION OF CLOSED SHOP WILL BE DISCUSSED FRIDAY EVENING.

Allegheny's affirmative and negative debating teams will meet the Mount Union College teams on Friday evening at 8 o'clock in a discussion of the question, "Resolved, that the application of the principles of the closed shop are for the best interests of the American people, constitutionality conceded." The negative team will meet the Mt. Union affirmative in Ford Memorial Chapel, and the Allegheny affirmative will meet the Mt. Union negative in the First Methodist church, of Alliance, O. President Hixson will preside at the local debate. The Glee Club will render a selection between the main and rebuttal speeches.

The team to represent Allegheny before the Mt. Union audience consists of John Bozic, Robert Leeper and Julian Ross, with I. B. Estep as alternate. The negative team, which will debate here, is composed of Ralph Demmler, J. E. Larson and Mortimer Graham, with Russell Blodgett as alternate. The Mt. Union team to debate here consists of James Naylor, Margaret Wagner and George King, with Frank Maturo as alternate.

The judges of the contest are to be Rev. John W. Love, of Washington, Pa.; Prof. Charles W. Coulter, of Western Reserve University, and Principal Elmer G. Frail, of Gridley High School, Erie, Pa.

Inasmuch as Allegheny's team has had five weeks of preparation on the question and since Mt. Union has debated the question several times this year, an interesting contest is promised.

CLUB ACTIVITIES FOR THE WEEK

HISTORY AND POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB ENTERTAINED BY DR. AND MRS. COLEMAN

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Coleman entertained the History and Political Science Club at their home on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. After the business meeting an initiation ceremony was conducted under the direction of the new officers. The initiates were: Charlotte Jelbart, Ray Klingensmith and Tracy Johnson.

The remainder of the meeting was in charge of Mr. Huidekoper, who read a paper on "Local History."

PARODIES OF MODERN BOOKS ARE REVIEWED AT MEETING OF QUILL CLUB.

Parodies of well known books and poems claimed the attention of the members of the Quill Club on Tuesday evening. "Ptomaine Street," by Carolyn Wells, a clever parody of "Main Street," was presented by Mildred Ellis. Wilhelmina Traum gave a talk on "Parodies of Modern Poets." "The Cruise of Kawa" is a satire on the novels of the South Seas so prevalent today. This book was discussed by Olive Hammerton. "Including Horace," by Untemeyer, and "Comic History of Greece," by Snyder, were reviewed by Miss Gerley. Another book discussed was "How Love Came to General Grant." It is a parody of H. G. Wells' "Outline of History," and is written in the style used by Harold Bell Wright.

THOBURN CLUB.

A meeting of the Thoburn Club was held Thursday evening, May 4, at 7:30 o'clock, in the oratory of the chapel. A very interesting and instructive talk was given to the club by Dr. Beiler on a review of the books that are of benefit to a minister and his work.

Immediately following Dr. Beiler's address, an election of officers was held. George Braun was elected president, Harry Hummer vice president, V. A. Chilcote secretary, and Ray Hurst treasurer.

EDITORIAL

Allegheny received second place in the oratorical contest held by the Civil Orotorical League at the University of Pittsburgh. This is very commendable in that four of the six schools competing in the contest maintain Oratorical Departments and the men chosen to represent them were majoring in this department. One of these schools, Wooster, received first place with Allegheny's representative a close second. It clearly demonstrates the fact that Allegheny is constantly improving in this department. Allegheny has been a member of the Civic Oratorical League for the past eleven years and with the exception of 1918 has never received a standing above fourth place in the contest. By these facts we can readily gauge the improvement made in oratory and if the standards can be correspondingly raised during the next few years Allegheny will stand second to none among the schools of the tri-state district.

A

The excellent showing made by the tennis team last Friday demonstrates the fact that Allegheny will place a well balanced team on the courts this season. West Virginia, although a formidable opponent, was defeated in every match, the final score being 6-0. Allegheny's team will meet all the schools of the tri-state district and it is hoped that the local combination will be able to win the championship. The team is worthy of support from the entire student body.

Buying tickets for "The Chinese Lantern" and "Grumpy" will take very little energy and little money. All the work is being done now by the casts and coaches, who turn out for rehearsals when the rest of the student body is going up the "Cussie." The price of a ticket is not, or could not be just payment for the energy and effort expended for the production of a play. When the settings, costumes and scenery are all ready it will be an easy matter to walk over to the gym and pass an evening of fun.

Yet the responsibility for the financial success of the play rests with the student body. And from what we can gather it looks as though the attendance will be enormous. Possibly this is because the play will be presented early in June just before the finals. Everyone will be ready for all the enjoyment possible before exams begin.

What can you do as an individual student to swell the sale of tickets? Talk up the plays. On the campus. Before classes come to order. Talk about them to town people. Make it your business to see that your roommate goes. Go after the fellow across the hall. Make the fellow (we don't know who he is(who plans to stay away, have a lonesome time of it. But better, tell us about him today.

A

A large number of High School students from various districts will be the guests of Allegheny for the Interscholastic Track Meet this week-end. An impression of the college will be obtained during the short time they spend here. It is the duty of every Alleghenian to receive them cordially and make their stay a pleasant one.

A

In the end, it may be unfortunate for the student who carelessly remarked that "nobody on the hill does anything in spring," and for all who let themselves believe it. A little laxness in study is to be expected during hot days, but conscious and daily neglect of work on the part of the student in order that he may stroll around the campus is nothing less than deplorable. The student who lets work slide is sure to come out in the hole. His failure to keep it up simply means that he does not realize his place, that he is immature. In a sense he makes, at the opening of new semester, a contract with the faculty to do so much work. A certain fee is put up and the contract is closed. The professor is expected to keep up his end of the contract and he does. This is because he is more mature. If the student falls down on the job because he would rather be outdoors all day, he is doing a childish thing; he stamps himself as immature. It is to be remembered that the proper arrangement of time provides opportunity for both work and good times. Sliding in bad from the point of view of business.

MOUNTAINEER TENNIS TEAM IS DEFEATED BY 6-0 SCORE

ALLEGHENY MEN SHOW FINE FORM AT OPENING OF SEASON.

In the first intercollegiate match of the season, the Allegheny racquetters defeated the West Virginia racquet wielders last Friday afternoon by a 6-love score. It was a decisive victory for the Blue and Gold. The games were played on the Phi Kappa Psi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity courts, and were witnessed by many.

All the sets proved highly interesting. Flint gave his man the worst beating in the singles by taking the first two sets, 6-3 and 6-4. The match betwen Clark and Hutchens, of West Virginia, was a long drawn out affair and held everyone's interest. Clark nosed out his man by taking two sets, 14-12 and 9-7. Little trouble was encountered by either of Allegheny's double outfits. Both teams defeated their opponents by winning the first two sets. All the Allegheny players displayed excellent form and did some splendid playing. Coffman was the outstanding man on the West Virginia team.

The summaries of the match follow:

Singles.

Cochran (A.) defeated Coffman (W. Va.), 1-6, 8-6, 6-3.

Flint (A.) defeated Olmstead (W. Va.), 6-3, 6-4.

Bittner (A.) defeated Jones (W. Va.), 6-4, 4-6, 7-5.

Clark (A.) defeated Hutchens (W. Va.), 14-12, 9-7.

Doubles.

Cochran and Flint (A.) defeated Coffman and Jones (W. Va.), 6-1, 6-3.

Bittner and Clark (A.) defeated Hutchens and Olmstead (W. Va.) 6-2, 6-3.

DR. C. F. LITTELL GIVES INTERESTING TALK

MANY SURPRISING FACTS ARE BROUGHT OUT ON THE SUBJECT OF COLLEGE POPULARITY.

Holding the undivided attention of all during the entire chapel period last Thursday morning, Dr. C. F. Littell delivered an excellent and pleasing essay on the value of popularity in college relative to success later in life. In view of the fact that the whole speech was well delivered, because it had a personal touch, and because of the well presented truths contained therein, the talk was much appreciated by the students.

Stating the fact that there is in every young person a desire for prosperity and popularity, Dr. Littell went one to say that great men of the past were today regarded in the same light in which they were looked upon by their contemporaries, we would not be gathered together here in a chapel dedicated to Christ. He used Lincoln, who was very unpopular during his administration, as an example of the fact that popularity is not the test of value.

David Lloyd George and Jack Dempsey, playing their unique and entirely different roles in the modern world were considered by Dr. Littell as to their popularity and chance of future greatness. However, no didactic conclusions were drawn, and each listener felt that the characters were well chosen.

Citing, as examples, men from various occupations and professions, it was shown that the popularity of these men during their college careers did not fortell correctly their future possibilities.

"An instructor's popularity varies inversely to the amount of work that he gives out." With this more or less jocular statement Dr. Littell gracefully brought the force of the examples he had already given, to bear out the fact that after the college course is completed the erstwhile students think of their former instructors in terms of their intrinsic worth, rather than in consideration of how work could be evaded under each.

THE PROFS WERE RIGHT.

Though June is not so far away, my golden hair is turning gray because when others go for flowers, I have to spend the scorching hours above a book that drives me mad and kills for me the hiking fad. When grackles hear my daily groan, they mock me in a crackling tone and as I work away all week, the robins warble out "The Shiek." The outside reading I must do would even make a "grind" feel blue. When dear professors used to plead that I would settle down and read when snow was thick upon the ground and robins were not hopping 'round; I would not climb library hill, but put assignments off until I have to stand outside the door and fight with twenty-three or more who put it off (as fools will do) and have to read the darn stuff too. Sometimes I'm on the very brink of suicide, for who would think with twenty-three above his head, persuading him to go to bed or quit the place and cross the street and enjoy himself and eat. Recall what Sherman said of war—Well, this is all of that, and more!

Bret Harte may have used "local color," but there are others.

If you look into the Library on spring evenings you may expect to find the "grinds" and those who are paying their way through college.

SPRING SPORTS FEATURE HULINGS HALL ACTIVITIES

ENTHUSIASM IS SHOWN BY GIRLS IN HIKING, TENNIS AND HORSE BACK RIDING.

Hulings Hall has gone into spring sports with a zest and enthusiasm shown by the large number of girls who are entering into out-door activities in which the most interest is shown. Girls who are out for A's are hiking an hour each day, while many more are going out at least two hours a week. Since the tennis courts have been put in good condition they are in use from 6 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock in the evening. However, the sport which enjoys the most popularity among the girls is horseback riding. At least thirty students have made arrangements to take a course of twelve or fifteen lessons under Miss Mitchell, who has had a great deal of experience in riding. While horse-back riding was only introduced into Allegheny last year, interest in it is growing rapidly and from all indications, by next year it will be an established sport.

He Reached the Top

THE Vice-President of a great life insurance company who began his career as an agent has this to say to seniors who are about to graduate from college:

"If you love work and desire to pursue an honorable, useful and lucrative mission in life this is the business for you to take up. Life insurance salesmanship offers a fine field for the energies of the splendid young men in our colleges.

"That this is true is demonstrated by those college men who have taken up life insurance for they have shown that the college man is fit for this kind of a job and that the job also is fit for the college man.

"The work of the life insurance salesman is distinguished by independence and opportunity for directing his own. It gives all possible opportunity for individual initiative and a chance to make an ample income at an age when most fellows are struggling on a wage pittance."

That is the story of one who began at the bottom and reached the top without the help of a college education. The advantages are with you who graduate from college. Before deciding your career make inquiries of the "Agency Department."

REPRODUCTION OF MODERN AND ANCIENT ART TO BE USED IN ART APPRECIATION COURSE.

At the suggestion of Dr. W. A. Elliott, the college has recently purchased a collection of some three hundred pictures, which are to be used for the course in Art Appreciation.

At present there are a few prints on exhibition in the Library. These are very successful reproductions, especially in regard to the coloring. This collection embraces not only the old masters' paintings and most of the famous modern pictures, but also a considerable number of recent pictures which are claiming much attention. Several paintings in this list have subjects taken from the great World War.

A number of these pictures are on display now, and from time to time others will be placed in the exhibition case.

Allegheny Defeats Geneva in Dual Meet

Excellent Showing Made by New Material—Heavy Rains Cause Slow Track

With the individual members of the track team showing unexcelled form, Allegheny defeated Geneva by a score of 68 1-2 to 57 1-2 last Saturday at Beaver Falls. Due to the fact that several of the Allegheny men have been ill during the past few days and have received almost no training, and due to the fact that the Geneva track was wet and soft because of heavy rains, only good running won the meet for Allegheny. After a full week of rain at Beaver Falls, it was doubted if the weather would hold off for the meet. There was a slight mist in the air during part of the meet and the track was soft, but the men were not seriously inconvenienced. The officiating was noticeably poor.

Perhaps the most pleasing feature of the meet was the promising showing made by some of the first year men. In the pole vault remarkable work was done by Judd. He made six inches more than he has done any time previously; and Moore was able to make an excellent showing in spite of the fact that he has been laid up all week with a bad leg. Taylor's work was the best that he has done thus far.

In the start of the hundred yard the Geneva men all beat the gun and according to custom, McCreary stopped, expecting another start, but the Geneva men did not stop. The fact that McCreary did not make a better showing was but an example of the poor officiating, and does not in any way detract from the real value of the runner shown in past meets.

Kirschner and Little showed excellent form, being close behind the first man in the mile. The winning time was twelve seconds faster than that which has been made in practice. This is the first year that Little has been out and Kirschner succeeded in nosing him out of second place only by a distance of a few feet. Kirschner's showing in the 880 was remarkable. Wimmer and Kirschner both did fine work in the running against Hays, a man who seems to be living up to his name.

Bender was a very close second in the 100-yard dash, which was run in 10 flat, according to the faulty timekeeping. However, this speaks well of Bender as a dash man.

Since Bender graduates this June it is very lucky for the team that Ellsworth shows such excellent promise in both the hurdles and in the shorter distances. Ellsworth took three third places in the meet.

MacGowan has been ill for some time, but after but one day's practice, he put the shot for 37 feet 6 inches.

Cunningham broke the college record when he made the 121-foot hammer throw. This victory was the result of good form and consistent work.

Agnew, a fairly new "discovery," with his slow run but fine spring is making a good man for the broad and high jumps; while Bliss, although badly pocketed during the greater part of the 2-mile run, sprinted a very good finish, breaking loose 50 yards from the tape and finishing a close second.

The entire team considerably bettered any previous performance of the season. Individual form and sportsmanship was marked. The matches with Alfred and W. and J. promise to be well contested meets.

Summary of events:

100-yard dash—First, Windram (G.); second, Bender (A.); third, Klee (G.). Time—10 flat.

INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET CREATES MUCH INTEREST

All Entries Appear to Be Evenly Matched

In view of the fact that such schools as Shadyside Academy, of Pittsburgh; South High, of Youngstown; Ashtabula Harbor High School; Academy and Central High, of Erie, and others are among the entries in the Allegheny interscholastic track meet this year, the event is taking on a much broader aspect than ever before. This annual high school classic under the auspices of the Athletic Association of the college will be held Saturday afternoon, May 13, on Montgomery Field.

South High, of Youngstown, the winner of the interscholastic meet last year, is reputed to have an outfit equally as good as the team that represented the Red and Blue on the local field in 1921. Last year's team set a standard for future athletes of the school and it is expected that under the leadership of James Hale, the team representing South High this season will equal this record. The team shapes up well with a favorable balance for each event on the track and the field.

Ashtabula Harbor High School, it appears, will present a much stronger competition this year than it did last season. If the results of the triangular meet between the Harbor, Ashtabula and Academy, of Erie, are any criterion, the Harbor team has the edge on the Southsiders, of Erie. The triangular meet was won by the Harbor boys with 42 points. Academy followed with 41 points, losing the meet by the loss of the relay. Academy High records were broken in this meet by representatives of the Blue and Gold themselves. Clarence Genck, of Academy, put the shot 40 feet 4 inches, breaking the school record by 4 feet 6 inches. Hample, a mere youngster, won the high jump for Academy by going 5 feet 5 1-2 inches. Many Ashtabula Harbor men showed up well. The pole vault and broad jump were won by Harbor men. Jackway took first in the pole vault with 9 feet 6 inches, and Orquist broke the former record for the broad jump. The new distance is 19 feet 6 inches. The former record was 18 feet 19 1-2 inches.

The Academy team would have been in much better shape to win the meet had it had the services of Raymond Kern, last year's captain. As yet, it is doubtful whether or not he will be allowed to participate in the interscholastic meet here on Saturday. Kern's inelegibility is due to his age. There is a discrepancy in his birth record and until the question of his age has been settled to the satisfaction of the Academy High School authorities, Kern will not be eligible to compete with the Blue and Gold track team. Despite the fact that he is virtually the backbone of the team, school authorities have decided to adhere strictly to the school board rules on athletics, which forbids any student over 21 years of age participating in any branch of athletics as a member of a varsity team. Kern, if he will be allowed to compete, will take part in the 100, 220 and 440 yard runs, relay and broad jump. Two years ago Kern established a new interscholastic record for the 440-yard run, when he covered the distance in 54 and 4-5 seconds. Since then, however, Dan Hanley, of the Central High school team, of Erie, has clipped four-fifths of a second from Kern's record.

Central High, of Erie, placed second in the triangular track meet with Lafayette and Nichols, of Buffalo, on last Saturday. Lafayette won the meet with a total of 64 points. Central was given second with 38 points.

One of the features of the Erie team's performance was the work of Wilson in the high jump. He equalled the record made by Central in 1900, when the record of 5 feet 6 inches was established. Wilson was one of the stars of the Central team, finishing first in the 220-yard dash and second in the 100-yard dash against strong competition. The Red and Black will meet Academy High in Erie later in the season, but is out to defeat the team of the latter school in the interscholastics here this Saturday. Both schools are about equal in all events.

Little is known about the other high schools that are to compete in the annual Montgomery Field classic, but meager advance reports indicate that all entries are of the very highest calibre.

In view of the fact that all the teams will be in mid-season form when they meet in the Allegheny interscholastic, some excellent races are in store and some fine field events will be on the bill.

FOUR BASE BALL GAMES PLAYED DURING WEEK

BETTER PLAYING IS FEATURE OF ALL THE CONTESTS.

Running off four good games of ball, the second week of the inter-Fraternity baseball schedule was finished up in good form with four fraternities having a perfect average. The brand of ball played was much better than that of the previous week. The games were much more interesting and more closely contested than the scores would seem to indicate.

Wright and Travis were the outstanding men for the Blue and Gold, the former winning first place in the 40-yard dash and second place in both the backstroke and 100-yard swim, and the latter distinguishing himself in the 40, 100 and 200-yard swim. Bauer, who took first place in the dives and backstroke, may be rated as the best swimmer for the visitors.

The summary of events is as follows:

160-yard relay—First, Black, Travis, Fry and Wright, Allegheny; second, McCoy, Burkman, Couse and Duff, Thiel. Time—1 minute 37 1-5 seconds.
