March 4th, 1929.

Mr. Allen T. Simmons,
Allen Theatre Broadcasting
Station WADC,
Akron, Ohio.

Dear Sir:

Our client, Miss Ida M. Tarbell, the author of the copyrighted work entitled "HE KNEW LINCOLN" has referred to us her complaint against you for the unauthorized use and broadcasting of said work in and from Station WADC upon the evening of February 12th, 1929.

Our client advises that her said work isand for many years has been a well known and standard work on the subject of Lincoln and one which is in wide demand and possessed of great value not only in print, but also upon the public stage and in motion pictures and/or radio broadcasting.

Before taking action in the matter, we desire to communicate to you our client's claim with reference to your alleged unauthorized broadcasting of her work, so that you may communicate to us any facts which may in your opinion affect Miss Tarbell's or your rights in the matter.

Your immediate reply hereto is urgently requested.

Yours very truly,

Sgd. GOLDIE & GUMM
