Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City, New York.

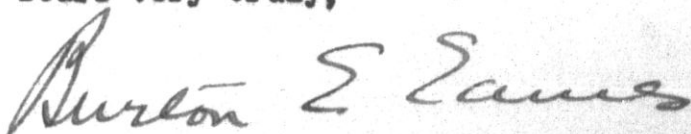

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I have just returned from a two weeks' absence from the office and find your letter of March 23rd with its enclosure. The statement from your manuscript seems to me substantially correct. I have indicated in pencil one slight change in the interest of accuracy.

Further in the interest of accuracy, and referring to the end of your first paragraph, the fact was that Mr. Tyler had a breakdown and had to be out of the office for a number of months, and it was in the ordinary course of events that Mr. Young should have charge of the business so long as Mr. Tyler was away. However, the statement as you have it is probably near enough, and with the correction which I have made in pencil, the entire excerpt which you have submitted has my approval.

I hope the delay due to my absence has resulted in no inconvenience to you.

Yours very truly,

BEE:B
