

MYRON C. TAYLOR
71 BROADWAY
NEW YORK

January 8 1940

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St., New York.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Since writing you January 2d, Mr. Taylor, who is still at home convalescing from his recent operation, has re-read your letter of December 22d, and feels that he would like to participate, even if in a small way, in the interesting work of the Foreign Language Information Service.

We are therefore enclosing his check for $50, with Mr. Taylor's best wishes for the success of the undertaking.

Yours very truly,

Secretary to Mr. Myron Taylor.
