DR. SCHULTZ RETURNS FROM SABBATIC LEAVE

DOES LITERARY RESEARCH WORK DURING STUDIES IN AMERICA AND EUROPE

Dr. John Richie Schultz, Professor of English Literature, has returned from his sabbatic leave and has resumed his work after spending a year in travel and research work both in the United States and Europe. Sabbatic leave is granted to the heads of departments every seventh year for the purpose of study and travel. Dr. Schultz is the second professor to be granted leave since the World War, Dr. C. A. Darling having been the first. The summer and fall of 1923 Dr. Schultz spent in England, visiting places associated with literature. In London he did research work and studied at the British National Museum and Library, which is the greatest library in the world. After finishing his work in England, he toured Holland, Germany, and Finland, where he visited places of literary interest.

Dr. Schultz then returned to the United States, where he was joined by Mrs. Schultz and their son, both of whom accompanied him on his journey in America. In New England, Dr. Schultz made New Haven his headquarters where he took courses at Yale University.

From New England, Dr. Schultz and his party went to the Southwest, visiting on the way the former homes and habitats of American writers. During the winter he traveled in the southern states from Florida to Texas. He studied the literature of the Southwest, particularly American folk ballads, concerning which he consulted John A. Lomax, who is an authority on the subject. During February and March, the party stayed in Florida, and in the late spring they went to Missouri where they "roughed it" all summer on an island of the Mississippi River.

ASSOCIATIONS PUBLISH MANUAL FOR FRESHMEN

BOOK CONTAINS NOVEL FEAT- URES AND UP-TO-DATE INFORMATION

With several additions in content and a marked improvement in the arrangement of material, the thirtieth edition of the Student Manual, or "Frosh Bible," made its appearance shortly before the opening of College. The handbook is published annually by the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. of the College with the purpose of aiding the incoming freshmen to become familiar with the many phases of Allegheny life, and contains in a convenient and compact form information about the College which every student ought to have.

The material in the book is divided into three distinct sections. The opening section contains a calendar and identification blank on the inside cover and fly leaf, respectively. Following in order are a cut of Bentley, title page, table of contents, Foreword of the editor, cut of President Hixson, President's Greeting, "Y" Greetings, and lists of the "Y" Cabinets. Immediately following comes a section headed "The College," with an attractively arranged title page containing an appropriate verse from one of Allegheny's songs. This section is devoted to College Regulations, Freshman Rules, College Customs, a list of faculty members, Library Rules, five pages of College songs, and College cheers. Additional features in this section are a page of description about Meadville, a description of the College buildings, a page for schedule of recitations, and a page of "Don'ts for Freshmen."

The third section of the little volume is devoted to "College Activities," with a title page similar to that of "The College." A complete account of Physical Training and Athletics, together with the records of the past season and the schedules for the coming year is presented, followed by a similar summary and description of forensic activities. Information concerning the College publications and honorary fraternities is followed by a brief description of each of the numerous departmental clubs and organizations. Lists of the men's and women's fraternities and a list of the incoming freshmen complete the book.

The manual is bound in black leather and has the Allegheny College seal embossed in gold on the cover. Numerous cuts of College buildings and views of the campus add considerably to the attractiveness of the make-up. The production of the book was under the direction of G. Alfred Palmer, Editor; Virginia Debolt, Assistant; and Theodore Borrell, Manager.

OLD BENTLEY IS BEING CHANGED AND REPAIRED

ADDED USEFULNESS AND BEAUTY SOUGHT IN RENOVATION OF VENERABLE STRUCTURE

Bentley Hall, the center of Allegheny tradition, is undergoing a course of renovation that will make it, on completion, one of the most up-to-date, yet unique, buildings in the state. When finished, it will be a true Colonial type of edifice in every respect, and it will go a long way toward the further beautification of our campus.

Workmen are now busy on the building, and every effort is being put forth to have it finished as soon as possible. Through the halls of the first floor a tile floor has been placed, while new flooring has been laid in both the lecture rooms on the third floor. The large class room on the ground floor in the west end of the building, formerly Room 8, is being made into a new office for the Registrar. This will be complete in every detail. The President's office is also being improved.

On the second floor in the east wing, the room formerly occupied by the history department is being made into a general office for the faculty and trustees of the College.

In addition to the aforementioned improvements, the basement is being modernized; new and broader stairways are being placed throughout; all the windows are changed to the colonial type, consisting of smaller panes of glass; the roof has been entirely reconstructed and will be covered with genuine Green Vermont Slate; and a new sidewalk of broken stone and concrete will be laid in front of the building. When the other work is finished, all woodwork both inside and outside will be painted white.

Persons using the building will encounter slight inconveniences from time to time during the reconstruction, but with proper consideration and co-operation no great difficulty will be experienced.

OLD COLLEGE MUSEUM MOVED TO ALDEN HALL

VALUABLE COLLECTION PLACED IN BASEMENT OF BIOLOGY BUILDING

One of the many improvements at Allegheny this fall is made apparent in the form of a new location for the College Museum. The valuable collection is now located in Alden Hall in place of Ruter Hall where it has resided for a number of years.

Shortly after the Civil War the museum was started in Ruter Hall with the Alger collection, valued at $25,000, as a basis of the first museum in the College. It was made up of various minerals and shells.

Through the following years additions were made as the College increased in wealth. Over one hundred or more casts of prehistoric animals, many fossils, minerals, samples of oils, oil sands, and various other articles of interest were placed in the collection. The mounted moose and deer in the present collection were secured from B. L. Singley of Meadville in recent years. Taken as a whole, the museum is one of the finest maintained by any of the smaller colleges.

Carpenters are now at work in the basement of Alden Hall on the cases in which many of the articles are to be placed. These will be completed and properly arranged in the near future.

In addition to the larger collection in the basement, a display of local plant and animal life has been placed in the upper northwest corner room of Alden Hall. Over one hundred specimens were added to this department during the past summer.

The space vacated in Ruter Hall will be used as an additional lecture room.

PHI KAPPA PSI HOUSE REFINISHED

Through the generosity of Mr. John L. Porter of Pittsburgh, the Phi Kappa Psi House has been completely refurnished and redecorated during the summer months.

A smoker was held for the men of the freshman class last Friday evening.

NEW FACULTY MEMBERS TAKE UP DUTIES HERE

FORMER TEACHERS LEAVE ALLE- GHENY FOR POSITIONS AT OTHER INSTITUTIONS

Many new faces appear among the faculty members, replacing those of the professors and instructors that left the College at the completion of the last school year.

Dr. C. B. Coleman is spending the year in Washington, D. C., where he is engaged in collecting material for a book on American Civilization which will soon be published. Dr. C. F. Littell has taken the position of head of the Department of Political Science at Cornell College, Mount Vernon, Iowa. Professor C. W. Skinner is doing graduate work in Science at the University of Chicago. Dr. J. L. Russo is head of the Italian department at the University of Wisconsin. Professor R. W. Thomas is now general manager of the McCroskey Reamer Manufacturing Company. Herbert McCracken is coaching at Lafayette College. Miss Grace Raymond, of the Romance Language Department, is to be married this month. Mason M. Hurd is studying law and also teaching at the University of Texas. Miss Elizabeth Ling, who had charge of physical training for women, was married last month to Ronald Reamer, '20. Miss Marie McCormick was married in July to John C. Bird, '22.

To take the place of these teachers are a number of people with highly favorable recommendations. They promise to be worthy successors to those who have left.

Warner F. Woodring, Ph. D., will be at the head of the History and Political Science department. Dr. Woodring received his A. B. at Tri-State College and his Ph. D. at the University of Chicago. Before coming to Allegheny Dr. Woodring was in charge of the Department of History and Political Science at Morningside College. Brynjolf J. Hovde, Ph. D., received his A. B. degree at Luther College and his Ph. D. at the University of Iowa. He comes here as Assistant Professor of History and Political Science.

Richard Mezzotero, A. B., received his degree at the College of Wooster. He comes to Allegheny from Pennsylvania State College. Mr. Messattero will be an instructor in the Romance Language department.

Charles E. Packard, A. M., graduated from Bates College. He has been an instructor at University of Illinois. Mr. Packard will be an instructor in the Biology department.

Miss Rene Staley comes here as Dean of Women from Ohio Wesleyan College where she was Assistant Dean of Women.

Miss Georgia Herald received her A. B. at Eastern College. Miss Herald will have charge of Physical Education for Women. She formerly held this position at Teresa College.

Thomas Davies is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh. He comes to Allegheny as Football Coach after a very successful year of coaching at Geneva College.

Charles W. Gill, A. B., is a graduate of Allegheny. After a year of graduate work at the University of Illinois he was Assistant Professor of English at Ohio State University. Mr. Gill will assist in English Literature

HAROLD KIRKPATRICK DIES DURING SUMMER

MEMBER OF LAST YEAR'S CLASS SUCCUMBS SUDDENLY FROM SEVERE HEMORRHAGE

Allegheny College students were stunned this summer when they learned of the death of Harold E. Kirkpatrick, '24, one of the most popular and well liked students on the campus. Kirkpatrick died as the result of a severe hemorrhage.

Kirkpatrick was on his way to church one Sunday when he suffered from the hemorrhage. He was noticed by a passing motorist who rushed him to City Hospital. He died, however, before he reached that place.

Kirkpatrick was an active student in his course. He was prominent in several activities, especially in his hobby, boxing. He was a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. During the World War he saw overseas service with the American Expeditionary Forces.

Y. M. AND Y. W. TO ENTERTAIN COLLEGE THURSDAY EVENING

Big Annual Reception Is to Be Held in Cochran Hall

On Thursday evening, September 25, the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. of the College will hold their annual joint reception in the parlors of Cochran Hall. The Reception is an annual event on the College calendar and is designed primarily to give the freshmen an opportunity to get acquainted with the upper-classmen and the faculty, as well as with their own mates. Final arrangements for the occasion were made at a joint cabinet meeting held last Friday in Hulings Hall. R. Russell Denison and Virginia Debolt, president of the Y. M. and Y. W., respectively, are the general committee in charge.

An unusually fine program of musical features and novelties which is being arranged by Miss Naomi Reischer include a large number of College celebrities and a well known orchestra. The decorations are under the direction of Miss Lucille Langworthy and Mr. William McClurg, while Miss Mary Alice Jackson and Mr. Cyril B.

Hartman are arranging for the serving of refreshments during the course of the evening.

Several novel stunts to enable the students to get acquainted and to bring about an atmosphere of absolute informality are planned. Appropriate prizes will be offered for the winners of the various contests. In the past considerable interest has been displayed in the reception by the entire student body and there has always been a large crowd present. Those in charge are making plans for an even greater occasion this year.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS MEETS IN CHAPEL NEXT SUNDAY

ORGANIZATION TO RESUME MEET- INGS AT STONE CHURCH WHEN REPAIRS ARE COMPLETED

Next Sunday morning, September 28, at 9:45, will mark the first meeting of the College Men's Bible Class. The early meetings will be held in Ford Chapel until repairs on the Stone Church have been completed. Although the president of the class, Ralph H. Demmler, has not yet succeeded in securing a teacher, it is expected that one will be chosen before the first meeting, so that there will be little delay in beginning the year's work.

The class was organized last year with Prof. C. F. Littell as teacher, and made such a fine record throughout the year that every effort will be made to keep up the standard throughout this year. On several occasions the attendance reached sixty and over.

Although the meetings of the class are held in the Methodist Church, all the men of the College, regardless of denomination, are cordially invited to attend, and all discussions are carried on from a non-sectarian point of view.

COLLEGE BAND PLANS SUCCESSFUL SEASON

NEW FEE TO HELP SUPPORT CREDITABLE ORGANIZATION OF MUSICIANS

With over thirty candidates from which to choose, Allegheny this year has promise of a band better than has been brought together on the hill in several years. E. Gerner, leader of the Park Theater Orchestra, is to direct the band and will supply the leadership that this organization has lacked in the past.

New music and new uniforms are to be purchased for the band by the College. Some of the music is already here. The uniforms will be ordered as soon as the personnel of the organization has been definitely determined. Several new instruments are also to be purchased.

The first public appearance of the band will be next Friday evening at the football mass meeting. The band will also lead a public demonstration Saturday morning.

Beta Upsilon Purchases New Home at 220 Spring Street

Beta Upsilon, local fraternity founded at Allegheny in 1921, has secured a new home. Feeling the necessity of larger and more convenient living quarters than those formerly occupied on Park Avenue, the organization negotiated the purchase of the former A. D. Hintz residence at 220 Spring Street. The new house is a brick structure of fourteen rooms, and is admirably adapted to fraternity purposes.

President Fred W. Hixson spent most of the summer in Meadville with the exception of a three week vacation in Colorado Springs, Colorado, with Mrs. Hixson and their son Jerome.

BOOST THE BAND

With prospects for a successful band very much in evidence after the preliminary call for candidates and practice session, it would seem that the long felt need for another musical organization of that nature at Allegheny was about to be fulfilled. It has been three years since the College has had a presentable band, and there is little doubt but that a decrease in college spirit has resulted. It is impossible to over-estimate the value of such an organization to the College. Its very presence at an athletic event brings about a spirit of enthusiasm which no other force can possibly do.

Last year the attempt to form a band was pathetically unsuccessful, chiefly because of the lack of proper leadership and proper support and encouragement from the student body. There were plenty of capable musicians in the College who would have provided excellent material for a first class musical organization. But every attempt of those students interested to get a band out for the home football games was greeted with jeers and laughter on the part of the student body. The result was a miserable failure.

This year, however, the College authorities have become interested in the project and have given the idea of a real band at Allegheny their encouragement and support. The services of an experienced director have been secured; a student manager has been appointed, and the necessary financial requirements have been met by a music fee collected from each student as part of the College bill. If the first two meetings of the new organization are to be taken as any criterion of its success, Allegheny is sure of a high class band this fall. A large number of musicians with a good variety of instruments have turned out, and a spirit of high interest and enthusiasm is prevalent.

All that remains to insure the success of the enterprise is for the students to get behind the idea and BOOST THE BAND.

CONFIDENCE IN EDUCATION

There is a marked propensity among a certain type of people to indict college education on the charge of inculcating in students a spirit of flippancy, selfishness, and even lawlessness. If ever this charge seemed justified, it is in the case of Leopold and Loeb, the "collegiate" murderers of Chicago. These youths, who had the best that modern education could offer, committed an outrageous and senseless crime, with the flimsy pretext of doing it in the interest of "science."

It is a significant fact that, in spite of the immense publicity given to the affair, the press was unable to make of the crime a convincing case against college education. People generally realize that these men are not, in any sense, representative of the educated and cultured class; they are abnormal, freakish, and consequently, insignificant.

However, that education may not suffer in the estimate of the public, it behooves educators and students alike to arouse and maintain in the public mind a real confidence in the purposes and results of college education.

FRANCIS MYFORD PASSES AWAY

It was with the greatest of surprise and sorrow that the students and faculty of the College learned of the death of Francis Myford, of the Class of 1926. It was a distinct surprise because we had always known him as a healthy young man, and a great sorrow because he was the friend of all of us.

First of all, Myford was both a scholar and athlete—a rare combination. He received the Rossiter prize for being the man who had the highest grades among the letter men of the College for the past year.

His equal as a football tackle has seldom been seen at Allegheny. He was always a clean player; yet he played with all the energy that he possessed.

His integrity was unquestioned and his character of the best. He lived a clean and honorable life.

With all these attributes we will probably remember him longer and more affectionately as the friend of everyone, without exception. No one but he is entitled to such a sweeping statement. His jolly disposition and fadeless smile will remain in our memory for years to come.

Myford can not be replaced because there are very few combinations of the virtues of a scholar, an athlete, a friend, and a gentleman.

THE DEATH OF HAROLD KIRKPATRICK

Death is a grim invader of human happiness at any time, and it is especially so when it takes away a young person with a life of promise yet un-lived. Harold Kirkpatrick, '24, had been in possession of his diploma from Allegheny for but a few weeks when, with tragic suddenness, he was seized with a hemorrhage and died within a short time. He was a man of great pluck, with an honorable record of military service. His friends were many. His passing was a shock and a sorrow to all who knew him.

FEW CHANGES ARE REPORTED IN CATALOGUED COURSES

Very few changes have been made this year in the courses of study. To date only one has been announced by the office. History VIII was formerly a course in Church History, but it has now been changed to a course in English Constitutional History.

Because of increased registration several additional sections have been formed in three language courses. There are now nine English Language I courses instead of eight. Two additional sections have been added to German I. There are now four sections in this course. Two sections have been made in French V. Formerly there was but one.

HULINGS FRESHMEN OPEN SOCIAL YEAR WITH POVERTY PARTY

Last Saturday the girls' gymnasium in Hulings Hall was the scene of the freshman girls' first party. Each girl went in rags since the affair was in the nature of a poverty party. Many unique costumes were worn, and a number of clever stunts were staged by the inhabitants of Poverty Row. A grand march opened the festivities, and at its close each girl was presented with a lollipop. Dancing and music, together with refreshments completed the first participation of the freshman girls in Allegheny's social life.

Y. W. C. A. HOLDS FIRST VESPER SERVICE SUNDAY EVENING

Sunday evening, September 21, the Y. W. C. A. held its opening Vesper service of the college year in the Association rooms in Hulings Hall. Miss Florence Sheehan was the leader.

Following vocal solos by Miss Marion Whieldon and Miss Elinor Van Scoten, the leader told briefly of the activities of the Y. W. C. A. at Allegheny, mentioning particularly the service to incoming freshmen, personal service to the old ladies' home and the orphans' home, and the support of the Isabelle Thoburn College in India.

Mrs. D. R. Swift of Franklin spent Friday with her daughter Winona.

Harriet Hearn, Weltha Horsman, and Francis Bond spent the week-end at their home in Erie.

Isabelle Gilmore spent Sunday in Hulings Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Marwood and Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Williams of Franklin visited their daughters Anna Madge Marwood and Agnes Williams on Saturday.

Lucille Baker spent Sunday with Luella Davis at the latter's home in Cambridge Springs.

Mary Drake spent the week-end at her home in Cambridge Springs.

Dr. Heckel entertained the alumni of the College at his summer home September 6 last, with a corn roast. Chas. Jones, '19, is now employed by the Vesuvius Crucible Steel Corp., of Swissvale, Pa.

Charles Miller, '17, will take up the study of medicine at the University of Pittsburgh this fall.

Y. W. C. A. STAGES NOVEL COMIC SECTION PARTY

On Friday evening, September 19, many of the well known characters which appear in the comic sections of the newspapers came to life and held a field meet in the girls' gym. The judges, who were members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, were seated on a high platform and held dumb-bell scepters which they used on unwilling candidates for the events. Such feats as swimming across the gym floor, and eating cherry pie with a knife, were executed with remarkable agility.

Visitors at Phi Delta Theta during the past week were: Eugene Hartzell, ex-'25; David E. Quinn, '24; Stewart Coleman, ex-'25; Thomas Francis, '21; C. Richard Griffing, '25; James Tate, '22; Theodore Canby, '22; John Bozic, '23; Richard Ellsworth, '24; Robert Pratt, '24; John J. Fries, '24; Homer Sterling, '23; Troy Burns, '20; George Fitzpatrick, ex-'26; John Harrison, ex-'26; M. E. Graham, '21; T. Hughes, '12.

Others who visited the chapter were: Dr. and Mrs. Hawkey, Mr. G. D. Christner, Mr. and Mrs. Slocum, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Schruers and Donald Schruers.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION ENTERTAINS GIRLS AT INFORMAL RECEPTION

The Y. W. C. A. gave an informal reception for the new girls' in the living room of Hulings Hall on Wednesday evening, September 17. Each freshman had as her escort an upper class girl, and this, together with tags which all of the girls wore, aided in making the girls acquainted. A group of sophomores gave a cleverly arranged stunt which portrayed to the new students what is in store for them on the night before their first exam. Later in the evening the girls were divided into groups, and each group presented a stunt. The prize, a green tam, was awarded by the judges, Miss Staley and Miss Fox, to the group who gave a realistic representation of Registration Day in Bentley. Refreshments and dancing in the gym concluded the evening's program.

Saturday afternoon, September 20, the Y. W. C. A. held its annual Dog Roast for the freshman girls. An upper class girl accompanied each freshman. The affair was to have been held out of doors, but rain made it necessary for the picnicers to hold their party in the gymnasium. Games, stunts, and refreshments were the features of the roast. After the roast the girls sang college songs. This gave the freshmen an opportunity to learn the college songs before the first football game of the season.

Among the visitors at Beta Upsilon during the past week were Glenn R. Bushyager, '22; Robert H. Kelly, '23; Ralph C. Limber, '22; Bliss Mack, '23; Cliff Little, ex-'24; Mrs. Charles Kohne, of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Gaiser, of Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Babcock, and the Misses Gilberta, Ethelyn, and Arabelle Babcock, all of Erie, and the Messrs. Fry, Sadler, and Schuler, of Thiel College.

The visitors at the Alpha Chi Rho house during the past week were: T. E. G. Greenlund, '22; C. R. Wimmer, '23; C. A. Bollinger, '22; G. M. Bollinger, '21; C. W. Havice, '24; R. P. Eaton, '24; and H. McGee, ex-'21.

Alpha Chi Rho held its first party of the season at the Chapter House Friday evening, September 19. Music was furnished by Kress's Orchestra. The chaperones were Prof. and Mrs. Dale E. Thomas.

The guests at the Delta Tau Delta house during the past week were: Coach C. D. Baker, '10; J. W. C. McKee, ex-'23, and M. E. Kofford, '23.

STUDENT BODY TO ELECT ASSISTANT CHEER LEADER THIS WEEK

In due preparation for the opening of the football season, Head Cheerleader Hartman has planned fitting ceremonies previous to the Dickinson game. Friday night at 8:00 p. m., the students will hold a mass meeting around one of the largest bon fires the College has ever seen. Features of the occasion will be addresses by Coach Tom Davies, Graduate Manager Townsend, and Captain Fred Parnell. Between the talks, cheering and singing will be led by the college cheer leaders. Following this there will be a parade over the downtown streets in which all students are asked to participate.

Coach Davies and Manager Townsend will again address the student body in Chapel Saturday morning, following which several new cheers will be tried out, and Professor Chase R. Gage will direct the singing of the more popular college songs.

At 1:45 p. m. Saturday afternoon, another parade will be staged downtown previous to the game. A section of the grandstand will be reserved so that there will be no danger of a shortage of seats for those who are loyal enough to participate in the afternoon parade.

Sometime during the coming week there will be an election in chapel for the assistant cheerleader. Mr. Hartman will continue in his office as head cheerleader.

Alumni

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ellison of 414 Walnut Street announce the birth of a son, John Roberts, on August 9. Mrs. Ellison was Nellie Roberts, '16.

Victor Wright, '24, David Frazier, '22, H. A. Jones, '22, Earl Hall, '19, I. C. Krueger, '21, F. L. Knapp, '07, H. A. Porter, '00.

Four Double-Barreled Reason
Why You Should Buy Life Insurance
FIRST:
(a) You have the advantage of the younger rate. The rate at age 20 is about one-half that of age 40. It does not increase after you have started.
(b) Money without health cannot buy insurance. If health is yours now, capitalize it at once.
SECOND:
(a) If you are not married, insurance will be absolutely necessary when you become a benedict.
(b) You create an estate immediately with the first payment.
THIRD:
(a) Insurance helps you to form the habit of saving, thus strengthening your character. Thrift makes for success.
(b) Insurance will make you independent in old age when 11 out of 13 men have to live on charity.
FOURTH:
(a) It is a conservative investment. Insurance Companies cannot speculate, and they are absolutely safe financial institutions.
(b) Men in the higher walks of life favor it. Every member of the late President Harding's Cabinet has recently advised young men to insure while young.
All Legal Reserve Life Insurance Companies are good but none can surpass in strength and friendly service.

BLUE AND GOLD GRID LINEUP CONTAINS MANY NEW NAMES

Allegheny to Open Football Season With Dickinson College

Allegheny's 1924 football team will play its first and one of its most important games when it lines up against the strong Dickinson team on Saturday at Montgomery field. Allegheny has never been able to gain a victory over Dickinson in the several times that they have met on the gridiron. The Blue and Gold team closed a very successful season last year when it defeated the powerful Bucknell eleven by a 10-7 score. One week later the Dickinson team handed the Bucknell team a 14-10 defeat; thus "dope" had it that the Dickinson and Allegheny teams were about equal in strength last season.

This game will be of great importance because it will determine the quality of the Allegheny team. At present the quality of the team is largely unknown. This is due to the loss of so many veteran players and to the uncertain knowledge of the new ones. Morley, Wright, and Schultz were lost by graduation. The untimely death of "Fat" Myford during the summer left a big hole in the line. The loss of Weaver by his transferring to the University of Pennsylvania and of Wolz, Logan, Koehl, Ewing, and Fee by not returning to college, severely cripples the team.

However, after two weeks of intensive training at the football camp on Edinboro Lake, and one week of practice on the home field, hope for a successful season has slowly been rising. Although Coach Davies has been handicapped by numerous injuries to his players, the team has shown continued improvement. At present the end and quarterback positions are giving the coach the greatest worry. Judd and Reed, both veterans, will hold down the terminal positions, but with Cibula out on account of injuries, a capable substitute is lacking. The quarterback position is affected in the same manner. Dolde should be able to hold down this position in fine style, but a good substitute has not been found up to this time. Fuller, who has been out for several weeks on account of sickness, will probably be found at center. Blackwell and Humeston will hold down the guard positions while Capt. Parnell and Kinnunon or Morrison will play at tackle. Hanlon and Brace will start at the halfback positions and Dahl at fullback.

Among the new players that have been showing up well in practice are Hudson at fullback, Behrhorst at center, Brace at halfback, and Morrison at tackle. Beach, a 300 pound lineman, looks as though he may develop into a good player. Miller, a boy who showed great ability while at the camp, decided not to enter college until next year.

Tom Davies, who coached Geneva last season, has won the respect of his men, and the team will fight their best under his tutelage. Bill Edgar, who assisted in coaching at Thiel last season, aided Davies in the coaching at the training camp. Coach Hammett has been taking charge of the line coaching each evening and has been drilling the fundamentals of the game into the heads of the players.

Should Allegheny be successful in winning the Dickinson game, a very successful season would be assured. Dickinson has always had one of the strongest and fastest teams in the eastern part of the state, and rumors have it that this year's team will be no exception. The game will be the biggest that has been played on Montgomery Field for years. The College band and other attractions will go to make it the greatest athletic event of the college year.

NEW FACULTY MEMBERS
and also will continue his work as Assistant to the Treasurer.

Antoinette Chevreton, M. L., who has taught at Allegheny for four years, has been promoted from instructor to Assistant Professor in the French department.

John R. Schultz, Ph. D., has returned to Allegheny as Professor of English Literature after a year's sabbatic leave.

Chase R. Gage, B. S., is a graduate of Allegheny, Class of 1924. He will be an Assistant in the English Language department.

Miss Doris H. Potter is to be an instructor in Spanish and German. She is a graduate of Ripon College, and holds an M. A. degree from the University of Iowa. She comes here from that institution, where she was an assistant in the Romance Language department.

Mr. A. L. Funk, who comes from Penn State, will be an assistant professor of Economics.

Miss Violet Gardner, who will be an instructor in the French department, received her A. B. from Park College, and her A. M. from U. of Ill., where she has been teaching.

Giles Bollinger, '20, returns to Allegheny this year as an instructor in the Chemistry department. Mr. Bollinger has been doing graduate work at Harvard.

ALLEGHENY HARRIERS HOLD FIRST WORKOUT

SMALL SQUAD REPORTS—FIRST MEET SCHEDULED FOR NOVEMBER 1

A squad of eight men reported to Athletic Director C. E. Hammett Friday for the first workout of the Allegheny cross country team. Only light practice was held, but the men will soon get down to work in preparation for the first meet, which is scheduled for November 1, when the Blue and Gold meets Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh.

Of the eight men who reported Friday, John Rea is the only letter man, while Beyer, Bogardus, Reyner, and Harrison are experienced men. Jones, a promising distance runner of last year's track squad, is out, and should make a good bid for a regular berth.

Homer Bliss, who was captain for two years, did not return to school this fall, and this leaves the team without a leader. It is probable that a captain will be chosen in a short time, with Rea, letter-man of last season, acting in that capacity until a new leader is picked.

The dual meet with Carnegie Tech is the only one scheduled as yet, but arrangements are pending now for meets with Alfred and Thiel, which will complete the usual schedule of three meets.

SQUAD DRILLS STEADILY IN CAMP AT EDINBORO

WORK SOMEWHAT HANDICAPPED BY CONTINUAL WET WEATHER AND MUDDY FIELD

On Tuesday, September 2, some forty men, who represented the Blue and Gold's gridiron squad, encamped at a beautiful spot on the shore of Edinboro Lake for the purpose of preliminary football training. Under the tutelage of Coaches Davies, Hammett, and Edgar, the men were instructed in the fundamentals of the game. The new material looked fairly good, and several of the new men showed great promise.

Practice was held from 9:30 to 12 o'clock each morning and from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The men enjoyed the tasty meals which were cooked by "Ma" Brawley, the commissary of Cochran Hall.

Practice was greatly hindered by continual rains. There were but two of the practices held on a dry field. Despite the heavy rains, many people visited the camp to view the material for the 1924 eleven. The scrimmages, which were held on the Wednesday and the Friday before camp closed, were fairly well attended by interested spectators.
