Miss Edo M. Farrell:

New York.

My dear Miss Farrell:—

Your letter regarding the use of some of the illustrations in Dr. Learned's Abraham Lincoln: An American Migration, has been forwarded to me from Philadelphia.

I am quite willing to have you use the cuts you indicate: those facing p 20, between pp 28-29, facing p 30, facing p 106, facing p 122.

I should, of course, require you to indicate with each reproduction the source, as follows:

 "From Learned's Abraham Lincoln on American Migration. Reproduced by permission." This is a note under each cut, in small type.

The edition was a small one, and the plates should be in good condition. I am willing to lend you these plates, to be returned in good condition after your book is run off.

If you are satisfied with my requirements, I will write the publisher, upon receipt of your reply, to forward the cuts to your publisher. I am sure it would be almost impossible to reproduce the illustrations from the pages of the book, and I am not willing to sell the original photographs.

Very Truly yours,
Annie Massie Learned.
