WORK ON CAMPAIGN BEGUN IN EARNEST

FIRST CONTRIBUTION IS A SUM OF $3,000 FROM AN ANONYMOUS DONOR.

To stir up interest in the Second Century Endowment Fund among the Alumni in the East President Hixson and Mr. A. W. Thompson, general chairman of the compaign, left for Boston last night. They will speak to the Boston Alumni Association tonight and will leave for New York immediately after the meeting.

A conference with Mr. Russell Sage, of the Carnegie Foundation Fund, is scheduled for tomorrow in New York with regard to securing the Foundation's support in the campaign. The eastern alumni appear to be whole-heartedly in support of this Second Century Endowment Fund and it is believed that they will respond generously to the solicitation of the new president.

Although the committee in charge of the programme are not in a position to make a report for publication, it was learned today that contributions were coming into the office. Considerable surprise was exhibited upon the receipt of Liberty Bonds to the amount of three thousand dollars from an anonymous donor. This contribution was the starter towards the goal of $1,250,000 to be raised.

Dr. Hancher, director of the campaign, states that rapid progress is being made in the campaign organization and that nothing will be spared in way of publicity. Publicity will be authorized in a few weeks, at which time full details of the campaign and its progress will be available through these columns.

The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church last May authorized the creation of a Department of Finance of the Board of Education, with Dr. John W. Hancher as Councillor in Finance. Dr. Hancher has gathered about him a group of about forty skilled solicitors, publicity specialists and office secretaries. Under his direction this organization is assisting the schools of Methodism in the raising of large sums of money. Allegheny is to have the help of this Department of Finance in its present undertaking.

GROVE CITY IS STILL UNBEATEN

CRIMSON SUPPORTERS CLAIM THAT THEIR PASSERS ARE UNBEATABLE.

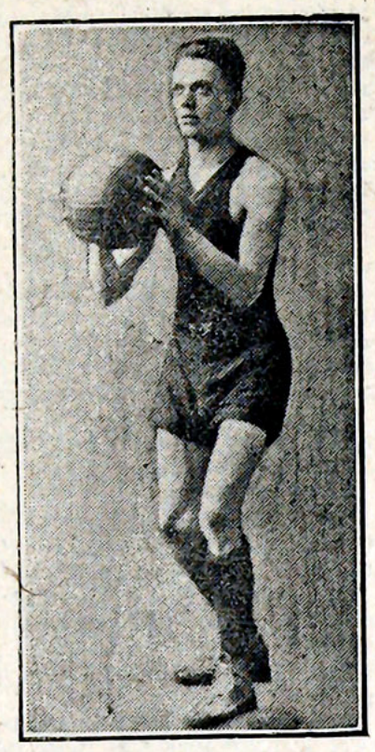

Tonight the fast Grove City team plays in the local gym. Grove City's team this year is conceded to be the best they have ever put out and that means a lot. Their floor teams are always strong but now they have what their followers consider an unbeatable one. Their critics are trying hard to bring Penn State into the Tri-State area with the hope of defeating them. There has been great agitation for this due to the fact that it is thought that in no other manner will it be possible to defeat them. They claim that their contentions are based on the wonderful showing made by this team all season, resulting in the defeat of the college teams in the district and the increase in the scores in the victories they have won over other teams compared with the scores of other Tri-State teams.

But the critics have overlooked a bet when they make these statements and that bet is the rejuvenated Allegheny team. Although the trips to the Pittsburgh district ended disastrously, every one knows that the Blue and Gold was off color in these encounters. The come back started last week in the Buffalo game. There for the first time this year the men showed their real ability and the fight which is representative of an Allegheny team. The determined attitude of refusing to be defeated came out strongly. Buffalo's team was much more polished but did not have the earnestness of effort that featured Allegheny's play throughout the game.

It is in this manner of playing the game that Allegheny's only hope of victory lies. The men must be willing to play at top speed for the full forty minutes without let up, for, if such should occur, Grove City has a team which would take instant advantage of it with a result that would probably be disastrous for the local men.

Dean Spalding is in Atlantic City where she is attending a dean's convention.

Dr. Schultz spoke at the Round Table last Monday night.

Allegheny's veteran forward, who will be the mainstay of the offensive in tonight's game.

PHILADELPHIA ALUMNI HOLD ANNUAL DINNER

WAYNE WHIPPLE WAS ELECTED PRESIDENT AFTER BANQUET FEBRUARY 19.

The Allegheny College Alumni Association in Philadelphia gathered for the traditional Annual Dinner on February 19 at the Hotel Covington. The well known songs of the college were sung between courses and Mrs. E. J. Hall and L. H. McKay supplied well chosen vocal selections.

After the hearty meal, Toastmaster E. J. Hall, '13, called upon many of the members for reminiscences and words of wisdom. A very pleasant evening was passed, as it were, within the very shadow of the old Allegheny hill top.

The officers elected for the coming year are: President, Wayne Whipple; Vice-President, Jos. W. Silliman; Secretary, W. J. Armstrong. The next meeting of the Association is planned for May at a time to be designated later.

HULINGS HALL HIKES.

Fifteen Hulings Hall girls had an enjoyable time Saturday afternoon as the result of a hike arranged by the Y. W. C. A. The girls hiked out the State road to the home of Miss Mildred Ellis, '22. After everyone had had at least one coast down the long hill in front of the house, the girls had a weiner roast in front of the open fireplace in the dining room.

CLUB HAS PROGRAM ON INDIAN MUSIC

MEMBERS OF ST. CECELIA CLUB GATHER AT HOME OF MISS DOROTHEA KERR.

A very interesting programme consisting of Indian music was given by St. Cecelia Club, Monday, Feb. 21, at the home of Miss Dorothea Kerr.

Misses Alta Postance and Dorothea Kerr sang selections from Cadman, "By the Land of the Skyblue Water" and "An Indian Love Song," which are representative of Cadman's Indian music. Mildred Ellis then read Laurence's "Description of Indian Music." This reading was followed by four of his Indian songs. "By the Waters of Minnetonka" was sung by Miss Josephine Hovis, the violin obligato being played by Miss Lucile Drake. The three songs representing the different phases of Indian life were given by Miss Genevieve Hovis: "In an Indian Village," descriptive of the war dance, "By Weeping Waters," showing the mourning for the lost warriors, and "Invocation to the Sun God," indicative of their sun worship. Each of the songs have legendary backgrounds.

After the programme, a short business meeting was held. It was decided to give an Indian playlette sometime in May.

FIVE HUNDRED REGISTER FOR SECOND SEMESTER

Five hundred students were registered at the beginning of the second term. Of this number about twenty are starting their first term at Allegheny. A total loss of twenty-five includes those who have dropped out and those who have completed the amounut of work necessary for graduation.

No new courses designed especially to attract new-comers at the mid-year have been offered. It is possible, however for the new students to have a wide variety of choice on account of the half year courses offered in the Biology, English, and Political Science Departments.

BOUT WITH CASE IS IN PROSPECT

ALLEGHENY BOXERS WILL MEET THOSE OF OHIO SCHOOL ON MARCH 15.

Competition for the boxing team, which is to go to Case, at Cleveland, Tuesday, March 15, is now under way and the member for each weight is almost definitely determined. There is also the probability of a bout with Tech Saturday.

The team is to consist of six men. The probable men for the different weights are as follows: Van Gorder, 116 pounds; Kirkpatrick, 125; Parent, 135; L. Leffingwell, 145; H. Leffingwell, 155, and Dale, 175. For the 135 pound class Gergely is also a possibility and for the 145 pound, Hunt.

The main difficulty of the training of these men is the lack of sparring partners. Several times Coach Krotzer has had to spar with a number of these men in succession, and in that way cannot teach them as well as if he only had to direct.

CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY TO PLAY HERE SATURDAY

THIS OMAHA TEAM CLAIMS THE CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE MISSOURI CONFERENCE.

On Saturday of this week Creighton University of Omaha, Nebraska, plays on the local floor. They are on an Eastern trip and are stopping here on their way. They were considered last year the strongest team west of the Mississippi and held the championship of the Missouri Conference and are claiming it again this year. It is certain that they are fast and one of the best teams which Allegheny will have met this season. Their record in the West compares favorably with that of Penn State in the East, which will give a very good idea of their standing.

Tickets for this game will go on sale this afternoon in Bentley. At 2:45 those who hold tickets at the present time will have the privilege of buying the same seats for Saturday night's game and at 3:15, or as soon after as possible, those who do not have seats but wish to purchase them will have the opportunity of doing so. For the purpose of avoiding confusion, those who hold seats should take their tickets with them so as to enable the manager to cut down the possibilities of a mistake.

INTERCLASS WRESTLING IS SCHEDULED FOR MARCH 12

The second annual interclass wrestling tournament will be held on March 12. There are to be five weights and gold medals have been ordered for the winners. The different weights are 125, 135, 145, 160, and heavyweight. Men who intend to wrestle in this tournament should report to Coach Dickson at once and get in training for the contest. The medals which have been ordered are of regulation size and are inscribed with the figures of two wrestlers on the mat.

Dr. Lee is at work again after being confined to his home for a few days because of illness.

BETA UPSILON IS THE NAME ASSUMED

MEN WITHDRAW FROM ALLEGHENY CLUB TO FORM NEW ORGANIZATION.

Under the caption of Beta Upsilon, a coterie from the Allegheny Club announced a new local fraternity organization on the Hill last week after an unanimous vote of approval was given by the faculty in answer to the petition presented the early part of last month.

The announcement came as a complete surprise to the student body at large although it was generally known that some action towards the establishment of a Greek letter society was forthcoming. The petition presented to the faculty initiated automatically the following men who are charter members: Messrs. Lyle A. Clough, Joseph F. Bernard, Maxwell S. Stewart, Wilbur C. Thoburn, Howard E. Youngs, Robert H. Kelley, Ralph C. Limber, Glenn R. Bushyager, Frederick E. Smith, J. Bowman Proper, Alfred W. Beattie, Edward N. Emery, Bliss B. Mack, and C. Stanley Thoburn.

Since withdrawing from the Allegheny Club, Beta Upsilon has chosen the following men: Ralph H. Weaver, Emro J. Gergley, Donnell W. Marsh, J. Herbert Mitchell, Gerald F. Pond, and Frederick L. Pond. The announcement of Freshmen pledges appears in the fraternity column.

The members of the new fraternity will continue to reside in Cochran Hall throughout the semester although the present plans tend toward the purchase of a home in the vicinity of the college.

The need for another society was vouchsafed in the grant given by the faculty, the asumption being that the Allegheny Club was large enough to enjoy self-preservation with the withdrawal of twenty-four men from its group. The question has been a bone of contention for some few years, at times causing considerable comment, inasmuch as, the enrollment of the student body did not warrant another secret order. This difficulty, however, has been overcome by the fact that Allegheny is now in a position to take care of a

ALUMNUS GIVES AN INTERESTING TALK

THE REV. POTTER PREACHES ON THEME OF "INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY."

An unusual and very interesting talk was given in the Chapel on Sunday morning by the Rev. Herman B. Potter on "Individual Responsibility." Mr. Potter is an Alleghenian of the class of '01, and at present pastor of the First M. E. Church at Westfield, N. Y. A male quartette, consisting of Messrs. Stewart, Dunbar, Miller, and Melcher, sang the offertory number, "In the Secret of His Presence."

"For how much of my sins am I responsible? For how much of my goodness am I responsible?" said Rev. Potter. "According to Omar Khayyam I am not responsible at all, according to Henley I am a free agent; John said 'whosoever will, can'; so, by speculation man can get everywhere and nowhere. We will attempt to establish no bullet-proof philosophy, but will see if the convictions, common to the average man, do not point to individual responsibility."

There are realms where man must be responsible in business and in heroic and sacrificial deeds. Why do men not pay their debts of gratitude and service to God and to their fellowmen as they do in business? Ibsen and Harding may say of sin, that men are machines and not accountable, but do they fail to praise heroism, which necessarily involves individual responsibility?

Some may view freedom as a boatman on a stream, he would be shut in on either side by the banks, helped or hindered as the case may be by the current, but with the ability to go wherever he pleases. "I do not believe," said Rev. Potter, "that anyone who goes down pulling up will ever be lost."

Man knows enough to be responsible, whether sin is rooted in ignorance or is the paragon of knowledge. It was said that every action is right which in the presence of a lower seeks a higher and every action wrong which in the presence of a higher seeks a lower level.

Man can do enough to be responsible. There were three partners in

Buffalo Defeated in An Exciting Contest

Visitors' String of Victories is Broken by Allegheny Passers

Allegheny defeated the University of Buffalo last Wednesday by the score of 23-22. The game was the most exciting contest witnessed on the floor this year, and coming on top of the recent string of defeats it was a surprise to most of the spectators. Buffalo came here with an unbroken string of victories over the more important colleges and universities but were unable to continue. Allegheny seemed to have taken new inspiration from somewhere for the way they fought, passed, and worked together from the tip-off was a sight worth seeing. The crowd was in an uproar from early in the game when the locals tied the score at 8. There seemed to be a slow rumble which gradually grew into a roar and finally broke out into a huge volume of overflowing enthusiasm. This reached its climax in the last few minutes when the score was tied and when Allegheny went ahead it knew no bounds. The benches were lined with people shouting, jumping, and pleading with the men to win. There was really no individual outstanding play. Every man worked with the other for the first time this year but the real feature of the game was the way Parker came through with his two baskets tying the score.

Allegheny scored first when Miller shot from the middle of the floor. Buffalo met this and shot two fouls, but Kofford evened things up with another field goal. Already it could be discerned that the Blue and Gold was in to play the best they knew how. The score took no leaps but was close all the time. The Buffalo team was plainly a team of veterans who handled the ball easily and accurately and their passing was nearly perfect. This half was merely a case of one team working the ball at a time to be met with a strong defense and the repetition on the part of the second team. Dunbar's shot at this time was easily the prettiest of the game. He took a long pass, jumped

HARD WORK IS LOT OF THE DUZER DU CAST

DR. SCHULTZ IS PLEASED WITH ABILITY OF CAST WHICH WAS CHOSEN.

Almost daily rehearsals are under way in the attempt to have "Nothing But The Truth" ready for staging at an early date. It is reported that the members of the cast in this Duzer Du play have given indication of fitting into their parts and no changes will be necessary in the original choice.

Dr. J. R. Schultz, who is directing the play, is very confident that this year's performance will excell anything that the Duzer Du has ever done. He speaks very highly of the ability of the cast, and since the play itself was a Broadway success, the reasons for his optimism are apparent. "Nothing But The Truth" will be presented in the gymnasium the night of March 17, 1921.

Outlook For Debate Teams Is Reported Encouraging

March 11 is Date Set for Triangular Debate with Wooster and W. & J.

The negative and affirmative varsity debating teams are beginning their final workouts. The first meeting was held Monday in Ruter Hall. Here the two teams are pitted against each other as in a real debate.

On March 11 the negative team from W. & J. comes to Allegheny and the Allegheny negative team goes to Wooster. Last year Wooster was defeated at Allegheny while Allegheny was defeated at W. and J. Allegheny hopes to even the score by defeating the W. & J. team this year.

It is understood that the local teams have their material well in hand, while the opposing teams are putting forth unusual efforts. Hot contests are expected when the teams meet.

GLEE CLUB TO PRESENT STUDENT PRODUCTION

MEMBERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC OVER PROGRESS OF WORK OF PREPARATION.

Every member of the Glee Club is very enthusiastic over their forthcoming production, "Plantation Scenes." It is to be presented as the second part of their performances and features the individual talents of the members of the club. The first part will be the customary classical numbers with perhaps a quartette number.

"Plantation Scenes" is strictly a student production. It has been written and is being directed by members of the club. It is expected that the act will prove immensely popular on account of its novelty.

The date for the first concert has not yet been definitely settled. An announcement will be made in these columns shortly.

EDITORIAL

ON THE SUBJECT OF DANCING.

We are in receipt of the following letter from the editor of a prominent national weekly:

To the Editor:

Dear Friend:

Parents and college authorities throughout the United States are becoming very deeply concerned over the influence exercised upon our young people by some of the new dances and the costumes worn by those attending them. One editor of a college publication declares in his columns that these dances and costumes are "popularizing indecency" and show "a shameless laxity."

What has your publication said on this situation? What should be done to meet it? Will you not kindly clip and mail to us at an early date in the enclosed stamped envelop anything you have printed, or intend to print, on this subject, and we shall gladly cooperate in spreading what you say throughout the length and breadth of the United States. We shall give full credit for our quotations. Please be sure that the name of your periodical is on the clipping. We believe an article on this subject will be most helpful to those who are wondering how to meet the situation, and we shall mail to those who reply a special early copy of our article for use in their own pages.

Trusting to hear from you at your earliest convenience, I am

Cordially and sincerely yours,

EDITOR OF THE LITERARY DIGEST.

In reply to the above the editor of this publication desires to say first of all that there has been nothing about the dancing at Allegheny College which calls for any unfavorable comment such as is quoted from other college publications in the above letter.

Nor in fact has dancing of this sort come to our attention from any of the colleges or universities in this locality. It would seem that all the hue and cry which has been raised over college dancing is the result of a seeking after something sensational to print rather than as the result of anything sensational in the dancing itself. It is the editors of the publications that print these accounts that are "popularizing indecency" and who are showing a "shameless laxity" rather than the dancers themselves.

It might be well to add here a note of warning which will have a more local application. There are some people about the college who have shown an inclination to join in the present hysterical denunciation of student dancing. Either these are people who are opposed to any sort of dancing or those whose opposition has developed on the psychological basis of suggestion. Happily these are few in number and all indications are that an attitude of sanity will prevail toward the matter of dancing in this college.

ON ALLEGHENY'S SPIRIT.

Last Thursday morning an unusual appeal was made in chapel to the students. Stan Plumb commented on the kind of spirit shown at the basketball game of the night before. At that game which was with the University of Buffalo, there was a decided tendency to hoot at the referee. Also much derision was cast at the players of the Buffalo team, especially when the excitement ran high. There was never so much enthusiasm shown on the floor before, but part of it was evidenced in the wrong manner.

Plumb's appeal was for the students to refrain from giving untimely advice to the referee and to the opposing players. He stated that he had heard many remarks from the students which were highly uncomplimentary and went on to say, "A visiting team expects good treatment and has a right to it, just as an Allegheny team expects the same thing when away on a trip. If members of our own team are opposed to such action, then surely the college ought to be."

The Campus Staff meets every Friday at 1:15 o'clock in the Campus office in Bentley Hall.

Adam's sin and each one was punished differently because of his personal contribution to the crime.

Man can love enough to be responsible. The first sin was a betrayal of the law of love, this is both the lowest and highest law. It was the law of love which made God send Christ to earth and made Christ die on the cross. The law of love can be broken without violating any State law.

Man can help enough to be responsible. The boy with the fishes was responsible because he and God could do it.

Finally, Rev. Potter said, "Do not shun responsibility, 'she's an angel in disguise.'"

OPEN DISCUSSION HELD IN FORUM

The first Forum of the second semester was in the form of an open discussion. Topics were announced to the members who were invited to offer their opinions and comments. "Why I am a Republican" was discussedd by Cusick; "Why I am a Democrat" by Tefft; "The value of class room work" by Wilbur Thoburn, and "Should a student specialize" by Iffert.

This week's Forum will consist of a drill in parliamentary procedure. It will be instructive as well as interesting. Members are requested to bring their copy of Roberts' "Parliamentary Procedure."

GOSSIP IS SUBJECT OF THE DISCUSSION

"Gossip" or "Idle Tale Bearers" was discussed at Y. W. C. A. Sunday night by Miss Katherine Barnes, '22. Questions to be considered before gossiping were discovered to be: its underlying motive, its effect—helpful or harmful, its basis for truth, the result if it were not to be told.

DR. CHURCH SUGGESTS READINGS IN FRENCH

PROFESSOR RECOMMENDS LIST OF BOOKS IN FIELD OF FRENCH FICTION.

In response to many requests, and in order to encourage the reading of representative French novels, the Romance Department has prepared the following list of twelve titles, all by living French writers, and typical of the best that is being done in this field. This list will be added to from time to time as the demand justifies it.

Barrès, M. Au service de l'Allemagne. Deals largely with the life of an Alsacian conscript in the German army. Written before the great war.

Bazin, R. (1) Donatienne. A story of Breton peasant life. (2) De Toute son Ame. The scene of this story is laid in the great industrial city of Nantes; the principal characters are of the working class.

Benjamin, Gaspard. A war story. The adventures of a real poilu related humorously and realistically. The language is rather colloquial.

Bordeaux, H. (1) Les Roquevillard. A story of Savoie, the theme being the solidarity of the family. (2) La Robe de Laine. A simple country girl is transplanted by marriage into the social whirl of Paris, with tragic results.

Bourget, P. (1) Le Disciple. Is a teacher of radical thought responsible for the disastrous results of his teachings? (2) Un Divorce. The divorce question from the Catholic viewpoint.

Boylesve, R. Tu n'es plus rien. A war story. Must a young widow sacrifice the sad privilege of mourning for her dead in the face of duties toward the living?

Benoît, P. L'Atlantide. An impossible but fascinating novel based on a unique conception of love.

Loti, Pierre. (1) Les Pecheurs d'Islande. A tale of Breton fisher-life. (2) Les Désenchantées. Deals with the unrest in present day Turkish harems.

What Do College Students Read?

[New York Times]

The question of what college students read has perennial interest. One undergraduate of an Eastern university sorrowfully answered an inquirer: "They don't read at all." He was ruling out, of course, the prescribed reading—which seems to provoke many students to an incurable hatred of literature—and also the skimming of newspapers and periodicals, which all do more or less. It is with the latter that a recent survey of 453 students in the political science couurses of the University of Michigan concerned itself. The results are summarized by Professor Kirkpatrick in School and Society.

It apepars that nearly every one of these devotees of political science reads a daily paper. Their own university publication, The Michigan Daily, leads all the rest. Serious weekly reviews have only twenty readers out of the 453. In magazines the taste shown is very like that of the homes from which these young men came. There are thirty-two readers of The Atlantic Monthly. But of The Saturday Evening Post there are 270.

All this, of course, is only a feeble glimmer of light on a dark problem. No one expects to find many mighty readers in college. But there ought always to be at least a few in each class. It is their golden opportunity. And there are many who hold, in the midst of the endless discussions of the higher education, that the one thing which colleges may yet do is to teach the boys to read. An old professor, whose chair was described in the catalogue as that of Comparative Philology, or some other heathen title, once put all the flummery aside and said: "No, I am simply a teacher of reading."

Can it be taught except by example, or by turning a youth loose in a library? The most athletic readers in college usually teach themselves. When Charles Sumner's light was observed to burn late every night in the Harvard Yard, it was no professor, we may be sure, but an inward impulse and appetite that drove him to his long and delightful intercourse with the master spirits of literature.

WHAT THE CAMPUS PRINTED 30 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

Major Cree, a young and energetic alumnus, is here in the interest of the new gymnasium.

Hulings gives a semi-theatrical entertainment to secuure funds to refurnish the Hall.

Some students last week forced the spring lock on one of the library doors, and, when all honest people are supposed to be in bed amused themselves by stacking the books of the "new" room upon one of the tables placed against the door of the main library room. Not content with this, they proceeded to scatter the magazines around and write "93" and "Allegheny" on the walls; in the librarian's book "93's" yell, "Beware of insulting people here or your name is Dennis," and other inscriptions adorned the pages.

Alpha Chapter of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity in full Choctaw costume occupied the upper boxes at the Academy on the evening of Feb. 19th to listen to their brother, Will Carleton.

SOME ITEMS PRINTED 20 YEARS AGO.

A. W. Thompson, of Pittsburgh, was in town last week on business. He is assistant engineer on the B. and O.

Plans formulated for new chapel. Capt. John B. Ford contributes $30,000.

Ruter Hall is where you learn to root.

Born athletes (?) and maid athletes with a Spalding trade-mark is the way Travis sees it.

At the banquet, Seniors to Sophomores, Freshmen to Juniors,—"You tickle me, and I'll tickle you."

The Glee Club, assisted by Alice Huntington Spalding, reader, gave a very pleasing concert at Ellwood City last Tuesday night.

PRAYER IS SUBJECT OF CLASS DISCUSSION.

Dr. Darling led a very interesting discussion on the subject of "Prayer" last Sunday morning. The questions of what should be prayed for and the legitimate and illegitimate uses of prayer were brought out during the meeting. Whether or not a change in nature can take place through prayer alone was also a phase of the discussion.

FACULTY NOTES.

Dr. Hixson preached in the Wilkinsburgh Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday evening. A number of Pittsburgh alumni were at the services. Dr. Hixson talked principally on the value of the small college with especial regard to its character building properties.

Mr. Hill is in Buffalo, where he has been called to act as chemist in a law-suit.

IT'S NOT TOO LATE.

With doubt and dismay you are smitten,
You think there's no chance for you, son?
Why the best books haven't been written,
The best race hasn't been run;
The best score hasn't been made yet,
The best song hasn't been sung,
The best tune hasn't been played yet,
Cheer up, for the world is young.

The best verse hasn't been rhymed yet,
The best house hasn't been planned,
The highest peak hasn't been climbed yet,
The mightiest rivers aren't spanned,
Don't worry and fret, faint-hearted,
The chances have just begun,
For the best jobs haven't been started,
The best work hasn't been done.

Allegheny Freshmen Are Victors at Franklin

FRESHMAN FIVE IS STILL UNBEATEN

DALE IS STAR OF FAST GAME PLAYED IN CAGE SATURDAY NIGHT.

The Freshmen basketball team travelled to Franklin Saturday night and added another to their long list of victories. The game was played in a cage with no out of bounds and was fast and furious throughout.

At the first of the game Franklin took the lead when four fouls were called on the Freshmen in the first minute of play. Then the Allegheny men got together and ran up a commanding lead. Dale, playing his first game with the Freshmen, secured six baskets the first half and two in the second. His floor work was also brilliant. Dykes' all around playing was second only to the work of Dale. The latter made six baskets and six fouls out of seven tries. Braun, Cleves, and Stenstrom all played good basketball and shared in the work which led to a victory.

Carroll and Davis, the regular forwards on the Freshman team, were barred by a faculty ruling and did not make the trip.

The line-up:

Freshmen—46		Franklin—28
Dale	R F	Wilt
Stenstrom	L F	Limber
Cleves	C	Amberson
Dykes	R G	Kirker

MEADVILLE HIGH DEFEATS ARTER HOUSE.

In a well played and hotly contested game Meadville High School defeated the Arter House five last Thursday evening at Library Hall by a score of 35-31. Owing to the stiff workout of Thursday afternoon which lasted about an hour and a half, the Freshmen from Arter House were not in the best of condition and lost by four points. If a return game is played a reversal of scores is expected. Line-up:

Meadville—35		Arter House—31
Beatty	R F	Rider
Bates	L F	Dale
Judd	C	Seidle
Bittner	R G	Stenstrom
Bush	L G	Wright

Substitutions: Houser for Beatty. Peterson for Bush, Shultz for Wright, Wright for Seidle.

Field Goals: Bates, 9; Judd, 4; Houser, 1; Bittner, 1; Dale, 6; Stenstrom, 4; Rider, 2; Shultz, 2.

Fouls: Bates, 5 out of 13; Dale, 3 out of 3.

Referee: Kerr (Allegheny, '20).

NUMEROUS IMPROVEMENTS MADE ON ARTER HOUSE

NEW DOOR PANELS AND WINDOW GLASS TRANSFORM COLLEGE DORMITORY.

With the installation of a fine new bannister, numerous door panels, and several panes of glass, Arter House once more assumes the home-like atmosphere held so dear to the hearts of the inmates.

The occupants point with pride to the new bannister which has long been conspicuous by its absence, and promise that in the future all non-resident intruders will find it necessary to repair to some other building for the amusement which is so destructive to perfectly good bannisters and seats of trousers. The numerous door panels, missing for some time, have been replaced, and tend to somewhat relieve the shabby appearance of the interior of the structure. In the windows new panes of glass are an unmitigated blessing, for they not only admit more light but they also serve to shut out the wintry blasts that have kept the Freshmen in cold storage all winter.

It was learned today that Arter House will probably be the recipient of a coat of paint in the spring after the removal of the present coat of smashed apples and green tomatoes, placed there during the class scraps of many generations. This will be an improvement that will transform the present appearance of the building.

BUFFALO DEFEATED.

about ten feet, and then jack-knifed into the air with the shot. It was only by means of the fouls that Buffalo was able to lead at the end of the half with the score at 12-9.

At the beginning of the last period, Buffalo started in to increase the lead to the winning point and for a time it looked as if they would succeed. The team kept up the plucky fighting and kept them within a five point lead. Then the score seesawed back and forth with first one team scoring and a few moments later the other. Finally, Buffalo leaned back for a rest contenting themselves with passing around on their own half of the floor with the hope that Allegheny would charge in and foul them. Allegheny did charge in, and with the score at 22-17, during some fighting under the basket, Parker slipped in two goals within a short time, which with Kofford's foul, tied it up. The crowd was wild. It was the first baptism of cheering in that line that the new gym has had. It did not let up but increased during the whole time that Buffalo took out. Then Kofford shot the foul ending the most thrilling contest of the season with Allegheny on the long end of the score.

The work of all the men was admirable especially since Miller, Graham and Dunbar were physically handicapped. Kofford played his usual consistent game with exceptional fight. Graham's guarding was excellent and time after time he came more than half way to meet the attack Miller was passing unusually well and played the entire floor, working throughout the game. Of Parker's entry into the hall of fame, nothing need be said. Dunbar was back in the line-up with all the old time skill and punch and fitting himself in with the team work. Long, at forward for Buffalo, was the best man the visitors had and Goldensen, at guard, played well.

Allegheny—23		Buffalo—22
Kofford	F	Long
Miller	F	Cohan
Wise	C	Siegel
Graham	G	Leicht
Parker	G	Goldensen

Substitutions: Dunbar for Miller for Wise.

Filed Goals: Kofford, 2; Miller, 2; Dunbar, 2; Parker, 2; Long, 3; Leicht, 2; Cohan, 1; Goldensen, 1.

Fouls: Kofford, 7 out of 9; Cohan, 8 out of 13.

Referee: Butler.

SPECIAL MUSIC FOR Y. M. MEETING TONIGHT.

An interesting speaker on an interesting subject and special music will be the features of the Y. M. C. A. meeting this evening. Those in charge of the meeting wish to assure those who attend that it will close promptly at 7:30. Closing at that time it will in no way conflict with the game.

SCORE CONTESTED IN CLASS GAME

FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE CONTEST IS CLOSE RESULTING IN PROTESTED SCORE.

Freshmen versus Sophomore was the main attraction of the interclass basketball Saturday. The score was contested and the game will have to be played over on Tuesday. The Seniors were defeated by the Juniors 16-8.

The Freshmen started off with a strong lead over the Sophomores but the second year men came back in the fourth quarter and, as the official scorer said, tied the score, however the scorer was a Sophomore and it was thought that the correct score was 16-15 in favor of the Freshmen. An extra period was played and the Sophomores won 22-19. The work of Shirer was the principal factor in bringing the score up to a tie or nearly a tie in the fourth quarter.

This game is the deciding one of the series. If the Freshmen win when it is played over Tuesday, they will have the school championship, but if the Sopohomores win, three teams, viz. Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors will be tied and extra games will have to be played to settle it.

The official score was as follows:

Freshmen—16		Sopohomores—16
Houser	F	Shirer
Dale	F	Murphy
Sidle	C	Mansfield
Wright	G	Flint
Shultz	G	Loomis

Substitutions: Ellsworth for Houser, Houser for Ellsworth, Ellsworth for Sidle.

Baskets: Shire, 3; Murphy, 1; Mansfield, 4; Loomis, 1; Houser, 1; Ellsworth, 2; Dale, 1; Sidle, 2; Shultz, 1.

The Junior-Senior line-up was as follows:

Juniors—16		Seniors—8
Secor	F	Russel
Booth	F	Smith
MacGowan	C	Hartman
Frazier	G	Leffingwell
Cunningham	G	Potter

Substitutions: Bender for Booth, Fix for Russel, Francis for Potter.

Baskets: Secor, 2; Frazier, 3; Cunningham, 1; Russel, 1; Smith, 1; Francis, 2.

The Allegheny Club which is a non-fraternity organization occupying Cochran Hall has approximately sixty members including the nineteen Freshmen initiates taken in last week, and while some of these nineteen have been pledged to Beta Upsilon, the Allegheny Club will number about thirty members. There are many students in the college who do not belong to any society, and of course these, too, are eligible to swell the ranks of the non-fraternity group.
