Dear Miss Tarbell,

I have been instructed by President Charles W. Eliot, chairman of the Jury of Award of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation to invite you to serve on a sub-committee of three, consisting of Thomas W. Lamont, Raymond B. Fosdick and yourself, to employ experts to make the preliminary study and classification of the nominations made for the award before they are put before the Jury of Award.

The Board of Trustees is prepared to aid this sub-committee in every way and will allow it to pay the experts any salary within reason.

The Board of Trustees has decided this year to make the "Award for meritorious service of a public character tending toward the establishment of peace through justice".

I will appreciate an early answer as we are anxious to have this sub-committee function as soon as possible. I hope you will see your way clear to accept this appointment.

Sincerely yours,

President

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E. 19th Street,
New York City.
