

Sweet-char-dee-nee

P. 2-82 et seq.

Man has only one conscience cannot be divided - (2)

Men living their country better than their souls - p. 81.

We are here it. Men living their business - accumulating success by the means their souls sacrificing the things which feeding the soul we are here.
 Love the business - but not willing to give up the soul thing to ~~find~~ ^{find} by conscience making - painful pilgrimages penance but by purchase indulgence ~~most~~ ^{most} ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ ~~character~~ ^{character} ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~growth~~ ^{growth} to pro

effort to maintain that political machine - you differed your private morality - expended to business 2 different things - chose to send to doing life every thing

Contradiction between Christian morality - accepted by our time & practice - We have come to admit that a government must exhibit discords by C. M. ~~some~~ ^{some} ~~some~~ ^{some} Russian for violating promise - with mercy fidelity - Rules must be obeyed - none of these things permitted in socialism now.

C. M. must prevail in private life.
We are to accept the contention of modern business that it is impractical to do business in accordance with

The highest price the world pays is for injustice.

Maxim of Mr. Ames, V. 2, p 92
"those who love their country better than the safety of their souls" - today we say - and their business beliefs etc -