

COLONY CLUB

ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-TWO MADISON AVENUE

Dear Scott - You can "lead a horse to water but you cannot make him drink." I can give you books but I cannot make you read them. But I hope you will feel mean to keep on giving them to you! Whether you believe it or not - I believe that the habit of reading serious books is one of the most valuable treasures a man can acquire. It fills you in socially & professionally. It aids in your work. It helps make you a cultured man. Life can never be really dull when a man has the reading habit. I hope you will get it & stick to it.

Lovingly
Aunt Ida
