Dear Miss Farwell: -

I am delighted with your review of the Taylor biography in the Saturday Review.
I like particularly your statement that "there was a most interesting and beautiful series of human beings alive in Taylor."

Altogether your review ought to be a high in putting Taylor on the map. It should be without saying that I deeply appreciate its sympathetic and understanding nature.
My warmest and kindest thanks to you Very sincerely, Frank B. Colfax
