Dear Miss Tarbell:

I enjoyed reading in Sunday's "Times Book Review" your review of my friend Ernest Elmo Calkin's new book. As I read it the thought occurred to me that you might be interested to see a copy of my latest production, "Printing in the Americas," which is coming out of the binder's today. I am sending a copy under separate cover.

I can hardly expect that you will be interested to read it, but you may find it worthwhile to give it a casual "once over."

With kind personal regards, I am

Very truly yours,

John Clyde Oswald
