My dear Miss Tarbell:
I hesitate to add to the bulk of your mail but I heartily wish to congratulate you on your wonderful youth. You have learned the secret of allowing mere years to pass over you and sink behind you without a trace.

I have always been grateful to you for giving me your personal attention when I called upon you for advice about Isaac Markens' Lincoln material - I have it still after approaching almost all the publishers - A stunning blow was given it by the British Authority who was called upon by a publisher for his opinion - He said most of it was exploded myths and none of it unfamiliar at the present day.

So that's that! and he loved it so devotedly & and expected much -

I trust the coming years will shower happiness and health upon you.

Yours sincerely
Walter Lewis Roberts
