Allegheny Five Plays Wonderful Basketball—W. Va. Defeated in Extra Five Minutes of Play

GENEVA GAME.

Holding a team, with championship aspirations, to a single basket on their home floor is quite a feat. Thus did Allegheny triumph over Geneva, champions of Western Pennsylvania last year, by a score of 28-23; Geneva registered 21 of their points on fouls. The refereeing was very close. No less than five fouls were called in the first minute and a half of play—four of the five being called on Allegheny. For a time it looked as though the game was being handed to Geneva on fouls, but when they approached within a 3-point difference, Volk would widen the breach with a field goal.

In the first play after toss up Geneva was called for holding. Kofford shot the foul, the first score of the game. There was little or no real basket ball played during the first few minutes—fouls being called continually. Neither foul shooter could locate the basket accurately at the start. Geneva maintained a 4-1 lead until Kofford made the first goal—a pretty shot from the side. A minute later he evened the score with a foul. From this time on, the game was Allegheny's. At no time did they approach nearer than three points of tying Allegheny. Baldwin, Kerr and Volk scored baskets the first half, while Stringer scored the only field goal of the game for Geneva near the end of the first half. Acklin did consistent foul shooting for Geneva after the first few tries. The score at end of first half stood Allegheny, 20; Geneva, 12.

The referee was even stricter the second half. Allegheny had scarcely a shot at the basket the first few minutes while Geneva, through Acklin's foul shooting, was gradually cutting down the lead. However, Volk was on the job and scored three baskets at opportune times when it looked as though Geneva would pull out ahead. No less than 16 fouls were called on Allegheny and only three fouls on Geneva did not escape the eyes of the referee. Kofford shot too quickly the first half so he was coached to take his time the second half. With only a few minutes to play Geneva fouled. The referee called a foul on Kofford, who was about to shoot the foul, for delaying the game. The referee may be first class for High School games but for college teams—especially the Geneva-Allegheny game in as much as he is a Geneva man his services had best be dispensed with in future inter-collegiate contests.

There was considerable apprehension as to the outcome of the struggle inasmuch as it was feared that Allegheny would lose the services of Volk and Kerr, but the differences with the faculty were adjusted amicably in time to allow these men to play. Incidentally neither fought harder nor played a better brand of basket ball this year. Volk is playing phenomenal ball this year—with five baskets against Geneva, he is still averaging over six baskets per game for the season. The line-up:

Allegheny—28		Geneva—23
Volk	F	Acklin
Kerr	F	Loeffler
Meredith	C	Stringer
Kofford	G	Forbes
Baldwin	G	Patterson

Field goals: Volk 5, Kerr, Kofford, Baldwin, Stringer.

Foul goals: Acklin, 21 out of 32; Kofford, 12 out of 18.

Referee: Merriman.

WEST VIRGINIA GAME.

History certainly repeated itself in the basket ball game with West Virginia last Monday night. With but 10 seconds to play and West Virginia two points ahead, Kofford shot a foul and then in the last two seconds of play Volk tipped in the winning basket from a toss up in under West Virginia's basket giving Allegheny a 30-29 victory in 45 minutes of play. Last year, under the same basket, Kerr scored a field goal in the last second of play giving Allegheny a one-point lead, 21-20. A more exciting or more interesting game could not possibly be imagined. The score at half time was 15-15; at the end of the second half, 24-24; and once during the five minute extra period the score was tied at 27-27. West Virginia may well look on Allegheny as their hoodoo. The game was the first of a six-game trip including games with Colgate, Army, Rutgers and the Navy.

The game was the fastest of any game played this year. This was noticeable in that time out was frequently called. Allegheny, however, had undergone severe training the past week and were especially primed for West Virginia and stood up remarkably well during the gruelling encounter. Volk, especially, seemed to have a reserve store of energy. During the last minutes of the game he seemed to be playing all over the floor at once. He was easily the star of the game. In addition to the winning basket he scored four other pretty goals at opportune times. Usually the Captain of an Allegheny team has an off-year while he is leader, but Volk's case is certainly an exception for he has an average of over five baskets per game—an exceptional record against teams the caliber of West Virginia, Pitt, Geneva, and Carnegie Tech.

The game had scarcely started when the whistle blew for fouls. Martin missed four free throws in succession. Kofford, however, made his first try and started Allegheny's scoring. Martin finally got started and made the next foul followed shortly after with baskets by Volk and Kiger. The play was hotly contested on both sides, the guarding being particularly close. Kerr got loose for a basket, but Dawson evened it up by dribbling the length of the floor for a counter. Behan gave West Virginia the lead by a pretty shot from the side. Allegheny failed for a few fleeting moments—enough to allow Martin to slip away for another basket on a pass from Be-

Bishop Harris, '73, Delivers Message

MESSAGE OF GOODWILL FROM JAPANESE GOVERNMENT PRESENTED BY ALLEGHENY GRADUATE.

Bishop M. C. Harris, of Japan, Allegheny graduate in the Class of 1873, delivered a message of good will and fellowship from the Japanese Government to the students of Allegheny College, Friday morning, at the Ford Memorial Chapel.

Bishop Harris declared that the Nippon people were rather friendly disposed toward the American Government and that the spirit of comradeship between these two nations would always be preserved as long as the people of this country were ready to play the part of straightforwardness.

The Bishop has been a resident of Japan for many years and has carried on years of ceaseless activities along missionary lines. The Japanese Government has extended to him a great courtesy by permitting him to travel everywhere in the country without any railroad charge whatever.

In his greetings from Japan to America, Bishop Harris stated that the United States should look upon Japan as a civilized and progressive nation which has made great strides in its national development. Mr. Harris spoke of the valuable assistance Japan rendered the Allies when that country used her mighty fleet to keep the German invader away from the East.

Bishop Harris is a brother-in-law of Dr. J. W. Miles, Treasurer of Allegheny College.

Sophomores Win Annual Poster Scrap

FRESHMEN ATTEMPT TO SIDESTEP COLLEGE TRADITION. SOPHS DEFEND THEIR POSTER AGAINST ODDS.

On Saturday morning, February 8, the school awoke to find the campus and town liberally plastered with posters put up by the Freshmen. Evidently the Frosh were not satisfied with college traditions as they already exist and were going to start a new one for themselves. These posters aroused the Sophomores who started the enforcement of Freshman rules with a vengeance that morning at chapel. As a result many Frosh were divested of colored socks and some of more or less hair.

A meeting of the Student Senate was held to which the Sophomore and Freshman Presidents were summoned. They both agreed to having the traditional poster scrap of the college and to abide by the rules laid down by the Senate. The Freshmen were then commanded to remove all of their posters from the college campus.

The rules for the annual poster scrap are briefly as follows:

The Sophomore poster must be up by 12 o'clock.

The Freshmen must find the poster by one o'clock.

The fight lasts twenty minutes after the poster is found provided it is found by 12:40. If it is found after that the fight ends at one o'clock. There are further rules about the location of the poster which are too detailed for publication.

Last year the scrap was a draw. Then it was held only a few days after the opening of school before the Freshmen came to know each other, though numerically they were superior to the Spohomores. This year the Freshmen number over one hundred while there are less than fifty Sophomores and they had the added advantage of having had plenty of time to become acquainted with each other. In contrast to the fight last year, which took place in pouring rain, this year it was cold and a light snow was falling.

The time set for the scrap was Tuesday night. Early Tuesday afternoon the Sophomores began making prisoners of what Freshmen they could get. In this way about a dozen were tied up and kept out of the fight, which, however, did not reduce the odds against the Sophomores much. The Freshmen found out what the Sophomores were doing and succeeded in capturing three of their number.

The Sophomore poster was up by midnight on the stone wall behind the Chemistry building and the Frosh hunted until nearly one o'clock without finding it. At 12:55 the Sophomores not liking to see the evening pass without a scrap came out and showed the Freshmen the poster. During the remaining five minutes the Sophomores had no trouble in defending their poster. By one o'clock the Sophomore poster was still up, thereby entitling them to keep it on the bulletin board in front of Bentley, according to the rules of the contest.

Northwestern University has a Medical School with a student enrollment of 286. The faculty and teachers number 155.

Annual Senior-Soph Banquet Last Week

COLLEGE SPIRIT RUNS HIGH AT BANQUET HELD IN YOUNGSTOWN. A FEW FREE HAIRCUTS, AS USUAL.

Last Friday night at nine o'clock forty of the Senior and Sophomore men of Allegheny gathered at the Ohio Hotel in Youngstown for one of the most enjoyable and successful affairs of that kind ever undertaken by Allegheny men. In spite of the fact that the Juniors and Freshmen secured complete information of the intended departure of the Seniors and Sophomores, they were unable to break up the banquet as has been the custom for them to try to do. This failure on their part was largely the result of head work on the part of the individual men who were trying to get away.

Plans had been laid to leave Meadville Friday afternoon on the Erie train that leaves at 3:45 p. m. Late Thursday night it was discovered that the Juniors were aware of these plans and the men who were going were notified to leave on the train that went through Meadville at 2:30 Friday morning. These plans also leaked out and by train time the station platform was full of excited Frosh eager for Sophomore hair. As a result, only eleven men succeeded in boarding the train. In the commotion that followed the arrival of the train the police took a hand. Evidently they feared the Freshmen would be too much for them for they used their revolvers and black jacks, one Freshman receiving a severe cut on the head. The law had to resort to severe measures to keep up its majesty.

The majority of the Seniors and Sophomores learned that the Juniors and Freshmen were on hand to prevent their departure and in groups of from three to a dozen men sought other means of leaving the city. Many new routes to Youngstown were discovered. Some walked to Harmonsburg, then by trolley to Linesville, and took the Pennsylvania to Youngstown. Others walked to Saegertown and reached Youngstown via Erie and Ashtabula. It was this resourcefulness on the part of individuals that made the banquet a success. A few Sophomores did not receive notice of the departure and received free tonsorial treatment when the Frosh made a round of the Fraternity Houses later.

By noon Friday most of the forty had reached Youngstown and in the afternoon interest was divided between the Hippodrome and the Y. M. C. A. swimming pool. Many tailors were kept occupied mending and pressing torn and disheveled clothing.

At nine o'clock everything was ready even to the tastefully printed menus which arrived by special delivery from Meadville.

Between courses the assembly made the hall ring with Allegheny songs, singing with an ardor that was a refreshing reminder that our college spirit has by no means died out.

Later, Mr. Rodney McCloskey, '19, acted as toastmaster, and called first upon Mr. Leslie Stewart, '19, for "Reveille." Mr. John McMahon, '21, Sophomore President, then spoke upon the "Frosh" and in spite of the limitation of his subject made a speech that "got across." Mr. Charles Jones, '19, was next on the list. The subject of his talk was designated thus on the toast list "?". Needless to say, Mr.

Y. M. C. A. Movies Prove To Be Popular

"RUGGLES OF RED GAP" SHOWN LAST FRIDAY. ANOTHER SHOW NEXT FRIDAY EVENING.

The new movie machine, which was installed at the Chapel just recently by the Y. M. C. A., was used for the first time in connection with Thursday's lecture and proved a huge success. On Friday evening, the machine was again given a try-out when a big seven-reel feature was projected on the screen. The Graphoscope worked very well and it's just the type of machine for college use.

Friday's photoplay, "Ruggles of Red Gap," which was shown to a large attendance, was an excellent comedy with plenty of humorous elements. Everybody enjoyed the movie and look forward to the next attraction, which will be Norma Talmadge in a society play. The show starts promptly at 7 o'clock, Friday, and it behooves for everyone to be on time. Remember, there is only one show. The admission will be your presence.

EDITORIAL.

The events of the past week have stirred up a great deal of pep in the various classes, and in the college in general; in fact, there are indications of the old spirit that lived in the Allegheny of old. It is a serious fact that college spirit in Allegheny during the past few months has not been what it should be. This is doubtless due to the effect of the army regime in the college, and to the fact that the majority of men in the college are new to Allegheny, having had but a few weeks of college life and that under such unsettled conditions that no one really feels normal. It is unfortunate that the entrance of the new students upon college life should be under such conditions, and present indications seem to offer no immediate improvement. But the fact remains that Allegheny men and women must build up the college spirit. The pep that has been worked up in the recent class scraps is a good basis upon which to begin, but it does not represent true college spirit in entirety as some seem to think. The support of the team in the West Virginia game was excellent and shows that Alleghenians are capable of some manifestation of spirit. But whole-hearted support of Allegheny traditions is lacking to a great degree, and if this lack is not remedied soon, there is grave danger that the spirit prevalent in the past will be lost beyond recall. College spirit may manifest itself in the immediate future by the support shown the Washington Birthday Banquet. Every man or woman who does not attend, if it is within possibility, is directly manifesting a lack of spirit and loyalty to Allegheny.

A GIFT TO THE LIBRARY.

A little book commemorating the presentation of the Laverne Webster Thompson Memorial Window to the First Methodist Church of this city was given to the college library recently by Mr. Arthur W. Thompson. The window was given to the church by Mr. Thompson in memory of his mother and the formal dedication services were held on the afternoon of May 5, 1918. The book which is now in the Library contains a full account of the services, reproducing in entirety the addresses of Dr. A. C. Ellis, President Crawford, and Dr. Kelley, who were the speakers of the occasion; it contains also pictures of Mr. A. W. Thompson, his wife, and his parents, as well as a picture of the church and one of the memorial window. The subject of the window, as all those who attend the church know, is "Christ in the House of Mary and Martha"; it is a beautiful addition to the church and is a suitable expression of Mr. Thompson's love and veneration for his mother.

FACULTY ANNOUNCES NEW RULES RELATING TO FRESHMEN AND FRATERNITY HOUSES.

Last week in Chapel Dr. Crawford read the new rules decided upon by the faculty in regard to Freshmen and Fraternity. The faculty alleges that these rules have been put in force to remedy the poor scholarship among the Freshmen. In addition to the rules given below President Crawford announced that beginning on Tuesday, February 18, it would be compulsory for every male student in the college to report at 7:50 A. M., for fifteen minutes work in calisthenics under the physical instructor, Mr. Koegan. This work is in addition to the regular three hours work in physical culture required of the Freshmen. Dr. Crawford went on to say that any men who did not have classes immediately after this work would be accommodated by the opening of the Library in time to receive them at 8:10. It is understood that a petition is being circulated among the students, addressed to the faculty and protesting against the alleged undemocratic tone of these rules.

The rules regarding Freshmen and Fraternity Houses are as follows:

For First Term:

After Wednesday of opening week no Freshman shall be permitted to visit any fraternity chapter house except on the occasion of such formal functions as shall be agreed upon between the Faculty and the Interfraternity Conference.

For Second Term:

1. All bidden or initiated Freshmen may have access to their fraternity houses as follows:

With the understanding that no one shall be allowed to sleep in his fraternity house nor eat more than five meals in the house during any month, free access shall be allowed to the house between the hours of 4:00 P. M. and 10:45 P. M., on Saturday, from 12:30 P. M. to 5:30 P. M. on Sunday, and on other days, excepting Wednesday and Friday, from 4:30 P. M. to 5:30 P. M. Any other visitation of fraternity houses or grounds, including fraternity meetings, must be by special permission of the Faculty.

2. The above privileges, except permission to attend fraternity meetings, shall be immediately withdrawn from a freshman who falls below "C" in any study.

3. In granting these privileges to the fraternities it must be understood that the fraternities are expected to co-operate with the Faculty in using all means within their power to promote gentlemanly conduct and an ambition for scholarship on the part of their men living in Cochran Hall and the Annex.

4. It is not permitted that a freshman shall do any menial service in or about the chapter house of his fraternity, such as polishing floors or cleaning sidewalks, except as such service is equally shared by other men of the chapter.

MAGAZINES FOR THE CANTEEN.

You may have already obeyed the request to take the magazines that you have read to the Library so that the workers in the local canteen can have them to give to the boys on the troop trains that pas through Meadville. It is true that many magazines are needed overseas, but there is almost as great a need here. If you could be at the station when a troop train is served, you would know that the periodicals are highly appreciated. Of course they don't want anything high brow, but I imagine that what most of the readers of the "Campus" like will please our returning soldiers . Give us a helping hand in this matter.

Vassar College has a library which contains 100,000 catalogued books and pamphlets. It also purchases about 400 periodicals.

LIT. MONTHLY MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE.

The much-expected Literary Monthly has made its first appearance, last week. The Lit. Monthly is as attractive as in former years and contains first class literary material of the college type. The contents for the February number consist of 43 pages of Freshman stories, poetry, fiction, and departmental ditties.

The Monthly is dedicated to the Freshman Class. An excellent editorial by Ruth P. Miller, '19, which appeals to the '22 men to play the right game in life, is one of the features in the Monthly. The members of the staff are:

Editor-in-Chief, Ruth P. Miller, '19.
Assistant Editor, Gertrude Thomas, '20.
Associate Editors, Gladys McKinney, 21; Glenn Barr, '19, and Helen Millhoff, '21.
Business Manager, Thomas Colley, '21.

SENIOR-SOPHOMORE BANQUET

Jones' remarks were apropos and won hearty applause. "The Juniors" was the subject given to Mr. Stanley Eberlee, '19. His dramatic description of the efforts of that class to break up the banquet held everyone breathless. In his talk on "Our College Spirit" Mr. Marlin Hartman, '21, struck a note of encouragement and urged everyone to pull together to make Allegheny spirit a real force in our college life, in spite of the numerous obstacles which confront us in this attempt. Mr. Harry Muckinhaupt, '19, Senior President, was the next speaker. His subject, the "Happenings of Life," gave him a good opportunity to tell of some of the interesting experiences which came to some of the men in their efforts to reach Youngstown. "Taps" were sounded by Mr. Francis Kirkpatrick, '19, who, though handicapped by the loss of his pickhandle, gave a few taps that all will remember. The banquet ended with every man on his feet in a rousing "Allegheroo."

DR. JEROME LECTURES TO MEN.

Thursday evening at the Ford Chapel, Dr. W. F. Jerome, former Mayor of Hillsdale, Mich., member of Michigan Legislature, who has just returned from ten months' service in France, delivered an interesting and instructive lecture, "The Beginnings of Life," to the men of the College. The lecture was well illustrated by scientific pictures. Dr. Jerome will return to France in the near future for work with the Army of Occupation.

GROVE CITY COLLEGE HAS YOUNGEST PRESIDENT.

President Wier C. Ketler, of Grove City College, is the youngest college president in the United States, as shown by statistics. The second son of the late Dr. I. C. Ketler, the founder of the school, President Ketler was elected to the presidency in June, 1916. Previous to this time he had been a teacher in mathematics in the school, and following his father's death, had assisted in the direction of affairs. Thoroughly conversant with the desires of his late parent as to the policy of the school President Ketler has assumed the toga with all the hopes and tradition in which he has been reared. He is a graduate of the college of the class of 1908, graduating from Yale in 1910. He is very popular among the students and has during his regime built a school that is noted for scholarship over the country.

The students of Wesleyan University subscribed a total of $43,500 to the Fourth Liberty Loan. This is an average of $144 for each person in the institution.

Frank O'Malley is a noted financier and spent many years in South America investigating and studying financial problems. His lecture Thursday morning will be of intense interest, since South America is universally becoming a land of wonderful opportunities for prospective young men. Mr. O'Malley will be glad to meet any of the students in regard to any information on South America.

Dartmouth College has an interfraternity basket ball schedule which is composed of four leagues. There are five teams in each league. This method of division is very good as it enables the best teams to be selected in a shorter space of time.

Y. M. C. A.

The regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held in the rooms in Cochran Hall on Wednesday, February 12, at 7 o'clock. The meeting was under the leadership of Glenn Barr, '20. The Student's Conference which was held at Delaware, Ohio, recently, was discussed by Robert L. Faulkner, '19. The meeting was turned to a discussion of President Lincoln in which nearly every one present took part. After the meeting, President G. A. Stetson met with the cabinet to discuss aggressive plans for the immediate future.

SENIOR CLASS MEETING.

At a meeting of the Senior Class held at one o'clock Tuesday, Mr. Leslie Stewart, '19, was elected to fill the vacancy left on the Student Senate by the departure of Enoch Filer, ex-'19, who has gone to complete his course at Harvard.

The class also discussed the Washington Birthday Banquet. Undergraduates have been slow in coming to the front to support this function. The situation was presented to the Senior Class and every member declared himself ready to give whole hearted support in making this banquet one worthy of the traditions of such affairs in the past.

Wesleyan University has an enrollment this year of 409. This is a gain of 7 over the preceeding year. There were 332 men in the Student Army Training Corps but 35 of these were under eighteen years of age.

A HUMOROUS INCIDENT.

Among the many amusing incidents that were related by the various men who attended the Senior-Sophomore banquet, last Friday night, was one concerning the meeting of two men who had entered school with the class of '20, but being out on account of the war, have dropped back into the ranks of the Class of '21. "Doc" Haine got separated from the bunch he was with and hearing revolver shots in town started the other direction with considerable speed. In fact, he claims to have tripped over mile posts every few steps.

Finally he reached Saegertown but very tired and very wet. Seeking shelter in the Inn, whom should he come upon but "Jimmy" Kinnear. Just at this point the story is somewhat confused. Each claims the other was afraid of having his hair cut by the supposed Junior he was confronting. Or maybe "Doc's", "Aw, Jimmy!" saved his hair.

PHILO-FRANKLIN FORUM TO DISCUSS LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

Owing to the absence of many Sophomores and Seniors last Friday afternoon at the College, the Philo-Franklin Forum meeting was postponed till next Friday, at 4:30. The subject for discussion will be the timely topic, a League of Nations. This debate promises to be a very interesting one, as the proposed league of nations is one of the most popular terms today in international politics.

For Sunday dinner we had as our guests: Miss Frances Norton, sister of our late Brother, Grant S. Norton, ex-'19, and Miss Wilhelmina Traum, '21.

Dr. Ling was a guest at dinner Thursday night.

The Delt "smoker" which was to be held Saturday evening is to be held sometime in the near future.

Ritchie and Painter, '21, thought they could escape whole skinned by staying in bed Friday but they now appear in skull caps.

Mr. Keogan, the new physical director, shared the Sunday evening buffet lunch with the boys.

Six of the Freshmen spent Tuesday securely tied, but perhaps they got off rather easily at that.

Brother Stetson, '19, is spending the week-end in Cambridge Springs.

Brother Walker, '19, returned Thursday and reported that his mother had sufficiently recovered to allow his return to school.

WEST VIRGINIA GAME.

han, giving West Virginia a four-point lead, but towards the end of the half Volk and Kerr came back with baskets. When the whistle blew at half time the score was 15-14, West Virginia. Kofford, however, was just about to shoot a foul which was called before the whistle blew. Kofford made good and so the score stood a tie, 15-15.

West Virginia started off with a rush the second half—Kiger scoring from the tip-off. After a few minutes of play Volk evened up the score again. The score remained a tie after Kofford and Martin each shot two fouls, then Martin shot another foul. Kerr came to the rescue this time and gave Allegheny a one-point lead. The remainder of Allegheny's points came on fouls. With only a minute to play Kiger evened up the score by scoring from mid-floor. The score after forty minutes of play stood 24-24.

Meredith started with renewed vigor and scored a basket when the extra period began, giving Allegheny the jump. Martin shot a foul and a little later slipped away for another basket. Kofford evened up the score at 27-27 by making a free throw. It looked like another extra period until Behan scored a pretty basket. Still the Allegheny team fought till the last second—Kofford brought the score to within one point of tying. After the last toss-up at center the ball was in scrimmage under West Virginia's basket. The referee called for a toss-up, Volk on the toss-up caged the basket, which spelt defeat for West Virginia, winning one of the most heart-breaking basket ball games ever played here.

Perhaps there are many who do not realize the importance of Monday night's game nor the significance of Allegheny's victory. West Virginia has a first class championship aggregation and on the strength of their past performances, is laying claim to the sectional championship. They have lost only to W. & J. by a one-point margin on W. & J.'s floor. They defeated Allegheny at Morgantown, 43-35; defeated Pitt on their own floor, and Marietta. Allegheny's victory clearly puts Allegheny in the running inasmuch as they defeated the conquerors of Pitt. Allegheny by a victory over W. & J., March 15, can strengthen their contentions even though we suffered a setback at the hands of Pitt.

Allegheny's mettle will be put to the test next week with three hard games. The Great Lakes team comes here Tuesday with a string of 17 consecutive victories, Colgate, Thursday, and Westminster, Saturday night. All are urged to attend the Great Lakes game inasmuch as it has been quite a financial undertaking to bring this attraction. The student body is backing the proposition and it will take the cooperation of every one to aid in meeting the expenses of this game.

The line-up of the West Virginia game:

Kerr	F	Behan

Field goals: Volk, 5; Kerr, 3; Meredith, 1; Martin, 2; Behan, 2; Kiger, 4; Dawson, 1.
