

November 9, 1918

My dear Miss Nims:

At last the bibliography has reached me, two copies of it, for both came the same day.

I like its looks very much, and I am sure you will find that it is used by many people. I shall be glad to know at the end of the first month or two what kind of a response you are getting. I certainly should push the work along the lines of which we have talked--Americanization, thrift and general reconstruction.

You ask about the material on the Waacs. Yes, Miss Nicolay sent a splendid lot of stuff in the copy for the 3rd or 4th Foreign News Bulletin. I sent it to Washington to Mrs. Wilkes, calling her attention particularly to the Waacs. I thought that if we put out no more Bulletins--and I am doubtful about the advisability of doing that, under the circumstances, we could use what she had on the Waacs in an article or in National Defense. Won't you talk to Mrs. Wilkes about this? I am sure the stuff is there somewhere.

I am hoping to be able to get down and see you one of these days. I am having a pretty crowded time.

Faithfully yours,