Dear Sir:

I am looking for a file of the Police Gazette in the 1860's and the early '70's. There are not a sufficient number the New York Library so far as I can find to give me the information I want, which is:-

1) Date when the Gazette changed from the large newspaper to the small newspaper size. It was in this latter form that it began to use four to six pages of illustrations. The first numbers have no illustrations. Sometime in the early '60's the large sheet included a few.

2) I am looking for a particular number. Late in the '60's the Gazette published two or three pictures on crime in the oil regions in Northwestern, Pennsylvania - the particular spot was Petroleum Center and the case was the murder of a young man in a dance hall. If possible I want to locate this picture.

I shall be grateful for any information you can give me. If the files are sufficiently fubl I shall arrange to go to Washington to examine them.

Very truly yours
