Faculty Is Expanded By New Members

PAUL GIDDENS, JULIUS MILLER
RETURN AFTER YEAR'S LEAVE

With the increase of Allegheny's student body, correspondingly, the college faculty has been expanded from a normal 50 to a total of 65 members.

Among the new members are Mr. Marion T. Bird, assistant professor in mathematics; Mr. Bird is a graduate of Alabama Polytechnic Institute and received his B.S., A.M., and Ph.D. degrees at the Illinois Wesleyan university. He previously taught mathematics at the University of Illinois, Southwestern college, University of Wisconsin and comes to Allegheny from the Utah State Agricultural college. Mr. Bird is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

The new assistant professor speech and dramatic art is Mrs. Graham G. Bird, who is a graduate of the University of Alabama. Mrs. Bird has taken graduate work at the Yale School of Drama. During the summer she is associated with the Cain Park Theater in Cleveland.

Mr. Hubert V. Cordier, an instructor in the speech department, obtained his A.B. degree at Manchester college and his M.A. degree at Michigan State college. He has taught at Columbia City, Indiana, and at Michigan State. During the war Mr. Cordier served in the Army Air Corps and has recently been connected with a radio station at Canton, Ohio.

The new Director of Religious Life is Mr. Wiley H. Critz. (An interview with Mr. Critz is printed elsewhere in this issue.)

Mrs. Lucille Garber Ford comes to Allegheny as an instructor in economics. She obtained her B.S. degree at Stephens college and took graduate work at Northwestern university. Mrs. Ford previously taught night school at Evanston high school, and was an instructor at the University of Alabama.

A new instructor in the art department is Miss Dorothy Hobbs, who received her A.B. degree at Lawrence college, her M.A. degree at the University of Iowa and attended the Walker Art Center in Minneapolis. Miss Hobbs is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Mr. William U. Hodgson, an instructor in biology attended the Pennsylvania Military college and the Carnegie Institute of Technology. He received his B.S. degree at the University of Pittsburgh.

Allegheny's new associate professor of classics is Mr. Fred W. Householder, who is another member of Phi Beta Kappa. Mr. Householder earned his A.B. degree at the University of Vermont, his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees at Columbia university.

Mr. Robert Johnson has been appointed as our new assistant in music. He received his B.S. degree at the Indiana State Teacher's college. Mr. Johnson was on campus last year and was business manager of the Singers.

Having taught in this year's past summer session, Mr. William C. Lawton joins the Allegheny faculty as an instructor in economics and sociology. Mr. Lawton received his A.B. degree and his M.A. degree at the University of Texas and did graduate work at Louisiana State university. He taught high school in Texas and was an instructor in economics and sociology at the University of Houston.

Miss Barbara Morse joins the physical education staff after being an assistant this past year at Skidmore college. Miss Morse obtained her B.S. degree at Skidmore and has acted as camp counselor at Winthrop, Maine.

Receiving his A.B. degree and his M.S. degree at Emory university and his Ph.D. degree at Princeton university, Mr. J. Gordon Stipe, Jr., has been

Alumna Appears In Readers' Digest

Appearing in the October issue of "Readers' Digest" is a condensation of the autobiography of an ex-Alleghenian.

Miss Hildegard Dolson, ex-'30, is the author of the lively book We Shook the Family Tree. Included in this autobiography are a number of humorous and human episodes about Miss Dolson's life at Allegheny.

A review of the book by Mr. Philip Benjamin plus a few excerpts from it was printed in the August issue of the Allegheny College Bulletin.

Regular staff members and all those interested in working on the Campus will meet in the Green room tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. The staff will be introduced and students may sign up for reporting, feature writing, sports writing, art work, copy reading, make-up, typing, and circulation.

Grant Tells of M.U.C. Activities For the Semester

Elmer Grant, '47, president of the Men's Undergraduate Council, has announced a variety of activities which are to be sponsored by that organization this term.

In cooperation with the Alumni office, the M.U.C. is planning a pep rally for the evening of October 18, the night before the homecoming game against Westminster. This event is scheduled to take place behind the Odd Fellows Home. A speaker for the occasion, as well as the cheerleaders and college band, will be present.

All fraternity house fronts are to be decorated for homecoming week-end and the M.U.C., again in cooperation with the Alumni office, will present a plaque for the best decoration. Sketches of the plaque will be on display in the library about a week before the judges, who will be chosen from the faculty by the M.U.C., make the award.

Other plans include the annual all-college M.U.C. dance, a men's bridge tournament and a ping pong tournament. Along with the athletic department, the M.U.C. will sponsor a men's intramural sports program.

In order to clarify rushing rules for freshmen, a short statement concerning this subject has been issued by the M.U.C. president as follows: "During the first semester freshmen, on invitation from a fraternity member, will be permitted to visit fraternity houses informally for such things as informal dinners, card games, and bull sessions. However, freshmen will only be allowed to accept one invitation from each fraternity to a formal affair. By a formal affair is meant any organized or chaperoned party such as a smoker, radio party, or formal dance."

Pre-War Days Are Here Again

Allegheny is back to pre-war standards with a majority of men enrolled this year. Total enrollment is 1018, with 610 men and 408 women. Some 514 of the men who registered last week are ex-servicemen. Also enrolled for the year 1946-47 are four ex-service-women.

Of the freshmen, 185 are men and 81 women. The Allegheny emergency college, created to handle the surplus of Meadville men has 76 students.

Five more students from foreign countries give the campus an international atmosphere. They are Haroldo Fleischer of Brazil, P. M. Balasundaram from India, Jun-Chin Lin of China and Luiz Maria Avecedo from Puerto Rico. Vladimir Kastalidies, who is coming from Lebanon, will arrive soon.

Student Help Receive Raise

A 10 per cent increase for student help employed by the college was announced by Mr. Louis J. Long, business manager.

This increases the scale for collegians working part time in offices, dining rooms, the Grill, the library, and similar campus assignments from 50 to 55 cents an hour.

Chinese Student to Study Here

"Frankness" is the greatest difference between Americans and Chinese, according to Jun-Ching Lin, a native of the city of Foochow, Fukien province, who is attending Allegheny at the invitation of the Associated Women Students. Said Miss Lin, whose first name is pronounced "Ren", "Everybody seems so frank. The girls talk about things we would never talk about. Perhaps that is because we became suspicious during the war. We kept quiet."

The plan to arrange for a girl born and raised in China to attend Allegheny on a scholarship was originated by A.W.S. in 1943. Madame Chang Kai Shek was in this country at the time. Wilma Beck (now Mrs. Lawrence Larson) was president.

Many letters were written but due to the war, arrangements could not be completed.

Recently contacts were successful and the scholarship was awarded to Miss Lin. She is the daughter of Mr. Chin-jun Lin, a graduate of Oberlin and Harvard and president of Fukien Christian University. Her mother also attended Oberlin and received a medical degree from Johns Hopkins. They are now in New York City where her father plans to take courses at Union Theological Seminary. She has one brother, Chih-Chang, 15.

Miss Lin studied at Wen Shan Girls' School where, she explained, they spent eight hours a day on subjects such as Chinese, English, mathematics, geography, music, history, and gymnasium.

In 1939 the school moved inland almost to the border of Kiangse province. The trip took three days by boat and bus. They took with them as many books as possible and science instruments.

Foochow was occupied by the Japanese in 1939. According to Miss Lin, the city is a difficult one to defend being built on a level river valley. When they returned to Foochow for the first time last December, they found the school completely wiped out.

The Lins left Shanghai on September 2 aboard the "General Meigs", an army transport, arriving in San Francisco September 14.

Miss Lin finds Allegheny very different from school in China. She enjoys the amount of free time here. As for the food, she declared, "There is too much to eat. And it tastes so much better. In China we had plenty of rice at school, but vegetables were very scarce and meat was so expensive."

She brought with her a collection of 1,000 stamps. Another interest of the Chinese student is music. She has studied piano for six years and is continuing to study it here along with the usual freshman subjects.

There is one thing that Miss Lin doesn't like about Allegheny. Believe it or not, it's the men students. Said she, "They frighten me. They're all so tall and big."

(Ed note: An interview of Palayam Murugial Chetty Balasundaram of Madras, India, will appear in next week's issue.)

Homecoming Day To Feature Dance And Football Game

Highlighted by a football game with Westminster college and an informal dance, the annual Homecoming will take place on the week-end of October 19.

Other activities of the week-end include a soccer game with Westminster on Friday afternoon, October 18. That evening there will be a football eve pep rally.

After the football game Saturday afternoon a cider and doughnut party in Montgomery gym is planned. This will be followed by fraternity, sorority, and independent dinners. In the evening alumni will have their choice of attending the Playshop production of "Warrior's Husband" or the annual Homecoming dance. The week-end will be concluded by Sunday morning services at the Old Stone church.

This program has been planned by the Alumni association with the aid of a student committee. Committee members are David Johnson, '47, Elmer Grant, '47, Mavis Clark '49, Roy James, '48, Robert Tidmarsh, '47, Vera Lee Hampson, '47, and Virginia Claxton, '48

Today is the last day for changing schedules with the approval of the student's advisor. All changes made after today must be approved by the Dean of Men or Dean of Women.

Act of March 3, 1879.

Congratulations, Veterans

The following is a syndicated editorial which has been reprinted many times in various newspapers throughout the country:

"War service seems to improve scholarship. Typical of reports from many other institutions is one from Allegheny college in Meadville, Pa., about student veterans, originally dropped for unsatisfactory work. Given a second chance in token of their military service, they make as good, and often markedly better grades than other students in their classes. Seven out of eight had passed all courses but one, making an average for this second trial group of 78. Not only veterans who were former failures, but all returning veterans have made better grades than they made in prewar days.

"This is, after all, not so remarkable. These boys matured, have been through experiences that make book learning something more than theory for them. The GI bill of educational rights is going to be justified many times its cost."

This is good news. It's something to make us all stop and think. But we disagree . . . we think it is remarkable. For men who have had the experiences, who have seen the places, and done the things that the veterans on our campus have done, we think it would be very difficult to begin again getting their learning from books. True, much of it is no longer theory. But much must be very useless and unimportant to them.

Life at Allegheny must seem like a slow-moving river compared to the turbulent rapids of the past few years. But it is a pretty river, shaded by trees, and carrying valuable commerce. It is slow, and perhaps at times sluggish, but it has fewer jagged rocks. And this river's banks never overflow on the surrounding land.

The Campus congratulates you, Veterans, for picking up where you left off, and picking up with so much strength and vitality. And we sincerely hope that you will find here at Allegheny a place to think about building rather than destroying.

For Women Only

With war veterans jamming classrooms in quest of higher education, many American girls never will get to college, according to an article in the August 3 issue of the Saturday Evening Post.

"Speaking off the record, and regretfully," writes Milton MacKaye in an article "Crisis at the Colleges", "a number of educators predict such a tightening of the situation that many American girls of college age will never be allowed to matriculate."

With almost 400,000 veterans attending colleges or universities at the close of the school year and more than 1,000,000 more seeking admission this fall, the American educational system is "in the middle of the gravest crisis in its history."

The housing shortage particularly affects feminine students, it is pointed out, because "supervised housing of college girls is an American tradition, while men—and this is traditional also—can be quartered any place where walls keep out the weather."

Mr. MacKaye's statements should be a challenge to women students. Be thankful that you're here, yes, but don't just be thankful and let it go at that. Show the world (and the administration) that you have some reason for being here.

Let's not be just husband-hunting, hedonistic females, but women who want to enrich not only their own lives but the lives of our children and those about us by what we gain here.

DIS GUYS Discourse

"What do you want in this column, Jo?" we asked. "Oh, write it like Hall did. Humorous, subtle and weird." "Sure, just like that," we said.

About this Hall Van Vlack who pounded out "Hallzapoppin" last year. Leave us hope it doesn't take us as long to graduate as it did him. Why, he looked us right in the eye one bleary day and said, "This rumor about me and Mrs. Potter Brown is authentic."

Anyway, Leech says if this column isn't up to Copenhagen, he can fill the space with ads for Joe Sorce's company. By the way Joe scans you up and otherwise, he can tell whether you fit into a seven or an eight foot coffin lot. Joe's motto is, and we quote, "People are just dying to give me business." But enough of this.

With so many students back, we took is upon ourselves to hold several interviews. Eramus Glumchin from Sherette, Pa., was the first to ask, "Where's the CO? I want a three-day pass."

"What a college, a campus! What women! I really like this place. I always did want to come to Grove City," said Axel Boltin of Detroit, Mich.

When asked about inflation, Stanislaus Stirk from Scranton, said, "The once calm and cool waters of the Cus-sewago have felt the heat of rising prices. Even water has risen to the point of steam." "Golf, too," according to Ken Bogan who lives on the back nine at Cambridge, "reveals a factor worthy of note. The shout 'Five' is now used in place of the heretofore 'Fore'."

Thought for today or any day: It is a matter of judgment many times, not a matter of time over judgment.

Literary Magazine Advertises For Staff Writers

The Literary Magazine's Golden Anniversary edition is now available at Reis library for all students. No charge is made for these copies. Students are urged to secure them while they last.

All students interested in writing poetry, short stories, and essays, or in doing linoleum prints and other art work are asked to sign up for the Literary Magazine staff at the main desk in the library. Proof-readers and typists are also needed and may sign up at the desk. This offer applies especially to freshmen.

Donald Ludwig, '47, is continuing for the second year as editor of the Literary Magazine. He is replacing Julia St. Clair Wilson, ex-'47.

ARSENIC

Well, now we can relax. It is time to give the freshmen a break. The trouble with the freshmen is that they have adjusted far too well far too soon. When I was a freshman I was impressed with upperclassmen, timid in that sanctum sanctorum Brooks hall, intimidated by college men, and absolutely petrified of being a grill hound. Not so these newcomers. They stroll nonchalantly into the right classrooms, eat breakfast in the grill when they have a mind to, dance divinely, play good Culbertson bridge, and date the most handsome men on the campus. All this with the most urbane air. Woe unto the upperclass women.

There is a very interesting character by the name of James George Washington circulating on the premises of Brooks and vicinity. He stands on the corner by Lord's gate almost every Sunday looking for interesting people. That's how I met him. It seems that he has not missed one day of Sunday school for 65 years, and he's mighty proud. James says that he thinks Allegheny students are almost as pokey as all his good friends in New Orleans, and it makes him happy to know that in this age of hustle-bubble soap chips there are some people who appreciate the art of relaxation. I sheepishly took leave of James George Washington, but he intimated that we shall meet again.

Here let us clear up a little matter of some concern to certain starry-eyed enthusiasts on the campus. The dapper little photographer who rushed around snapping pictures is NOT from "Life Goes To A Party". The fact of the matter is that he:

a. is a supernuated tradition at Allegheny, who according to Dr. Schultz came in 1802, and left school to go to the War of 1812.

b. is one of the few students taking nine years to go through Allegheny college. (Van Vlack, his closest competitor, took only eight.)

c. uses his camera only to attract the more impressionable females, hence, the Life sticker on the case.

This time of year always brings out the sentimental in one, doesn't it? I can't help looking at the innocent, as yet unsullied, freshmen without wondering if they will fall in love with Dr. Seely, worship Kalfayan, tremble before Hulburt, and think that Chester is a darling.

What for is the long ladder that has been leaning against the roof of Cochran these last few weeks? I've been patiently waiting for some sweet young thing to toss a suitcase to an impatient lover and gracefully descend into his open arms.

One crisp night last week there was a sleek red-and-white bicycle propped wearily against a tree outside of Cochran hall. One bright morning there was not a sleek red-and-white bike propped against a tree outside of Cochran hall. The reason? Fate. To the casual observer it would seem that the bike had been stolen. Late one night last week a student with a wry sense of humor thought it would be interesting to abduct the bike, because it would be jolly to see the reaction of the owner. The bike refused to fit in the back of his car, however, so he left it. What could be more justly retributive than to discover that the bike had been whiseked away by the strange phantoms of the night. There is a moral to be gleaned therein, ye gleaners.

Let us hope that the college clocks soon get over their non-conformist attitude. 3 minutes slow wouldn't be so bad, but the present 3 minutes fast are rather confusing to those of us who check the books according to B-U-L-O-V-A watch time.

Flash!

The freshman with the eyebrows is not John L. Jr. but rather the brother of the very late Hall Van Vlack.—Signed: John L.

Scholarships To Oxford Will Be Resumed Soon

Rhodes scholarships, suspended since 1939, will be resumed in December, Mr. Philip M. Benjamin, the Allegheny representative has announced.

Applications are due on November 2, and candidates elected will enter the University of Oxford in October, 1947.

Normally candidates for the Rhodes Scholarships must be between the ages of nineteen and twenty-five, but this year candidates who would have been eligible in any year since 1939 will be allowed to compete, provided they have had at least one year of military or civilian war service. Sixteen extra scholarships have been allotted to the United States for the years 1946 and 1947. This number is in addition to the usual annual award of 32 scholarships.

The usual bar against marriage is removed in the case of service candidates. The customary requirement of two complete years of college or university training at the time of application has been dropped to one year for service men. Veterans attending Oxford will have the added aid of receiving benefits under the GI Bill of Rights equivalent to those which they would receive in an American university.

The qualities which form the basis of selection are: (1) literary and scholastic ability and attainments; (2) qualities of manhood, truth, courage, devotion to duty, sympathy, kindness, unselfishness, and fellowship; (3) exhibition of moral force of character and of instincts to lead and to take an interest in his schoolmates; (4) physical vigour as shown by interest in outdoor sports or in other ways.

Financial need does not constitute a special claim for consideration. There is no restriction on a Rhodes scholar's course of study. The stipend of the Rhodes Scholars will remain for the present at 400 pounds as it was before the war.

Information and application blanks may be obtained from Mr. Benjamin.

Robert Merrill Presents Concert

The Civic Music Association of Meadville opened its 1946-1947 season last evening with a concert by Robert Merrill, the celebrated opera and radio star.

Robert Merrill has had a meteoric rise in the last ten years until now he is a top ranking star of the Metropolitan Opera and a favorite of many in radio broadcasts as well. In his concert last evening, he presented a varied program of operatic selections and American folk songs.

Allegheny undergraduates are admitted to all concerts upon presentation of their activities tickets. The concerts are held in the auditorium of Meadville high school.

Commuters College Is Established Here

A "commuters' college" has been set up by Allegheny to take care of Crawford county veterans and high school graduates unable to gain admission to any other institution. The students attend classes at somewhat irregular hours and spend nights in their own homes.

Football Season Opens October 12

College Adds New Coaches To Its Staff

Allegheny has the assistance of three new coaches this fall. William Hanson of Monson, Mass., a graduate of Springfield college and a former member of the athletic staff there, will pilot the Gator soccer and swimming teams this year. He will also act as assistant track coach. Coach Hanson gained recognition while coaching the freshman soccer teams at his alma mater. During the '37-'38 season he coached an undefeated soccer team.

He is a veteran of four years of Navy service, unmarried, and a former captain of an LST. Hanson plans to put soccer on an equal basis of popularity with the Gator football team.

H. Paul Way, former member of the soccer team, introduced the sport at Allegheny in 1934. He is now serving as assistant backfield coach of the football team.

Russell V. Svec, who was a varsity end here on the 1942 football squad, has returned to his studies as a junior, and will be assistant line coach. Although eligible for varsity competition, he was stricken with an illness while in service and became unable to play. Svec was a Navy ensign and played football for a Ft. Pierce, Fla., team which included such stars as Marshall Goldberg, Johnny Lujack, and Bill Daley. He also holds a record at Oberlin college for the shot put with a heave of 41 feet.

Also helping the football coaching staff is William Carmen, another former letterman who can be seen in mole-skins every afternoon out on Montgomery field.

Jym Montgomery Sez

Allegheny college has scheduled 71 contests with 24 opponents from Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York and Indiana, a record sports program for 1946-1947.

The college will resume intercollegiate baseball next spring after a lapse of 32 years. The expanded program is being revived for a record number of men enrolled here next year. Coach Robert M. Garbark, former catcher with the Boston Red Sox, will be head coach. Garbark plans a seven-game schedule.

Sports are a science in the opinion of faculty members on campus. Re-aligning college departments they placed the physical education courses in the science division, along side astronomy, biology, chemistry, geography, physics and psychology.

Attention link lovers: The College Invitational Golf Tournament, halted during the war after five years of play, will be revived here next May 23.

The sports staff of the Campus will endeavor to turn out a paper with more personalities and more pictures. Stick with us.

Rumor: the gym tests and swim tests given by the physical education department are said to have suggested the acme of all tests. All Phys Ed students will be required to pull Coach Way by his hair the length of the pool. Thanks, coach.

Allegheny home football games will be played at the North street stadium this fall. Athletic director H. Paul Way made the announcement last Wednesday night after college administrative officials and the faculty committee on athletics approved of the transfer.

Since Montgomery field opened in 1912 all our home games have been played there, therefore our opener with Earlham, October 12, Homecoming game with Westminster, October 19, and the Mount Union game of November 19 will constitute the Gators initial season of home games off campus.

Fifty Men Will Tackle Earlham

The great American game of football has resumed its place on the Allegheny campus with head coach Bob Garbark leading a squad of 72 players to their first practice on Sept. 16. The following week two practices a day took place with a lot of exercises and running to condition tired lungs and flabby muscles. Last week several scrimmages were held with an hour long grind on Saturday.

Coach Garbark now has the team cut to 50 men. Of these 50 men 75% are veterans.

The Gators will probably be built around a nucleus of 3 lettermen, Bob Carmen, backfield, Guy Tiffany, center, and Bob "Itch" Stanton, who has been moved from fullback to the tackle position. All three of these men lettered in '42 when Russ Svec, who is now assistant coach, was also playing at end.

Due to the earliness of the season, "Garbie" hesitates to make any predictions. The successfulness of the team will be much more easily determined after the Earlham game.

Among the men who will see action in the first game are: Carmen, Tiffany, and Stanton, Wally Reisch, who had experience on a navy pre-flight team at Muhlenberg, D. Waterman, W. Baker, D. Zuirbrick, Ed Feller, a 230-lb. lineman just out of high school; B. Hamilton, R. Burns, D. Potter, F. Pollard, R. Meyers, B. Morse, Bill Miller, G. Main, R. Hellman, E. Eastman, and B. Rylander.

Carmen, Rylander, and Nat Edelbulte are scheduled to do the punting, while Waterman, Eastman, Reisch, Rylander, and Carmen will share the passing duties.

Earlham will arrive here with a 1945 record of 3 wins and 3 losses and will be bolstered with a host of returned lettermen.

The schedule for the 1946 season is: Oct. 12—Earlham at Meadville. Oct. 19—Westminster at Meadville (Homecoming) Oct. 26—Grove City at Grove City. Nov. 2—Thiel at Greenville. Nov. 9—Mt. Union at Meadville. Nov. 16—Oberlin at Oberlin, Ohio. Nov 23—Dickinson at Carlisle.

Nine Lettermen Boost Soccer Team

Forty-eight men reported for the initial practice of Coach Hanson's 1946 soccer team at Eberhardt field last Tuesday. Daily workouts will become routine in preparation for the opening game with Buffalo State on October 11. The return of nine lettermen from previous years, Barco, James, Smoot, Foye, Leech, Roberts, Stunder, Hopkins, and Johnson should be beneficial in developing a smooth running aggregation. Among those who have had previous experience with the game are Pat Hughes and Roger Christopherson. Christopherson is competing for a position on the line, but Coach Hanson may change him to goalie, a post at which he starred for Baldwin high school during three consecutive seasons. Sam Barco has been chosen to lead the '46 team as captain.

The only statement Coach Hanson had to make about the opposition on this year's schedule is that Rochester always puts a good team on the field, but he hastily added that every game will be tough beginning with Buffalo on October 11 and concluding with Oberlin November 8. Last year's team, the first since 1942, compiled a record of one win, two ties, and three losses, a pretty good showing after being idle for three years. It is too early to make any predictions about this year's team, but the coaching staff seems rather optimistic.

THE WOMAN'S SIDE

—by Foster and Brewster—

Sure enough, football is wonderful! But we girls are a talented lot, too! So if you can tear yourselves away from Allegheny's newest attraction and glance at the bulletin board in Brooks gym for a moment, you will find the latest news of Terrapin, Orchesis, and Boots and Saddles clubs. Also the W.A.A. Hockey Tournament is to be scheduled soon.

Do you fret about that "chlorine complexion"? Are you worried about straight wet hair? A swimming proficiency test will be held soon in Montgomery pool. This test may exempt you from physical education swimming requirement and allow you to substitute another activity.

All girls with an incomplete in Physical Education must register for class immediately in the office.

College Will Supply Speakers Through Bureau

The Allegheny Student Speakers' Bureau is back from the war to provide public discussion and individual speaking programs for interested audiences in the contributing area of Allegheny college.

The Student Speakers' Bureau has been organized with a two-fold purpose: first, that the college might be or service to the community from which it derives its support; second, that especially qualified students might have the opportunity of appearing in practical speaking situations outside the walls of the college.

According to Mr. Hubert V. Cordier, director, several hundred letters have been sent out to Chambers of Commerce within a hundred-mile radius of the college announcing the return of the bureau. In turn, these business associations are forwarding the names of civic and professional organizations who are interested in obtaining Alleghenian student speakers.

Any Allegheny student interested in travel, meeting civic leaders, and influencing public opinion is encouraged to make further inquiries of Mr. Cordier, Speech office, Arter hall.

Wiley H. Critz
Joins Faculty as Religious Director

Formerly a Navy chaplain, Mr. Wiley H. Critz has joined the Allegheny college faculty as Director of Religious Life. This is a newly created position in which he will strive to bring a closer relationship between the students and their college religious life.

Besides acting as faculty advisor to Allegheny Christian Council, Thoburn Club, and the chapel program committee, Mr. Critz is interested in making Sunday Vespers an all college church service, one which will be of interest to the entire student body and to which they will come regularly. He is also concerned with bringing students and the downtown churches closer together.

"At Allegheny I would like to become a sort of 'campus pastor' to whom students would feel free to come with any of their problems," he asserted. Such counseling is no new thing to Mr. Critz. He has previously had much experience in helping both college students and G.I.'s. A graduate of Millsaps in 1940, he studied at School of Theology, Emory university before becoming a traveling student secretary for the Y.M.C.A. For a year he visited 65 colleges in the Southeastern field counseling their programs, passing on ideas of one college to another and helping them to interpret the national program. Thus he became very familiar with college life and the problems of students.

In 1943 he was graduated from Union Theological Seminary and ordained a Methodist minister. That same year he entered the Navy Chaplain Corps. While in the service he spent 15 months with the Marine Corps and 15 months with the Navy, the last year of which he was aboard an attack transport in the Pacific. He was released from the Navy this year.

Besides having such advisory duties, Mr. Critz teaches a section of Religion 1 and acts as head proctor at Caflisch hall. He and Mrs. Critz are host and hostess in Cochran dining room.

While an undergraduate at Mississippi State College, Mr. Critz was very active in campus affairs. He was particularly active in athletics and was awarded letters in football, basketball, and baseball. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity and Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary leadership fraternity.

He is married to the former Eva Jarvis, whom he met while she was serving in the U.S. Marine Corps Women's Reserve.

appointed associate professor of physics. Mr. Stipe was an instructor in physics at Emory university and was listed at Princeton as Visiting Research Associate.

Mr. Harrison W. Young, an instructor in history and political science received his A.B. degree at Heidelberg college and did graduate work at Bowling Green State university.

Miss F. Vivian Kinsley, instructor in art, holds a B.S. degree from the University of Wisconsin, and her M.A. degree from Escuela Universitaria de Bellas Artes in Mexico.

Mr. Glenn W. Timmons, instructor in speech, with a B.A. degree from De Pauw university has completed two years' graduate work at Northwestern and Garrett universities.

A new assistant in modern languages is Mrs. Marie Andree Mulligan, who has her B.S. and M.A. degrees from Oxford University, England.

Mr. Robert C. Crispin and Mr. Alfred C. Werner, both return to the college this year after naval service. Mr. Crispin as an assistant professor will teach German and Spanish, and Mr. Werner is an assistant professor in physical education.

Professors Paul H. Giddens and Julius A. Miller are back after a year's leave, the former for research on a Guggenheim Fellowship and the latter as head of the art branch for the Shrivensham Army University in England.

The following faculty members have resigned: Mr. Robert E. Smith, who has become Associate Professor of Mathematics at William and Mary College; Mr. Richard C. Baker, who has taken an Associate Professorship at the University of Pittsburgh; and Miss Margaret Kerfoot, who filled a one-year appointment in the absence of Professor Miller. Miss Miriam Brubaker and Miss Ann Marie Blager were both married this past summer. Mr. Jay Cherry has joined the faculty of Bowling Green State University. Mr. Theodore F. Nelson has been appointed Professor of Speech at St. Olaf college, and Miss Dorothy Deach is taking a year's leave of absence for graduate study at the University of Michigan.

Be Completed In Fall

Construction is now underway for Allegheny's new athletic field located on Park avenue extension above the present hockey field.

Plans for the field were made two years ago, but because of the war the construction was delayed until recently.

The plan proposes to develop the 150-acre plot for intramural and other athletic activities. Two riding rings have already been completed and a baseball diamond, and golf links are under construction. Stands will be erected as soon as the materials are available.

President John R. Schultz announced that he hopes that the field will be completed by next fall.

Kaldron Asks for Interested Students

Covers for the 1947 Kaldron have already been ordered, Betty Crabbs, '47, editor, has announced.

Freshmen pictures have been taken by Kurt C. Glaubach, who is handling the photography. The Meadville Tribune Republican will print the Kaldron. Lynn Heiss, '47, has completed the layout work.

The Kaldron is in need of people to work on all staffs, especially advertising, literary, typing and make-up staffs. Snapshots of campus life should be submitted to Vera Lee Hampson, '47. Everyone interested in working on the Kaldron should sign up in the Green room at 7:00 p.m. tonight.

Staff members for the Kaldron this year are: Betty Crabbs, '47, editor; Marjorie Bosworth '47, assistant editor; August Bloomquist, '47, business manager; Lynn Heiss, '47, art editor; Marilyn Harer, '48, literary editor; Lois Green, '48, and Lee Hunt, '49, make-up editors; Vera Lee Hampson, '47, snapshot editor; Suzanne Lackman, '47, corresponding editor; Mary Jane Ellwood, '47, secretarial editor.
