Dearest Julie: 1921 (?)

You left an awful gap when you departed! It was so delightful to know that I could tap at your door any moment and hear your voice. Every one of us enjoyed every minute of your visit and I only wish we could have kept you longer.

The golden weather continues, and this afternoon I am going on a long tramp thru Cherokee Park with Jane Scott. It is a fine day for people to stay in doors when autumn is our trip - but with - out - I am eager to know about your look with Mr. Warren and what you did in Boonville, but don't bother to write as I know her busy you are.

Has Rama the Weed Trip was shorter than I expected.
It lasted only twenty - four hours, and all in my imagination. Three thousand per. person for your mouth is a little to steep for us.
Carr had a letter from Mr - Fortune, in which he spoke of writing you "when you reached anchorage". I think he thought you would bought our from here. A heart full of love to you from your devoted Aaaa -
