FROSH ELECT CLASS OFFICERS IN REBALLOT

BULLETIN

In a special run-off election held yesterday noon in the chapel, Wilbur Shuster defeated Richard Alder for president of '42 by a vote of 80 to 44. Other results were Robert Miller over Helen Shafer for vice-president, 63 to 61, Virginia McCune over George Haudenschild, 90 to 33, for secretary, and Casius McGrew over Richard Graft by a count of 72 to 49, for treasurer of the class.

Lack of majority for any Freshman candidate necessitated a rebalancing in the chapel yesterday noon.

At the first class meeting October 13, nominations were called for from the floor and the ballot casting gave Wilbur Shuster, Wilkinsburg, and Richard Caldwell, Shaker Heights, Ohio, majorities for president.

Deadlock for the vice-presidency are Helen Shafer, Altoona, and Robert Miller, Slippery Rock.

Virginia McCune, McKeesport, and George Haudenschild, Carnegie, tied for re-election of the secretaryship.

Majority winners for treasurer were Casius McGrew, Cleveland, Ohio, and Richard Graft, Scottsdale.

Many Nominees.

Those nominated for the presidency included Richard Caldwell, James Craig, Edgar Dolittle, Wilbur Shuster, and George Cardoza.

For vice-president, Robert Miller, Charlotte Allen, Dorothy Jane Konstanzer, Betty Delp, and Helen Shafer were listed on the ballot.

The secretary was elected from the group of William Race, June Trigger, George Haudenschild, Robert Welday, Virginia McCune, Caryl Harris, and Helen Shafer.

Virginia McCune, Casius McGrew, Richard Graft, Stephen Horton, and Thomas Grow were nominated for treasurer.

2ND SUNDAY VESPERS HELD IN ORATORY

Address, Music Fill
Sunday Evening Meeting
Under Student Brock

Vesper Services conducted by the Allegheny Christian Council were held last Sunday afternoon in the Oratory. Presided over by Mary Brock, '41, the services included a talk by James Gettamy, '41, on the life of Albert Schweitzer, and piano selections by Marjorie Casanova, '39. Two organ recordings by Schweitzer, Bach's Fugue in C Minor, and Toccato and Fugue in D Minor were presented.

Plans for final Sunday vespers in the series have been formulated. Scheduled for 4:45-5:15 p. m., in the Oratory, the Vespers will be conducted by Edyth Wisan, '39. Robert Appleyard, '40, will speak on the subject, "The Life of Father Damien, Leper Priest."

November 13 has been designated as the date for the first of a series of three student forums. Each forum will be completely controlled by students.

Barring unfavorable weather the series will be held at Bousson farm on

This Is An 'Age Of Chiselty' Complains Disillusioned Writer

"In days of old, when knights were bold—". Those were really the days! Remember King Arthur, Lancelot, Gawain, and the rest of the boys in tin? That was the era when men in armor went out to fight on the field of battle or in the lists at the tournaments, just for a beautiful lady, who had given him her handkerchief as a token of her faith in him. It must have been swell, huh? Nowadays, it's all the gals can do to get one of the gentlemen to pick up a hanky (dropped accidentally or otherwise) let alone fight for it.

Chivalry! It must have been great stuff. Men strove to live up to high ideals. They looked upon themselves as "knights errant" who were to make the world a better place to live in. Well, maybe they did and maybe they didn't. For today, what have we got? Chiselty!! And in no mean form. Chiselty to the left of us, chiselty to the right of us, chiselty behind us and chiselty in front of us; in fact, it's everywhere. It goes on in the classroom, in the dorms, in the life of each and every one of us.

CO-OP STORE PROPOSED FOR DORM. GIRLS

Plan Introduced by Jane Hartman; Cast Ballots Tomorrow and Friday

Fire insurance covering personal property in Hulings hall, and a co-operative store for dormitory girls were the two prospective innovations presented at a meeting of the Associated Women students on Monday afternoon.

Jane Hartman, '41, who has been instrumental in introducing the co-operative movement into Allegheny, sketched the plans for the experiment. Students will state their opinion through balloting on Thursday and Friday of this week.

Tentative plans make Activities board members, Dorothy Dotterer, Jeannette Hirschman, Edythe Wisan, Betty Rehtmeyer, Jeannette Rose, Shirley Baldwin, Katherine Gelbach, Barbara Johnston, Jane Anderson, and Floy Ramsey the temporary advisory board. Dr. Scott Hall, who has helped in molding present plans, will probably be included among these directors.

Small Fee.

JONES WINS WITH TALK ON ADVERTISING

John Jones, '39, of Phi Gamma Delta won the annual extemporaneous speaking contest, sponsored by the Philo-Franklin Union last Friday in chapel.

Discussing "What Would College Fashions Be Without Esquire and Mademoiselle?" Mr. Jones objected to these magazines on the basis that they dictated uncomfortable fashions. Advocating "an establishment of fashions of, by, and for the students," he asserted that the most comfortable fashions were corduroy suits for the men, and sweaters, skirts and ankle socks for the women.

Ranking second was Sam Hazlett, '40, of Delta Tau Delta, who spoke on, "What the College Student Would Do if the College President Said, 'I Like Wheaties.'" "Face the facts—Do you, or do you not like Wheaties?" he said. "If you do, eat them. If you don't, don't let even Dr. Tolley persuade" (continued on page 4)

At a recent meeting of the Kaldron staff the work of the various divisions was outlined and students were assigned to work in the departments in which they are most interested.

A.U.C. DECIDES ON LIB BULLETIN BOARD; FUNDS

Convocation of A.U.C. Sunday night resulted in consideration of several major campus problems.

Significant was the formulation of plans for the placement of a student bulletin board.

Aiming to avert the confusion arising from Friday chapel announcements and Dining hall notices, the new bulletin board will contain all announcements pertinent to campus activities.

Tentative location of the board is the porch of Reis Library. Should congestion make this location undesirable, a new site will be designated. A.U.C. indicated a student committee would control the placing of notices on the board, which will be locked.

Outing Club again presented its petition for an allotment of student funds. Relative to this petition, a motion was made that the present A.U.C. recommend to next year's council that they include the Outing Club in their budget. Purpose of this motion was to enable student opinion to react to the Outing Club activities. Hence Outing Club members will be compelled to function as an all-college organization before inclusion in the college budget.

Another All-College dance was planned by the A.U.C. in cooperation with the Outing Club. Designated as a Barn dance, the entire program will not be square dancing. Admission will be by Student Activity Tickets.

Class elections were also scheduled. Freshman election was held yesterday in the chapel, and sophomores will convene tomorrow noon to fill the vacancy in the treasurer's office, resulting from the absence this year of George Stitzinger, ex-'41.

Pictures of this year's A.U.C. were also taken.

GOGOL FARCE TO APPEAR LATE IN NOVEMBER

Inspector General, a Russian farce by Nickoli Gogol, will be the opening major production of the Allegheny Playshop this year. Although no definite date has been set as yet for its presentation, it will appear late in November.

Gogol's farce has been considered the best comedy to come out of Russia. Although written in 1836, time has failed to detract from its significance as drama, and it was recently shown in the United States as a motion picture.

The cast is not yet complete but it is expected that all the roles will be filled by the end of the week. At present, members of the cast are Jean English, Betty Stewart, Edgar Wood, Charles Liggett, Jack Megahan, Charles Miller, Sam Hazlett, and Michael Enserro, all of '40; John Jones and Wayne Knight, '39, and Richard Miller, '41.

The directors of the production are Miss Alice H. Spalding and Mr. John Hulbert of the Drama department.

NEW MACHINE FOR ORATORY ARRIVES SOON

$5000 GIFT FOR RECORDING MUSIC DUE 1ST OF NOVEMBER

Making the great classics available to Alleghenians in permanent form, the Carnegie foundation's $5000 gift of a new recording machine and records will arrive on or about November 1, according to a statement released by the music department. The machine will be placed in the Oratory in Ford Memorial chapel.

The gift will include 900 recordings, dealing comprehensively with the history of music from its beginnings to the present day.

Terms of the donation specifically state that the machine and records are to be open to all, hoping that through this medium a "practical means of furthering music appreciation might be realized."

Parallels Craig Room.

It is the intention of the department, according to Professor Morten J. Luvaas, head of the music department, to make the collection a musical parallel of the Craig browsing room in the Reis library.

Professor Luvaas will consider the first two weeks the equipment is here as an experimental period. During this time there will be free access to the room at all times. Later definite listening periods will be posted. (continued on page 4)

SPEAKERS TO FEATURE CRAIG ROOM PROGRAM

Plans have been completed by Professor Philip M. Benjamin and his committee for three programs this semester to initiate the informal reading gatherings in the Craig Room.

First of this series to further student acquaintance with books in a home-library is scheduled for Sunday, October 30. Professor Henry F. Boettcher, a former drama instructor of Allegheny College, will speak on the topic, "The Current Theatrical Season." His discussion deals with the current trends in the dramas and is expected to include illustrative material. Professor Boettcher is now head of the drama department at Carnegie Institute of Technology. He received his position in 1936 after a four-year professorship here, and some additional study at Yale university.

Dr. Giddens to Speak.

Dr. Paul H. Giddens is scheduled as guest speaker, Sunday, November 13. His talk, "From Fact to First Edition; The Writing of a Book" will be centered around a description of the steps involved in the writing and publication of his new book.

His book, "The Birth of the Oil Industry" will be published five days previous to that talk, by MacMillan and Company. The introduction to this publication has been written by Miss Ida Tarbell.

The final gathering of this semester is January 8. Robert W. Thomas, trustee of Allegheny College, will discuss "The Lure of the Detective Story." Mr. Thomas, a graduate of the class of 1912, is now vice-president and general manager of the McCroskey Tool Company. Prior to the acceptance of this position and after graduate work at Harvard, Mr. Thomas was an instructor of English at Allegheny. (continued on page 4)

FROSH CONTEST DEADLINE NAMED BY "THE LIT"

Allegheny's Literary Magazine today announced the deadline for contributions to the Freshman Creative Writing contest. "No entries," said Robert Wright, '40, Lit editor, "will be accepted after midnight, Monday, October 24."

Contestants are requested to leave their entries with Miss Cotton, in Bentley, or with any member of the English department.

Talent Sought.

Seeking to discover latent talent in the Freshman class, and to encourage possible writers, the Lit is offering prizes for both prose writings and poetry.

Based on the decision of the judges, a first prize of $5.00 and a second prize of $2.00 will be offered both in the field of prose and that of poetry.

Professor Philip M. Benjamin will serve as faculty adviser to this year's Lit staff in the absence of Professor Stanley S. Swartley, now on sabbatical leave.

PLANS IN ORDER FOR HOMECOMING DAY SATURDAY

Allegheny's annual Homecoming week-end promises to be bigger and better than ever this year. Dr. Donald T. Rowlingson, Alumni Secretary, stated that plans were completed providing for 48 hours of entertainment beginning at 10 a. m., on Saturday with the meeting of the Alumni Association, and ending with the vesper service in Ford chapel at 5 o'clock on Sunday.

Upon the completion of the Alumni Association meeting in Bentley Hall, alumni will be guests of the college at a buffet luncheon to be served in Hulings Hall at 12. At the luncheon a vote will be taken on the revision of the constitution for the Alumni Association.

CONSTITUTION IS ADOPTED BY M.U.C. MONDAY

New Government Provides For More Effective Control Of Men's Activities

"The purpose of the Men's Undergraduate council shall be to coordinate, promote, and supervise all matters pertaining exclusively to men's social life and activities in the college." Thus was the purpose of the reorganized M.U.C. set forth in its new constitution.

At a meeting in the Faculty room of Bentley hall on Monday night, the reorganization of the M.U.C. was completed when the new constitution was approved by all of the fraternities through their representatives.

The council, consisting of two representatives from each fraternity and two representatives from the active list of the independent men's organization will meet every Tuesday noon.

Wayne Spray, '39, who presided over the meeting, stated that the election of officers would be held at the meeting on October 25.

Delegates Present.

OBERLIN HERE TOMORROW FOR VERBAL BATTLE

Opening the current debate season, Robert B. Wright, '40, and Herbert Rosen, '39, will engage in verbal scrimmage with the Oberlin varsity tomorrow at 8:00 p. m., in the speech studio, Arter hall.

Question for debate is, "Resolved, that the federal government should abandon the policy of stimulating business by grants of public funds."

Mr. Charles E. Irvin, debate coach, when questioned concerning the debate commented: "It is an imminent vital question for all Alleghenians. I anticipate a large interested audience. The entire student body is cordially invited."

Freshman Call.

Tryouts for Freshman debate aspirants are scheduled for October 27 in the speech studio.

Applicants are to present five minute talks on a subject of their own selection. Members of the freshman (continued on page 4)

"Just Haven't A Thing To Wear" Cry Could Easily Be Abolished

Considering a speech given in chapel recently, it seems opportune to bring up the pros and cons of women's daily campus apparel.

According to the recent winner of the Philo-Franklin Union's cup, Allegheny co-eds—to be suitably dressed—should sport only the proverbial combination of sweater, skirt, ankle-socks, and saddle shoes.

Many are those who follow this example, believing it to be the most collegiate and most comfortable of all outfits. They laugh in derision at the other females, who, we must admit, are really in the minority, and classify them—to put it bluntly—as the "male eye-catchers." Whether this is their true belief or whether they are merely exponents of the sourgrape school, we cannot say. But the fact remains that this is by far the larger group, and to all outsiders it would seem that they are "in the right."

"Collegiana or Mademoiselle." However, it is only fair to take up the cry of the other side. To simplify matters, let us term them as the "smoothies." At least they are desirous of being so. They maintain that Football will be the attraction in the afternoon, when Allegheny meets Grove City, traditional rival, at 2 p. m. An interesting feature of the game will be the entertainment between the halves. In addition to the usual singfest, there will be a colorful demonstration by the freshmen, which the committee promises will be a far cry from the ordinary Homecoming pajama parade. A novel attraction will be the Hammond electric organ, which will be set up to lead the singing.

Tea at Hulings.

Following the football game, an alumni tea will be held in Hulings lounge at 4:30. Dr. Rowlingson stated that the committee in charge of Homecoming was particularly stressing the annual Homecoming banquet in Cochran Hall at 6:30. Mr. Andrew Robertson, Chairman of the Board of Trustees will speak, after which the Allegheny Singers will render several selections. Fraternity and sorority dinners will also be served at 6:30.

The evening program includes a playshop production and an All-College dance. The drama department has not yet announced its selection of a play.

INFORMATION IN "TIME CAPSULE" IS DIVERSIFIED

Key Volume in Reis Library Contains Messages for the Future From Prominent Men

The Time Capsule, key volume to the discovery and translation of the contents of the Time Capsule deposited at the New York World Fair, has been received by Librarian Edith Rowley.

The book was published Sept. 23, 1938 by the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, of which A. W. Robertson is Chairman of the Board of Directors. Mr. Robertson is also chairman of the Board of Trustees of Allegheny College and is expected to be on the campus October 22 to preside at the semi-annual meeting of the board.

This small book of 51 pages contains the description of the preparation of the capsule, deemed capable of resisting the effects of time for 5000 years. It explains the contents of the capsule, a key to the English language, and a determination of the latitude and longitude of the tube. Messages (continued on page 4)

And Men Like It.

To get the best slant on the situation, it would be far better to get a survey of the ideas of the male contingent on this campus. Upon asking several of them they could give no definite reply. For example, we quote one of the connoisseurs at Allegheny who says: "It's hard to say which side I favor. I once went with a girl who was a knock-out when she was 'gunned-up', but I liked her best when she was in her informal sports attire. On the other hand I have gone with girls who attracted me simply because of their perfect grooming. Let Your Conscience Be Your Guide. It is safe to say that certain types (continued on page 2)

WHAT HOMECOMERS EXPECT.

Homecoming, as the Seniors may have already begun to suspect on contemplating the approach of their last undergraduate one, is a little more than a season at which a hearty slap on the back is not only encouraged but expected, and at which one's fraternity house or dormitory is overrun by large numbers of sympathetic persons claiming ties of brotherhood or common residence.

The alumni look for a great deal more than the initials which they may have carved on a certain desk in '01, or the room in which they spent one, two, three, or four of the "happiest years of their lives".

Among the things which they have the right to expect is that vague thing known as "spirit", a quality for which the season of 1938-39 has not been outstanding to date.

A lot of work goes into the annual Homecoming program; work by the student government people, work by the college powers that be, work by the alumni office, all aiming toward a peppy and happy time for the returning Alleghenians.

But all that work can fall mighty flat without the cooperation of the student body. Not just at the big pep bon-fire and any events which may happen thereafter, but all through the week-end, from Friday afternoon, when the first arrivals register at Bentley, till late Sunday evening, when the last old-grad climbs into his car or onto his bus. They expect a good time, and only the proper atmosphere can give it to them.

You'll expect it too, when you're looking at Homecoming from the other side of the fence, and you'll be badly disappointed if you don't get it.

Shall we give it to them?

AT LAST, A MEN'S GOVERNMENT!

The passing of the new constitution Monday evening puts men's student government on a par with other bodies on the hill, and finally creates a group with powers clearly enough defined to make it possible that some constructive measures be carried through. To the committee which drew up the document we tender special notice for their fairness to each other and to themselves, and to the individual houses our congratulations for their cooperative spirit. If the new M.U.C. can function in the same spirit in which it was born, the men of Allegheny have indeed something of which to be proud.

A NEW CENTER OF INFORMATION.

The president of a great American women's college once remarked that if he could get a good look at the bulletin board of a college, he could with a reasonable degree of accuracy tell whether it was a good, fair, or mediocre institution.

That worthy educator would have had a difficult time evaluating Allegheny on that basis, since there is here no central bulletin on which all-college announcements may be placed with certainty that they will be read by a majority of the student body. At least, there never has been.

But we are informed that such a project is now under way, and its sponsors hope that it will be completed within the next two or three weeks, said sponsors having an eye to relieving the congestion of notices in Friday chapels, and at both men's and women's dining halls.

There remains the problem of getting the undergraduates to read regularly the notices thus posted. Never having had the "bulletin-board habit" to any degree, Alleghenians may have some difficulty in acclimating themselves to the new system of obtaining information. But the new board's position at the library entrance should go a long way toward solving that problem, and a little thought by the students should do the rest.

There is involved no idea of doing away with announcements pertaining to special groups at places most suitable to those groups, or of eliminating the space in this paper devoted to such notices. The new board is proposed merely as a centralization point, at which students who may have missed announcements may catch up with them, and at which students not eating regularly at college halls may keep themselves informed with a minimum of effort.

CRAIG ROOM READING PROGRAMS

It seems entirely in accord with the spirit in which the Craig Room was donated by the late Mr. John Craig that the series of informal reading hours are now being planned. Keynoted on informality, growing out of a more private group which had grown too large to be convenient in dorm or fraternity house room, the browsing room should furnish the ideal environment for such a series of programs. Add to these factors the interest-holding potentialities of the programmed speakers, and the general result is one on which the student-faculty committee is to be commended.

Letters to the Editor

To the Campus Editor
October 19, 1938
Dear Mr. Hummel,

Four fall formals in one night, and a basketball game to boot is a calamitous situation in any one's language! But when this same condition exists twice in a row it's a dire catastrophe!

Having heard twenty or so odd and vehement criticisms to this effect, I have taken it upon myself to call the attention of the A.U.C. social committee to the situation, through the medium of the Campus.

When pledge parties were scheduled, Alpha Chi Rho, Phi Delta Theta, Alpha Chi Omega, and Kappa Kappa Gamma were all given the same night. Now the fall parties schedule is printed and again those same two fraternities and two sororities are given the same night. And on top of that there's a basketball game with Penn before the dances.

In other words, some couples are getting gyped out of two parties and only get half an evening for the one they get to.

If this situation is to be remedied, and it can be remedied, action must be taken immediately, before orchestras, halls, and so forth are hired.

My suggestion is that four fraternities have their dances on one night, and four sororities on another. That way there won't be the general mixup that exists at present.

Sincerely,

Allegheny Students:

It is common knowledge among the student body, not to mention the football world at large, that the Allegheny 'Gator is in the midst of a terrific lethargy. However, it appears to me that they have very little incentive to change their present status. The college itself embraces a very luke warm attitude toward athletics, and as so often happens with yes men, the student body as a whole seems to have adopted the same view. This is particularly true of five or six of the students who have been selected to represent the student body at all athletic games. In case of any doubt, I have reference to the cheer leaders. Saturday afternoon was indeed a dark day for Allegheny; in fact, it grew so dark that the above mentioned cheer leaders (?) decided that it was too dark for them to see the rest of the game, and so they groped their way out of the stadium, turned on their bright lights and ran away.

This may seem like a small thing to a great many people, but to those guys out on the field taking a beautiful physical and mental beating it was no small thing. Now the consensus of opinion is that the team will lose the remainder of their games, and no one seems to particularly care. Suppose this idea would become contagious and the football team would develop it? Could we truly blame them?

Sincerely,

Dues, Haynes & Scarp.

GERMANS SEEM HAPPY OBSERVES DR. E. SPANN

"You are told what to enjoy, how to enjoy it, and how many hours a week you may enjoy it in Germany," stated Dr. Spann in her chapel speech Monday on "How I Found Germany."

According to Dr. Spann, there are two distinctive forces at work in Germany—peace and war. Among the various peace plans which are being undertaken is the widening of Berlin streets, necessitated by the increased automobile traffic. The Strength and Joy Park, a Leisure project for employed people has also been established. As a part of this project the German state is building small cars at a price low enough for the common people to buy. The city of Neuremberg is being changed into "The Eternal City", with buildings destined to last a thousand years.

In speaking of the recent crisis, Dr. Spann said, "It was quickly evident that a tension existed, but the casual visitor was impressed by the seeming happiness and activity of the people."

She explained that the common people know no facts and have to depend solely on rumor for information. For the past few years propaganda has been bitter against the Czechs and lately quite a bit of anti-democratic propaganda has arisen.

Dr. Spann's opinion of Hitler's popularity during the recent crisis was that he could have relied upon his people to fight for him, and mobilization could have completed in twenty-four hours.

The German people, however, seem to fight Englishmen and Frenchmen whom they have learned to like or love, and to at least respect and admire.

"Through the new peace projects," Dr. Spann concluded, the Germans have found new hopes and dislikes the very idea of fighting."

Generally Speaking . . .

We heard of one swell way to break up a depression—it was no gentle hint thrown the Fiji pledges way that made them all truck down to Karl Smock's to buy new ribbons for their necks from Jimmy Fox.

Complications set in when Richard Graft's "friend-from-home" made her appearance Sunday afternoon to form the eternal triangle.

We hear Doolittle is quite the bridge player—we're wondering if his line changes with his fair bridge partners.

A spirit of gloom prevailed at the Sig party Saturday night—the theme being "Where is My Wandering E. A. Tonight?"

Eleanor Harter is up to her old tricks again—she started the Sig party out with a bang by staging a perfect three-point landing right in the front door—such enthusiasm!

Once again we have a wild tale about our receiving line and their ever-present name twisting—Dudie Ochsenhirt ended up as Oxie the Dude—merely in fun, of course.

Talk about our fickle collegians—Billy McEwen hung his pin for an hour—and in Doc's, of all places!

The Yellow Peril jogged its treacherous way to Hiram and back with very few breakdowns considering. It's questionable whether they were caused by the high wind going that day or Sid Sedwick's rendition of "Playmate Come Out and Play With Me."

Here's the opportunity of a lifetime for the Hulingsits—for forty-five cents the girls can insure their wardrobe for five hundred dollars—no more, no less. Who has a match?

"Everything stops for tea" at the Chi Rho house when John Caputo pours for the pledges on work day.

According to those in the know, Bob Geisinger is about as subtle as a train-wreck in his capacity as president of his date bureau; for details see Lee House. It is also rumored about that the Phi Gams are negotiating with local contractors for an addition to the chapter house to accommodate his high stepping.

A telephone call to 1011 inquiring "Is this the Phi Gamma Delta frat club for Christian boys?" invariably results in the answer, "No, this is Phi Delta Theta."

"Match in the Gas Tank—Boom! Boom!" Marjorie Lewis is now the burnt child that stays away from fire. Pity the poor Delts! They are going without shaving until Allegheny wins a football game. Confidentially, they have great plans for the night after the Grove City push-over. Shades of the "House of David!"

LIBRARY REPORT IS OF INTEREST

Preparing her annual report of Reis library, Miss Edith Rowley, librarian, yesterday released information pertinent to last year's library records. To be presented to the Board of Trustees at their meeting on Saturday morning, the report is a compilation of statistics from July 1, 1937—June 30, 1938.

Last year students used for reserve reading 57,497 books, withdrew 26,324 books for general reading and referred to 583 volumes in the cubicles, making a total circulation of 64,404 books. The average circulation per day was 267 books. The average reserve books read per student for the year was 53.

There was a gain of 3,349 books in general circulation. During the year there were 65 different displays, which is eight more displays than in the year 1936-1937.

To the card catalogue 15,969 cards were added, which makes the total number of pieces in the library 122,195.

Last year the library received 344 magazines, of which 224 were purchased and 120 were gifts. 3,189 books were donated to the library.

During the summer 304 volumes of periodicals were bound and 379 books were given fresh covers.

This year 27 student helpers are employed in addition to the six full-time workers.

PHI SIGMA IOTA OPENS SEASON

"Contemporary France" was the general topic for discussion picked by Phi Sigma Iota at its first meeting last week.

At this same meeting, a eulogy for Dr. Church, last year's president of the organization was planned. This vote must be sent to the Phi Sigma Iota headquarters before definite action can be undertaken.

The officers for this year are: Professor Armen Kalfayan, president; Dr. Alice Kemp, vice-president; June Siebelic, secretary; and Aileen Dain, treasurer.

GATORS SEEK REVENGE

CARNEGIE TECH SOCCER TEAM WINS BY CLOSE SCORE

In a loosely played game at Pittsburgh, last Friday, the Carnegie Tech booters defeated Allegheny 1-0. The 'Gators were in scoring position several times but were unable to score through a tight Tartan defense.

The play of both teams was very poor. Both the Tartans and the locals lacked especially on the offensive play. Handicapped badly by a "Pill-box" field, the Waymens attack was far under its usual standard.

Cooper, center for the Pittsburgh boys, scored the only goal of the game. His one-pointer came in the second quarter after the scrimmage in front of the Allegheny goal. A foul deprived the 'Gators of a score, after Baldwin booted a penalty kick through the goal.

Hart and Baldwin, who performed well on the offensive, and Gratz, who made several nice saves, were outstanding in defeat.

PROMISE SEEN IN FROSH FOOTBALL

With its first game only two weeks away, Allegheny's frosh squad showed signs of promise in scrimmage held for the first time last Friday. Now in its second year of freshman teams, the 'Gators again will present a tough line-up of first year men. A heavy line and a backfield which combines speed and weight are features not to be overlooked by opponents.

The tentative first string line-up shows Praether and E. Roberts at ends, Brossman and H. Roberts at tackles, Shuster and Wible at guards, and Long at the pivot post. The backfield is composed of McKnight, Morosco, Peiffer, and Bowder. The first two boys carry the weight while the others add speed and shiftiness.

The schedule so far calls for Polish Alliance to be met October 28 and Grove City reserves on November 7. Both of these games were lost last year, creating a matter of revenge to be looked after.

AS GREEK MEETS GREEK

By BILL FALOON

While the touch-football tournament series closed into the finals last week the scores indicated a closer matching of squads. A general lowering of pointage and tightening of play marked the tilts staged in the semi-final rounds. Goal-line stands were more often successful, lucky breaks loomed larger and general play more skillful than in the early rounds.

Phi Kappa Psi gained the finals of the loser's bracket lost Tuesday as Robinson sparked them to a 12-0 win over the Phi Gams. The diminutive quarterback of the Phi Psis dominated the play both in running and passing. The Fiji-landers retaliated by way of Sedwick's toss to Gilmore which kept them within striking distance till the final gun.

Psi Psi-Phi Delt.

Fresh from Tuesday's victory the men of Beta loomed as winners until the dying moments of Thursday's Phi Delt game. Playing on a slippery field the Phi Psis time after time threatened to score but always the Terracemen stayed off the drive and took the ball on downs. Playing minus the services of Thompson, fleet halfback, the Phi Delt capitalized on their one and only crack from within scoring distance.

Having played literally with their backs to the wall for three quarters, the winners were given their chance on Vereeke's runback of a kick, ably assisted in a basketball manner by Haberman. All but dribbling the ball these two advanced to the one-foot line before the final toss to Parsons was downed. From that point Vereeke smashed tackle for the deciding score which gave the Phi Delt another opportunity to display their wares against the Sigs.

Golf.

With the deadline still a week away, the golf tourney took an upswing in participation with the result that all but the Delt and the Independents show some score. Most of the cards turned in, however, are only for nine holes, thus leaving another trip to the links yet to be made by many men.

Chi Rho's Lead.

Alpha Chi Rho takes the lead in number of 18 hole rounds posted with four men totaling 394. Phi Delta Theta records only one man with an 18 hole card which is Vereeke's second place 88. The Phi Gams possess two men, one of whom is Sedwick, holder of first place 82. Phi Psis likewise have only two completed rounds and the Sigs follow with three men totaling 299.

Phi Delt's Top Sigs.

Phi Delta Theta topped the Sigs Monday, 12-0, in a hard-fought game which brought forth the spectacular as well as the commonplace in touch-

FIGHT ON ALLEGHENY

By DICK TAYLOR

Last week's game with Hiram demonstrated the near collapse of the Allegheny football team. A team which was slated to go undefeated through its 1938 schedule, a team which had plenty of good football material, a team with ten returning lettermen. Some say the downfall is due to overconfidence, others say it is because of the lack of school spirit, but it appears now that the real cause is internal and deals with the methods used within this athletic group.

Two years, a Big Ten school was playing its third game of the season. They were winning but the opponents were gaining ground on a powerful offensive when the Big Ten school's star quarterback was injured on a play and had to be removed from the field. The coach looked down the bench endeavoring to find a substitute, but all he could see were untried men who he never had paid any attention to in practice, men who might have ability without his knowledge. His eyes finally lit on a big strapping quarterback who he had never seen play, might as well try him as any, the coach thought to himself and sent him in. He realized at that moment that a good first string eleven was not the most essential thing in winning football. He remembered that after the first few days of practice he had his varsity picked out and the other players were forgotten. Forgotten until now. Out on the field the substitute quarterback was making football history, his excellent team handling and wonderful defensive work made him the outstanding player of the game, and from that time on he was a first string player and in his senior year was an All-American.

The fans will support a team that fights with spirit, even though it loses. At the Hiram game, when the second half started with the 'Gator eleven made up mostly of second stringers, the Allegheny rooters were much more responsive to the cheerleaders' pleas, they were watching an inexperienced team, but a fighting team taking a drubbing but it didn't matter for they had the snap that the first team lacked.

The lack of spirit on the first team has been apparent in the last two games. The team seems to be fighting among themselves rather than fighting as a unit.

A famous coach once said, "A football player must fight with his teammates, not against them or for himself, and usually the cause of the dissention is an individual who does not fit in the line-up. If he doesn't change his tune, bench him until he learns to play as a member of a football machine and ace as a cog that won't alter the works."

Saturday, Allegheny faces Grove City in the Homecoming Game. Let's hope that some of this hidden ability which is apparent on our football squad will be featured in the line-up.

Scoring with seconds to play in the first half and repeating on the kickoff of the second period, the Phi Delt prolonged the tournament till Wednesday by their win.

Playing consistent ball, the victors used line plays as the basis of their attack while the Sigs banked on short tosses. The Phi Delt threatened strongly midway in the first half but four successive plays were swamped as the Sig line held fast. However, shortly after the S.A.E.'s took possession, Haberman intercepted and passed to St. Clair for the touchdown.

Again on the kickoff Vereeke zig-zagged through a broken field and finally flipped to Thompson who took the ball over for score number two. Immediately following this the Sig drove up the field only to be held inside the Phi's 20-yard line. From here on in the ball was moved back and forth with neither squad showing signs of scoring.

All-Star Teams to be Named.

Starting next week the Sports department of the Campus will place its collective self out on a limb and name the first of a series of Intramural all-star teams. The object of this innovation is to provide recognition for those fellows who do not play on the outstanding teams but nevertheless are fine sportsmen and good athletes. Watch this column next week for the theoretically perfect touch football team.

BOOTS AND SADDLE

Friday afternoon at 3:20, Sandy Charnecki, Mary Lou Williams, Mary Lou Gingenbach, Alice Eicher, Mary Graf, and Betty Lou McCurdy jumped into the saddle for Boots and Saddle Club tryouts. This coming Friday at the same time tryouts will be held for any others who were unable to come last Friday.

OUTING CLUB TRIP

The annual Fall trip for the club has been planned for October 29th at Warren. The 19th of November has been named as a tentative date for an outing to Grove City with Camp Fithian and the Grove City Club as hosts.

Litten-To-Me

By HELEN LITTEN

Allegheny came away from the Play Day at Grove City last Friday with flying colors. Seven schools were represented, and out of the three competitive events scheduled, Allegheny placed first in two. Tennis, archery and badminton were the highlights of the afternoon. Toby Sells and Peg McDowell were the Wills-Jacobs duet and Betty Buchanan and Betty Rehtmeyer the ace shots. After the swimming and bike-riding which were also included, but not as part of the competitive program, dinner was served in the Pew dormitory for girls. Those representing Allegheny were Betty Rehtmeyer, Betty Buchanan, Toby Sells, Peg McDowell, Marjorie Sheasley, and Helen Litten.

Pitt was the scene of another Play Day on Saturday when Allegheny was again well represented. Betty Rehtmeyer, Mickey Hand, Marjorie Sheasley, Betty Kroegher, Ruth Mary Kroft, and Helen Litten took part in the activities. The activities were not arranged on a competitive basis. Each team consisted of several girls from each school and enjoyment of the sport was the keynote of the program. Hockey, archery, volleyball, tennis, and swimming made up the list of events.

The archery tournament is becoming hot and furious with about half of those teams yet to play. So far Betty Buchanan has the highest score with 114 to her nearest opponent Dot Hickernell's 91. The tournament is due to close this week and the results should be interesting.

Hayride Success.

The Outing Club Hayride which was planned for last Tuesday night took place in a rather romantic setting. A nice full moon and a warm night helped the spirit of the outing, and the ghosts which were stationed at intervals along the road did what they could to make things interesting. Cider and doughnuts awaited the hayseeds at the cabin, and after singing and much merriment each one crowded in the truck and trundled his way to bed.

HOMECOMERS TO SEE ALMA MATER IN GRUDGE FIGHT

In an attempt to snap their two-game losing streak, Allegheny will seek their second win of the season when they meet Grove City here next Saturday. The game will be a part of the week-end Homecoming program and the Grovers will be seeking revenge for the defeat the local gridders handed them at the Grove City Homecoming last year.

'GATORS FALL BEFORE STRONG HIRAM ELEVEN

Fast Open Field Running Leads Hiram Terriers To a 38-0 Victory

Outplaying and outfighting a favored 'Gator eleven, Hiram Terriers defeated Allegheny, 38-0, before a Hiram Homecoming crowd last Saturday at Hiram. Time after time, Hiram's flashy backs swept thru and around the Allegheny line to make long gains which resulted in six touchdowns.

A play in the opening minutes of the game, when Cook was thrown for a five yard loss, seemed to take all the fight out of the 'Gator eleven. It was Hiram, the whole game, their defense stopped any half-hearted offensive bid of Allegheny and the Terrier's blocking mowed the visitors down in opening up holes for their ball carriers.

All of Hiram's touchdowns came as a result of beautiful open field runs. The first touchdown came early in the second quarter when Ward gathered in a punt on his own 35 yard line and scampered 65 yards for a touchdown, Russ placed-kicking the extra point. Another Hiram touchdown late in the first half, Ward's pass from Allegheny's 37 was good for 29 yards and McGaughey went over from the eight yard line and Russ kicked the extra point to make the half-time score 14-0.

Hiram's scoring machine slowed down in the third quarter, going scoreless, but in the final period again turned on their scoring power against a powerful but inexperienced Allegheny second team. Ward on a triple reverse ran 40 yards for his second touchdown. Hiram kicked off to Allegheny's 20 and on exchange of punts Allegheny gained the ball on their own 24 yard line. Martin Sinclair intercepted a pass to scamper 34 yards for a touchdown. With two minutes remaining, Ward's pass to Donington was good for 20 yards and a touchdown. In the final play of the game, Hiram kicked off to Allegheny, Hartwell taking the ball on his own 15 yard line. His attempted lateral to Duesing was intercepted by McLaughlin, Hiram tackle, who ran for the final touchdown.

The Freshmen have been organized under the following statistics: Team number one under the supervision of Dude Ochsenhirt has dubbed itself "The Red Devils", Nancy Martin was elected captain and Esther Martin was appointed to take charge of points. Team number two under Marjorie Wible is to be "The Red Peppers" with Betty Chappelle as captain and a chairman as yet to be appointed. Team number three under the tutelage of Ruth Mary Kroft has appointed as its captain Jean Chamberlain, Edith Euwer is to keep track of points. At present they are engaged in making tags for tournaments as a means of team identification. This ingenious crew has called itself "The Champs" with the proviso that it may change its moniker to "Chumps" should fortune turn against them in their undertakings. The fourth team under Jane Hartman, has selected "The Oranges" for their cognomen and Barbara Kough has been elected captain.

Continuing an age-old athletic rivalry, the game offers to be one of the season's outstanding contests for both teams. Not soon to be forgotten will be last year's game which Allegheny won 3-0, by virtue of a field goal from the educated toe of Horace "Red" Lavelly.

The down state boys boast a fine team this year both offensively and defensively. Much improved over last year, they will put a fast charging, alert, powerhouse on the field. Madelena and Deprima, tackles, Petach, center, Myers, guard, and Bilbri, end, will offer the locals plenty of competition on the line and Patterson and Bingham, both fine backs, will be scoring threats throughout the game.

Groves Down Hiram.

In a quick glance over the score book, we find Grove City defeating Hiram 15-13, while Hiram trampled the Allegheny 'gator to the tune of 38-0. These scores are meaningless, however, for anything might happen out there Saturday afternoon. Although "Cagey" Lawrence's men are the underdogs, they have an excellent chance of upsetting the dope bucket. In any event, the invaders are in for a very busy afternoon.

In spite of the injuries suffered in the Hiram game, Lavelly, Dugan and Duesing are expected to be on the field for the opening whistle. Elmer "Moose" Swanson, who was seriously injured in the Haverford game, may also be back in harness at his fullback position.

Sideline Slants

By HERB KOERNER

A backward jump in time shows two teams in Ohio fighting for supremacy; one the 'Gators and the other, the fighters from Hiram. The closing whistle showed that the 'Gators were sadly outdone by the score of 38-0. From a spectator's point of view, it seemed as though the 'Gators did not want to win, that the spirit and the drive necessary for victory could not be found.

The first and the third quarters were significant in the fact that the team almost reached a smoothly running gait, especially in the third quarter, when the 'Gators showed their greatest burst of energy and held their opponents and matched them gain for gain. Enumerating only two incidents that might give an insight on the game, the first one being the fumbling of the first kick of the game and the next being a lateral right into the arms of the opponents for a touchdown.

One of the causes that has probably contributed to the last two upsets against the 'Gators, is the fact that Elmer Swanson and his driving power are lacking in the pinches, and the hub in the Allegheny wheel of attack has thus been weakened.

The outlook for the homecoming game is not very bright. The Grove City team overthrew Hiram 15-13 and since we lost to Hiram 38-0, it gives Grove City, on paper, an advantage of 40 points. The Grove City outfit is as strong if not stronger than last year when the 'Gators defeated them 3-0 on the Grove City battlefield. As far as the game on Saturday goes, it is not as black as it seems. We have the men that can win the game and we are hoping that they will. If they will settle down and play as eleven men on a team, instead of each man fighting a lone battle, victory may be ours. The Grove City opponents want revenge for last year's beating, and are overconfident that they will get it. We hope that they will be surprised.

The old saying "all good things come to an end" should be revised to read "all good things come at the end—the week-end". On this modern campus it seems that the week days are merely build-ups for the jam sessions, parties, and plain fun from Friday to Sunday—at least that's the way the situation has been for the past few weeks.

Phi Gamma Delta.

The rhythmic beats of the tom-tom and the whooping war-cries, which rocked the Allegheny campus Saturday night, October 15, were traced to the Fiji boys, as they honored their pledges in the well-known Fiji Island party style. The Town Club sent forth its most barbaric notes. The "chief" of the party was Roy Uhlinger, '39. Dr. and Mrs. Cavelti were the chaps, and the guests of the evening were Arthur Bush, Richard Kresge, Bill Williams, '39.

Sunday dinner guests of Phi Gamma Delta were Coach and Mrs. Brickley, Mr. and Mrs. Dotterer, and Mr. Roger Brown.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Minerva smiled jubilantly upon her boys of S.A.E. on Saturday evening, October 15, as they honored their pledges with a bit of swingin'. Ken Morris' music spurred the dancers onward. Dr. State and Miss McMally were chaperones. Tom Crawford, '38, Jim Werle, '38, and Bill Jackson and Dave Snyder of Wabash College were guests. Knute Zahniser was chairman of the dance.

Alpha Chi Rho.

Take cornstalks, leaves, and "Snuffy Smith" drawings and mix well in the recipe the Chi Rho pledges followed, and the result was a radio party Friday evening at the chapter house. Not only was there entertainment in the way of tap dancing, but the jive music was replaced with square dancing, which made the cider and doughnuts only too welcome.

Alpha Chi Rho announces the initiation of Bernard Hamilton and James Baldwin, '41.

Phi Kappa Psi.

Phi Kappa Psi announces the pledging of Forrest Hewitt, '42, Robert Devine, '42, and Fred Davidson, '39.

Phi Delta Theta.

Mr. and Mrs. McVey, Mr. and Mrs. Schneek, Mr. and Mrs. Faloan, Dr. State, and Dr. Rhinesmith were guests of Phi Delta Theta at Sunday dinner.

Delta Tau Delta.

The best bands in the country supplied the music for the Deltas on Saturday evening, October 15. Coach and Mrs. Brickley kept the girls and boys in step, while Tom Hazlett, '39, Martha Cox of Kane, and Roger Brown of Erie, helped the Deltas swing in their guest capacity.

Alpha Gamma Delta.

Sweet strains and mellow notes flowed from Cochran Hall Saturday night, October 15, as the Alpha Gams in the company, paying fifty or seventy-five cents depending on the number of girls. At graduation the original fee will be refunded.

Convenience is the term stressed in connection with this proposition. It is expected that there will be a greater efficiency over previous years. A student business manager will oversee the wholesale buying and the voluntary help. The manager receives remuneration in proportion to the year's business. All articles, the brands determined by the members, will be sold at standard market prices.

During the last five years 160 college co-operatives have been organized, totaling an annual business of $2,700,000. The Harvard University book store is the largest in this class.

Insurance in Effect.

Blanket policies insuring personal property in the dormitories already have become effective. Betty Reht-meyer, '39, has negotiated with a Meadville insurance agency, Gelvin, Jackson and Starr.

A group policy amounts to $25,000, giving each of the fifty girls included a $500 coverage. Hullings residents pay forty-five cents per individual for the November 1-June 30 term. Cochran Hall is assessed $1.28, Tarbell $1.32, and Beebe, Hammett and Lee $2.08.

Homecoming Plans Are Completed

A.U.C. stated that the dance would begin at 9 and continue until 12. Students will be admitted by presenting their activities ticket, while the charge to alumni will be fifty cents a person.

Singers at Stone Church.

Sunday morning at 10:45 a. m., the Allegheny Singers will take part in the Stone church services. An organ recital will be presented by Mr. Edward H. Johe in Ford Memorial Chapel at 4. The vesper service, which will follow, is under the direction of the Allegheny Christian Council.

Dr. Donald T. Rowlingson, when interviewed, was optimistic concerning the program. "From present indications," he said, "Allegheny's 1938 Homecoming program promises to be one of the best we have had. We hope we have planned enough activities that the alumni may spend an enjoyable week-end with never a dull moment."

Forrest Foster, '39, of the Undergraduate Council committee in charge of Homecoming, stated:

"This year's Homecoming will be one of our best. The football game and the entertainment between the halves should be entertaining."

Members of the committee in charge of Homecoming are:

Forrest Foster, '39, Frances Batchelor, '39, and Velma Zwilling, '40.

squad will be chosen on the basis of this talk.

Women's Extemporaneous.

Topic for the Women's Extemporaneous Speaking contest, to be presented in chapel October 29, is: "Contemporary United States."

Entrants, one representative from each sorority and from the independent group, will select sub-topics related to this topic.

Detailed information concerning the contest will be released next week. The condition of Hurst R. Anderson, head of the speech department, who has been ill for several weeks, is reported to be improved. Professor Anderson anticipates an early return to the classroom.

Second Vesper Service Held

Sunday afternoons.

Subject of the first forum is: "Peace as it concerns the College Student".

Ensuing forums will be a discussion of the collaboration of science and religion and a consideration of religious creeds.

The third project planned by the A.C.C. is assistance in the Lenten services conducted by Dr. Tolley. The A.C.C. will arrange for the students to usher and take charge of the worship service.

Three Weeks' Preparation.

The contestants were told three weeks ago what the general subject was, but not until forty minutes before chapel were they informed of their specific subject.

Judging on the basis of content, organization, and delivery, Dr. John Cavelti, Dr. Louis Long, and Mr. Paul Cares numbered the contestants in order of their abilities. Contestants who had the lowest composite scores were declared the winners.

"Is Advertising the Truth, the Whole Truth, and Nothing but the Truth?" was the subject of Richard Miller, '41, representing Phi Delta Theta. James Gettamy, '41, of Alpha Chi Rho, was given as his subject "How Much Does Radio Advertising Affect the Housewife?" Edward McCaulay, '42, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, discussed "Do Consumers Like to Be Fooled?" and Gerald Stoner, '42, of the Independents, spoke on "How Much More Advertising Will the Public Stand For?"

Special effort will be made to give the individual listener opportunity to find his particular musical tastes, and to advise him as to what recordings are best suited to him.

Delicacy of the equipment requires that it be handled with extreme care. Playing of the recordings will therefore be entrusted to N.Y.A. students who will be in the listening room at all regularly scheduled periods.
