Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thank you very much for your wire.
It will be perfectly all right for you to arrive on Saturday. However, I would like one or two short sketches not to exceed one hundred or one hundred and fifty words each on the following subjects; Unknown or Little-Known Interesting Facts or Incidents Concerning Lincoln, or Recent Discoveries of Popular Interest Concerning Lincoln (that is, any new facts which may have been uncovered in the past few years).

In other words, just a few interesting and related points which the program writers may develop into an intensely fascinating four or five minute talk for you to deliver.

I should like to have this material in my hands before Tuesday if at all possible.

If there is any further question please be good enough to wire or write me on receipt of this letter.

Thank you very much for your splendid cooperation. Mr. Lengel sends his very warm regards.

Sincerely,

Carlisle Smyth
