

My dear friend
I am at Fieldmore for a few days - came over Friday afternoon. Am settled in my room in the north west corner of the third floor; the room I had first last summer. I spent all day yesterday in my room. Only for meals and massage. After dinner I spent a short time visiting with some of the ladies I knew last summer and getting acquainted with others.
The house is quite full ten ~~more~~ ^{more} ones came yesterday.
The Abbot came over from town last night and sat with me at my little table this morning for breakfast.
She is visiting her mother but doesn't wish to make them any trouble so she will be here.

nights. Mrs Fletcher is going home with Mrs Hockingbaugh (don't know as I've spelt that. Name right) but she is going to Chicago soon she. Mrs Fletcher is still very feeble.

Lara came over here Friday with me and then went back I expect her to stay for dinner -

It seems very silly and foolish for me to come here, but I really was tired and needed something to stop that Latica. I think I will get it here. The new (messuage is very fine I think: she has the Hilltop methods. has been in Buffalo for some time. The place where she was there was burned down. That was why I got her.

This is one of the most ideal mornings I ever saw. A breeze from last night cleared the air. and this morning (the sunshine and cool air) is fine. I took a long walk after breakfast - then took and oil and as the Miss - is going to be away tomorrow. I think I will go home tomorrow morning for an hour or two. Help to pass the time. I find the people pleasant. but they are all young and have their own pleasures and pastimes. and I do not wish to join in some of them Mrs Crawford (Lion Bronson) is here. so is Mrs Sterrett. she has been there all summer. W. G. C.

McKinney is here. The guests say he made some changes for the better when he came. The table and Service is good. Things are running far better than last year. The house has been full all summer.

Where are the bills. Did Ella go back to Christmas Eve after Will left? I have had so much to do that I have found it nearly impossible to write letters, was to find most of the time.
The new girl is, I hope, going to prove quite good I am pleasant and willing and want to learn - Cards from Will told of his sailing. I was rather late with my letter so I sent it to Peter James as he told us - I shall write again this week.
I wish you could hear a mess of my jottings. They are good - I be a fight with the sparrows for some things.
write often, Love
