Putnam, Conn.,

August 22, 1904.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Some weeks since I received a proof-copy of your new preface or chapter of your Life of Lincoln. It is excellent, as well as comprehensive and I like it much. I fail to perceive wherein it should be improved.

I am sending herewith a copy of my address when Lincoln lectured; and I want you to tell me how much I vary from the eyewitness. I also inclose three views of the general house where Lincoln was.

With my personal regards

Gilbert A. Tracy.

P.S. Letter and photos in envelope.
