

June 3, 1899.

Mr. Cheney, Librarian, War Department Library,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Cheney,

I am sending back four of your volumes. I think that this is all I have. Will you not be good enough to look on your books and see if this clears up the account? If there is anything else kindly let the bearer know.

Very sincerely yours,