Dear Mr. Case:

How fine to know that you and Josephine are back. I do hope I can see you soon.

As to Mr. Young's letter the queries in it can wait his convenience of course.

After more delays than I expected it looks as if the book manuscript would be ready for the printer by the middle of February. I am hoping that you will have the goodness to read it - saving me from errors and indescretions. I would rather you would take it as a whole rather than by chapters.

With love to Josephine

Faithfully yours
