

Delineator

BUTTERICK BUILDING
NEW YORK

OFFICE OF THE EDITOR

March 1st, 1928

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I think your article is splendid. It's honest, courageous and interesting.

Check will be sent you through Paul Reynolds which, as I understand it, is the correct procedure.

And now, (what an annoyance an editor can be?) could you possibly arrange to be at the photographer's, Alfred Cheney Johnson, 1 West 67th Street, tomorrow morning at eleven-thirty.

Will you telephone me about this in the morning.

As always, sincerely,

Oscar Graeve
Editor

Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 East 19th Street
New York City