New York City

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Forty business and professional women's clubs in the city of New York band together each year for a Friendship Dinner. This year it is to be on November 17th and the American Women's Association will be hostess.

All of the fifty women selected by you as the most distinguished women in America are being invited to be present. At the same time the Central Committee for the Friendship Dinner, of which Mrs. Sara DeForest is chairman, is appointing a committee of judges who will select the woman who has done the most distinguished service during the past year, with the idea of giving her a medal at the dinner on November 17th. We are asking you and three other well known American women to act as the committee of judges.

Will you serve in this connection? It would be very pleasing to the business and professional women of the city if you would and I think you would be a real aid in having the woman who really deserves such an award, selected.

May I hope to hear from you at your earliest possible convenience?

Sincerely yours,

Pauline S. Maude
