Mr. Emanuel Hertz
17 West 71st St.
New York City

Dear Mr. Hertz:

The letters of Bayard Taylor that I dealt with in my book are all in the Huntington Library collection and make a complete record of the entire lot. I am sorry to say that there was no such letter as you ask about. It certainly would be interesting to find it. There were several references to Lincoln and the politics that surrounded the appointment of Cameron as ambassador to Russia. These were printed in my book "The Unpublished Letters of Bayard Taylor". Mr. Sandburg used some of this material in his "War Years". I am sorry not to be of help to you.

By the way, you may not know what I am sure you will be interested in that Miss Ida Tarbell, an alumna of the college, has given all her Lincoln materials to the college. We are fitting up an attractive room to contain this collection. We hope to have everything in order and installed by commencement. I hope that you will be able to come and visit us and see this room.

Sincerely yours,

J. R. Schultz
