My dear Miss Tarbell:

I have your letter of November 25th and this morning your little book on Abraham Lincoln arrived safely. I appreciate it very much,especially with your inscription. I shall certainly read it with interest.

I am glad you feel that anything I could say was helpful to you in your preparation of the "Life of Owen D. Young". I realize that you might like to quote me by name but I am very clear that you should not. I am sure you will understand the reason and I know that Mr. Young will understand it.

Please call on me if there is anything further that I can do.

Very sincerely yours,

Frank W. Stearns
