

HIRAM ELEVEN NO MATCH FOR ALLEGHENY SATURDAY—SCORE, 51 TO 0

Allegheny Ran Up the Largest Score of the Season in the First Home Game—Second Team Substituted in Last Half.

Allegheny's first home game in football, with Hiram College, on Montgomery Field last Saturday, added one more victory to the still unbroken record of the season, when, with every condition favorable for the game the Allegheny team carried the day over their opponents by the score 51 to 0. Throughout the entire play there could be little doubt as to which side would be the victors, for Allegheny's playing in every quarter of the game was faster, surer, and quite in a different class from that of the Ohio team. Only once in the early part of the first quarter, when the Hiram team effected a good forward pass, was there even a reasonable show against the Allegheny team, for the rest of the game was in Hiram territory entirely, and when two touchdowns were made with comparative ease in the first quarter it was decided then as to the outcome.

The Hiram team played good football, considering the team is almost entirely new this year, but they were not enough of a unit to work effectively against the other side. The star for their team was easily the left half.

For Allegheny every man played a good game and was a star. The line was a stone wall on the defence and a battering ram on the offence. Hiram never made first down through the line and was forced to rely on forward passes for practically all of her gains. Allegheny, on the other hand, seemed to be able to gain at will on line plunges, for at the proper time the line cleared holes large enough for a team of horses to pass through. It is impossible to say who played the best game on the line, for all played together rather as a machine than as individuals. Both ends were well taken care of by Pierson, '16, Askey, '17, Smith, '18, and Dundon, '16. Pierson showed himself especially capable in breaking up interference and getting the runners. Several times Hiram's backs were thrown behind the line for large losses.

The backfield played as nearly perfect football as it is possible to play. Many of the runs made were, to say the least, brilliant. Cox and Arnold were responsible for several large gains of over 20 yards. Munhall starred especially in line-plunges and contributed two touch-downs. Bash ran well with the ball and gained much ground on forward passes. Metcalf, although he ran with the ball but three times, contributed much to the aid of the other backs by his excellent interference.

What the game lost in interest by reason of the lack of opposition from Hiram was more than made up for by the excellence of the playing of the Gold and Blue and by the number of new men who played their first 'varsity ball. In the last quarter every man on the first team was replaced by a member of the second team so that the lists of substitutes reads more like a census report than a part of a football summary. Smith, '18, at end took Askey's place at the beginning of the second half and made an exceptionally fine showing for the first appearance on the 'varsity. Burns, '16, Witter, '18, and Curry, '16, all played well on the line. Of the substitutes in the backfield, McKay, '16, at half showed up best. On his first play he made 9 yards on a hard line buck and later carried the ball over for a touch-down. He is sure to be of use later in the season. Miller, '17, at full played well until he was forced by an injury to retire.

The game by quarters:

First Quarter.

Kramer kicked off for Allegheny. Henry caught the ball for Hiram and returned it 15 yards to the 45-yard line. The first play, a forward pass from Vaughn to Roberts at end, netted 22 yards and gave Hiram first down. The next play gained nothing. Snow was thrown for a loss of 10 yards. A forward pass on the third down was incomplete and Hiram was forced to kick. Trotter's punt went out of bounds and the ball went to Allegheny on the 17-yard line. Munhall made 3 yards through the line. Kramer kicked to mid-field. Trotter lost 3 yards, a forward pass failed, another worked and gave Hiram first down again. Hiram was penalized 5 yards for off-side play and attempted a forward pass which was intercepted by Arnold. Three line-backs by Arnold, Bash and Munhall in rapid succession brought first down. Munhall made 5 yards, Arnold 2, and Munhall 2½. On the fourth down Kramer kicked to mid-field. Vaughn, who caught the ball, was able to gain nothing. Trotter was thrown for a loss of 5 yards on an attempted end-run and kicked to Cox. Cox made 5 yards and Munhall 1 through the line. On a beautiful end-run Arnold made first down with 6 yards to spare. On two line-backs, one for 5 yards and the other for 15, Arnold carried the ball within 10 yards of the goal-line. Bash made 4 yards, Munhall 3, and on the fourth down after Bash failed to advance on the third down, the necessary 3 yards for the first touch-down. Munhall's attempt at goal failed. Score, Allegheny 6, Hiram 0.

Kramer kicked off to Vaughn who returned the ball 10 yards before he was tackled. On an attempted end-run Hiram fumbled and Arnold recovered the ball for Allegheny. Cox made 8 yards around end and Arnold 5 through the line. Cox again circled end for 3 yards. On the next play Allegheny made her first attempt of a forward pass which netted 15 yards. Cox to Pierson. Hiram made the first substitution of the game—Perkins for Roberts. Bash bucked the line for 1 yard and on the next play Arnold scored the second touch-down on a long end-run. Cox "kicked out" to Munhall who again failed to kick goal. Score, Allegheny 12, Hiram 0.

Kramer kicked off again. Trotter returned the ball to Hiram's 23-yard line. A forward pass failed. Trotter on a fake-kick made first down around end. Pierson threw Snow for a loss of 2 yards. Time ended with the ball in Hiram's possession on her 25-yard line. Score, Allegheny 12, Hiram 0.

Second Quarter.

Roberts took Perkins place. On the first play a forward pass failed. Trotter kicked high and short. Cox signalled for a "fair catch" but fumbled the ball which was recovered by Hiram. After one forward pass had failed, Arnold intercepted another, giving the ball to Allegheny. Cox made 3 yards around end. Allegheny was penalized 15 yards for holding. Cox made 10 yards and Kramer kicked. It was a 50-yard punt and rolled to Hiram's 20-yard line where it was put in play. Trotter kicked out of bounds and the ball went to Allegheny at the center of the field. On two line plunges Arnold and Bash made first down. Munhall made 4 yards and a forward pass, Cox to Bash, netted 8. Three downs failed to advance the ball and on the fourth Cox tried a drop-kick for goal. The kick was short and was caught by Trotter who was tackled so hard that he was injured and forced to leave the game. Perkins took his place. Hiram was playing on her 7-yard line and Henry kicked on the first play. Munhall caught the ball and returned to the 25-yard line. Two line backs by Munhall and Arnold gave first down. Arnold and Bash made short

MODERN PROBLEMS CLUB HEARS MR. REYNOLDS

Mayor of Meadville Speaks on "Commission Form of Government."

A meeting of exceptional interest and practical value was held by the Modern Problems Club in Cochran Hall last Tuesday evening, when the Hon. John C. Reynolds, mayor of Meadville, addressed the club on a question still new in Meadville and one which has been presented to this group of college students before from a different standpoint—the municipal plan of government for Pennsylvania cities of the third class.

A short business meeting was called for six o'clock and after this the members adjourned to the private dining room, where, with Mayor J. C. Reynolds, President W. H. Crawford, and Professor W. C. Heffner as its guests, the club had dinner. After the dinner was over, Mayor Reynolds was introduced as the speaker of the evening.

The question which was discussed last Tuesday evening was the same one that had been presented at the meeting before when Mr. M. O. Brown, '91, outlined the history of the municipal government law in Pennsylvania, showing the vital part that had been played in the forming of the law by Meadville men. Mayor Reynolds' talk was more from the standpoint of one who has had actual experience with the subject. His talk was very informal and clear and pointed out the main things of interest in the working of the law as it pertains to Meadville. His speech in part is given below.

It was in the year 1889 that an act of the State Legislature classified the cities above ten thousand into three separate classes. Of the first class, those of one million population, Philadelphia is the only one in Pennsylvania. Of the second class, those above five hundred thousand, Pittsburgh is the only one. All the other cities above ten thousand are in the third class. The Clark Bill, which was outlined by Mr. Brown last month, was passed in the State Legislature in 1913, bringing all third class cities under the commission form of city government. This bill became a law December 1, 1913, and at that time Meadville adopted the new system.

Looking at the bill impartially there are several decided advantages and several disadvantages. Probably what in actual practice is the weakest or possibly most impractical point is the lack of responsibility on any one member of the commission. This tends naturally to inefficiency and is decidedly awkward in that none can be held responsible for the work to be carried out. For instance, the city policemen are elected and appointed by the council as a whole and as such are responsible only to the whole body. This defect could have been foreseen and remedied by a slight modification of the law, arranging that each commissioner should appoint and discharge the men in the employ of the city directly under his department. In this way he would be responsible for the conduct of the men in that department and could be easily reached or replaced if necessary in case of inefficiency.

On the other hand a decided advantage in the new law is the fact that by means of the commission government national party politics are entirely eliminated from municipal affairs.

Still further, the idea of modification could have been carried out in the city manager plan. This is really the natural and common sense method of governing a city. It stands to reason that one man can run a city better than five. That is, centralization of responsibility naturally tends to more satisfactory results by means of the control of one man. The commissioners can not afford to devote the time required by their positions for the salary that goes with the office. Under the city manager plan, this fault would also be eliminated.

GLEE CLUB CHOSEN

Announcement of the Personnel of the Club Made Last Week.

With the announcement this week of the men chosen to fill vacancies on the Glee Club, the final personnel of this popular college organization is completed for the year. Practices have been going on in a general way for the last three weeks, but with the final move in determining the members of the club, practices will be held oftener and in a more definite way for the preparation of the club's program than in the first weeks of competition.

The new men on the club as announced by the leader, R. H. Downing, '15, are: First tenor, C. H. Hodgkinson, '17, R. A. Phillips, '18, and A. M. Shenefelt, '17; second tenor, W. J. Hutchison, '18; first bass, E. H. Middleton, '18; second bass, R. L. Mitchell, '18.

The number of new men who made places on the club this year is unusually small, owing in the first place, to the fewer vacancies made by graduation last year when only two Seniors left the club and but four other places were left vacant by men not returning to school.

No definite program has as yet been announced by the manager, J. B. Hutchinson, '15, but arrangements are under way to have the opening concert sometime in November. Owing to the Centennial Celebration next June taking up the entire Commencement week, it has been decided that the Glee Club will not give its annual Commencement concert but will probably make up during the year this regular concert on the hill. The entire personnel is as follows:

First Tenor—R. J. Tuttle, '17; R. E. Hoffman, '16; S. L. Sheets, '16; C. H. Hodgkinson, '17; A. M. Shenefelt, '17; R. A. Phillips, '18.

Second Tenor—W. L. Scott, '16; P. B. Wolf, '16; L. Pappenhagen, '15; F. B. Doane, '17; W. E. McConnell, '17; J. B. Hutchinson, '16; W. J. Hutchison, '18.

First Bass—T. F. Smith, '15; L. J. Dundon, '16; F. H. Sanner, '16; R. P. Koehler, '15; M. J. Mellon, '15; E. H. Middleton, '18.

Second Bass—R. H. Downing, '15; C. M. Miller, '17; E. V. Askey, '17; H. L. Askey, '15; M. R. Palmer, '15; R. L. Mitchell, '18.

Pianist—W. A. Ellis, '16.

DR. THOMPSON ADDRESSED THOBURN CLUB, THURSDAY

Well Known Theologian Spoke to Members on a Timely Subject.

About twenty members of Thoburn Club were present at the meeting in the Chapel Oratory last Thursday evening when Professor William J. Thompson, Ph.D., LL.D., of Drew Theological Seminary, addressed the club. Dr. Wood, of the Bible department, was in charge of the evening's program and had secured Dr. Thompson, a personal friend of his, to speak in his place. Dr. Thompson discussed the various names given ministers, such as pastor, divine, etc., and their significance and origin in the work of the church. He also talked on the practical value of specialization in the preparation for the ministry in the way of theological training, and urged on every member the necessity of Seminary training in present day ministry.

The chairman of the committee on the arrangement of program, H. E. Drake, '16, has announced several speakers including, Dr. W. H. Wood, of the faculty, and Dr. C. L. E. Cartwright, of Pittsburgh. Arrangements are being made to make the Thoburn Club one of the most influential clubs on the hill. Some of this year's meetings will be spent in live, interesting discussions among the members themselves.

Mrs. L. S. Crann, of Davenport, Iowa, who is the national inspector of Alpha Chi Omega, was a guest at the Hall for a few days last week.

CAMPUS BEING PLANTED WITH MANY FINE SHRUBS

Allegheny's Campus Will Look More Beautiful in Centennial Year.

An interesting announcement was made in Chapel last Wednesday morning by President Crawford, when he explained the purpose of the numerous holes that have been dug around the college buildings and on the campus during the past week and which have been the cause of much comment and conjecture. He said that at the Modern Problems dinner the evening previous, Mayor Reynolds, of Meadville, had said that he had been a student in Harvard at the time the Harvard shrubs were first set out, which have since come to be recognized as a very distinctive part of the Harvard yard. Dr. Crawford announced that the plan for Allegheny was of a similar nature. The campus is to be set out with shrubs and hedges this fall as a distinctive Centennial Year addition to the natural beauty of Allegheny in the hope that they will be at their best at the time of the celebration next June.

The general plan of the planting of the new shrubs was made by Dr. Darling, head of the Biology Department, who has had considerable experience in landscape gardening. The planting has been done under the direction of Dr. Darling and President Crawford. This improvement was the suggestion of Mr. F. A. Arter, '63, President of the Board of Trustees, and Mrs. Sarah B. Cochran, of Dawson, and comes out of the General Improvement Fund of the college.

Already seven hundred shrubs have arrived and been planted, and three hundred more are to come later. The shrub that is to be trained into a hedge at the edge of the cement walks leading to the various buildings is Japanese honeysuckle. The large bushes used in the cluster beds are syringas and Japanese barberries. There are also seventy-five bushes of spiraea and a number of bushes of golden bells, a very beautiful and rather unusual flowering shrub that blooms very early in the spring. The banks of the roadway by Ruter are to be planted with osier, which is a mass of red blossoms when in bloom and particularly attractive foliage. Ruter Hall itself is to be covered with Boston ivy.

The large beds which have been dug by the stone wall at the end of the campus on North Main are to be filled with sumac. The triangular beds at the intersection of the walks by Bentley and by the Chapel are very attractive in the unusual shape of the beds and appearance of the shrubs when not in bloom—dark green foliage and a reddish bark, in striking contrast to the rest of the shrubs around.

The square plot on North Main below the Gymnasium is to be planted as a natural grove. Several varieties of trees are to be planted in it, particularly catalpas, sycamores and Norway maples, and next spring several evergreens and spruces.

The three-trunked willow tree, at the intersection of the Library walk and the road, by the side of Bentley, which was so badly damaged by the wind during the summer, is to be covered with ivy.

The upper end of the ravine above the boiler house is to be cleared and laid out in beds of flowers and shrubbery. The boiler house itself is to be covered with ivy.

NOVEMBER 3, 1914.

With the planting of seven hundred shrubs and trees during the past week, an element of beauty has been added to our campus which will be fully appreciated next spring when nature awakens them to new life. This improvement is in keeping with the new power house, which is a thing of beauty admired by every one who has an eye for fine architecture. Allegheny's campus is known far and wide for its exquisite natural beauty, and these new additions bring to a point of perfection the grounds which seemed to lack little of being the most beautiful campus in this part of the country.

An improvement like this will be fully appreciated by the students who are yet to come, and they will look back with grateful hearts to the time when college authorities possessed of a fine esthetic sense have prepared and handed down this beautiful legacy to them.

Another evidence of real Allegheny spirit was the purchase of blankets for the football team by contributions from Real Spirit. the various organizations of the college. Such a recognition for a team playing the game as ours is this year was, indeed, appropriate. May there be such spirit manifested throughout the year.

AFFIRMATIVE WINS IN DEBATE AT FORUM.

The regular Forum meeting last week was taken up with a debate on the subject: "Resolved, that mail order houses are a benefit to the public." The affirmative of the question was represented by H. J. Hartman, '15, and H. I. Titus, '18, and the negative by R. A. Bladell, '16, and G. E. Engstrom, '18. The vote of the members was twenty to seven in favor of the affirmative. A great many of the members took part in the general discussion which followed the regular debate.

The debate for next week will be on the question: "Resolved, that the concurrence of three-fourths of a jury rather than of the whole number, should constitute a verdict." On the affirmative, D. G. Dunbar, '15, and J. G. Castle, '18. On the negative, L. D. Kepner, '17, and P. R. Bellows, '18.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING LED BY O. J. GRAHAM, '15

The regular Y. M. C. A. meeting of last Wednesday evening was unusual in two respects—first, the unusually good leadership and thought presented, and second, the rather small attendance in view of what had been announced before hand.

The leader of the meeting was O. J. Graham, '15, and the talk he gave was one of the most forceful and up-to-date that has been given in any of the meetings this year. He chose as a topic thought, "Christian Ideals in Athletics," and in developing it brought out three distinct things. The first was, ethically man is a religious creature and to him religion is natural. In this matter Allegheny is up to if not above the average of colleges as standing for Christian ideals. A man brought up in a Christian family and taught in Christian standards of thought does not have to chose a college that will undermine his early teachings. A Christian college does not separate a man from Christian ideals.

The second thought emphasized was that according to popular impression of the two classes in college, those not as good as they seem to be, and those not as bad as they seem to be, the successful and typical athlete must belong to the latter, that is, to be a good athlete a man must be a rough neck. In this same class are those who want to appear tough to be popular. They are not as bad as they seem. But the danger in the thing is that some time such a man must take his definite stand for good or bad. If he chooses for good his chances are good for making something out of himself. If he chooses the other way, the tendency as shown from experience is that he will rank as a fifth rater in his line.

With the idea that an athlete must be a rough neck, is the idea that Christianity and athletics are different and cannot be united. In striking contrast to this belief is the example of F. O. Cutz, a former Harvard football star, and at present secretary of the Buhl Club in Sharon. This man unites his practical Christianity with his work in athletics. In refereeing a high school football game at Sharon this year, he told both sides before the game that there would be no dirty tricks and no swearing permitted in the game, and the man caught doing so would be immediately disqualified. The game opened fast and all through it there was never a time when a player on either side broke over in either of the condemned faults. He believed in football as a character building game and yet never once did he separate the game from practical Christianity.

A very enjoyable feature of the evening was a sacred solo by T. F. Smith, '15.

ROCHESTER SENIOR PRESIDENT COMMENDS ALLEGHENY'S TEAM

During the past week a letter has been received that will be of unusual interest to Alleghenians. The letter came to an under-classman from the president of the Senior class at the University of Rochester. Several quotations, those of the greatest interest, are here printed:

"Allegheny put up one good game against the 'varsity and deserved to win, even by a larger score. This is the first time since I have been connected with the University that a college in our class has beaten us. Never has Hamilton, Union, Hobart, St. Lawrence, or any of the smaller colleges beaten us. Of course we have been yearly trimmed by Syracuse and Colgate but they are not in our class. . . . We fully expected to beat you fellows. . . . Allegheny is getting much commendation for the good, clean bunch of fellows on the team and the brand of clean football they put up. Its the best advertisement a college can put out."

The letter bears ample testimony to the fact that Rochester admires and respects Allegheny and the type of men that represent her in athletics, but it tells only one-half of the story. The feeling of respect and admiration is mutual. Every one of the men that have been on teams which have visited Rochester has returned with only words of the highest praise for the treatment which they have received at the hands of both players and rooters. Seldom indeed, are the relations that exist between rivals in all activities—forensic and athletic—so friendly and close.

MASQUERADE IN HULINGS HALL.

On Saturday evening the Y. W. C. A. gave a masquerade for the college girls in the gymnasium at Hulings Hall. The guests all came in fantastic costume, and by eight o'clock a strange company of witches, fairies, ghosts and clowns could be seen dancing around the gym to the music of the new victrola, or bobbing for apples. Late in the evening, after enjoying ice cream and cake, the witches and spooks gave some college songs and yells and vanished.

President Sawvel, of Thiel College, was present at Chapel Tuesday morning.

QUILL CLUB MEETS

"Literati" of Allegheny Hold First Meeting in the Library.

The first Quill Club meeting of the year was held in the Quill Club room last Thursday evening. It is customary that the first meeting of the year be in charge of the editors of The Campus and Literary Monthly, but in the enforced absence of Miss Lucile Lippitt, '15, editor of the Literary Monthly, her paper was read by Miss Arlene McKinney, '15, and C. L. Mulfinger, '15, editor of The Campus, presided.

Miss Lippitt's paper, read by Miss McKinney, was on the life and work of Mary Antin, the Russian Jewess, whose autobiographical book, entitled, "The Promised Land," was first published in the Atlantic Monthly and drew forth so much favorable comment from the critics of America. Miss Lippitt dealt with the early life of this interesting personality in a very clear and pleasing way, touching on the life of the peasant class in Russia and the intense longing of this uneducated Jewess to come to America, the promised land, of her subsequent education here, her life in Radcliffe College, and finally of her place today as one of the foremost of American women writers.

Following this Mr. Mulfinger read a paper on the proposed Student Senate for Allegheny, a thing talked of last year in connection with the Honor System, but never definitely acted upon. The paper brought out the reasons why the student body should have their own senate to act in matters pertaining to the student body. The argument of the writer was supplemented with parts of communications from other schools regarding Student Senates in those schools, and pointing out the marked advantages to be gained from such a body. The paper brought forth much comment and discussion from the members present and the subject was thoroughly "aired," pro and con.

Miss Rowley brought up the matter of making it one of the duties of the club to look after the files of college publications, that is to aid the librarian in completing broken volumes of The Campus and Literary Monthly, and if possible, to keep a complete file of these publications as Quill Club property. A number of the issues of the first volume of The Campus, of 1876, were passed around and commented on.

Ice cream and wafers were served.

COCHRAN HALL DINERS CELEBRATE HALLOWE'EN

A big dinner was served to the Cochran Hall boarders Saturday evening to celebrate both Hallowe'en and the victory over Hiram. Steward Klingensmith, '16, and Jim Skillen, the chef, did themselves proud in the effort to put out one of the best dinners ever served in Cochran Hall. When the doors were thrown open about seventy students were on hand and lost no time in getting started on the first of the five courses.

Professors Smith, Conant and Heffner were the guests of the evening and after dinner they were called upon for speeches as were Klingensmith, '16, and Megahan, '18, president of the Freshman class. Following this impromptu program a few yells were given and the Allegheny songs sung, after which most of the men went down to the bowlings alleys where the evening was spent in a bowling tournament.

LE PETIT SALON ORGANIZED.

A business meeting of Le Petit Salon was held in the parlors of Hulings Hall last Monday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. The meeting was opened by the president, Miss Lucille Lippitt, '15. Miss Dortha Angove, '16, was elected as treasurer to fill a vacancy. Also several new members were voted in. After the business was transacted several selections were played on the victrola and the meeting closed with the singing of "The Marseillaise."

The following is a list of the new members:

Miss Helen Gates, '16, Miss Helen MacKenzie, '16, Miss Gertrude Shea, '17, Miss Olga Baird, '17, Miss Tillie Bitler, '16, Miss Daphne Harper, '16, Miss Alice Hawkey, '16, Miss Helen Wing, '15, E. B. ## UNIVERSITY of PITTSBURG

THE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

The School of Medicine of the University of Pittsburgh offers two courses of instruction—one the regular four-year all medical course leading to the degree of M. ### NEWS ITEMS

Wednesday is the last day for Senior thesis subjects and outlines.

Roy H. Uhlinger, '10, has received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy this fall from the Mellon Institute of the University of Pittsburgh.

The Tingley Biological Club, which meets semi-monthly in Ruter Hall, has changed its meeting from Monday to Tuesday night. The first meeting to come under this change will be held this evening.

The Freshman caps have at last made their appearance on the campus. These caps are like those of last year's Freshman class in shape. In color, however, they are different, since in addition to the yellow yarn ball on the top of the green cap there is a yellow stripe around the base of the cap. Even the weather conspired against the Freshman class, since the weather which had been warm until the arrival of the caps at once became colder.

Professor W. J. Thompson, head of the department of Philosophy in the Drew Theological Seminary, who was a visitor to the college last Thursday evening and made a very interesting talk to the Thoburn Club, was forced to catch a train at a very early hour Friday and was not able to address the student body at the Chapel services. This is much to be regretted since Professor Thompson is a very interesting speaker and is an authority in his line of work.

Since the 'varsity does not play next Saturday several efforts have been made to have a game on that date. Assistant Manager Ling, '16, has been negotiating with Edinboro Normal and Slippery Rock Normal for a game with the second team. No definite reply has been received as yet. If such a game cannot be arranged the Freshmen will play the Sophomores. All men who have participated in a 'varsity game will be barred from this contest.

A very enthusiastic assembly period was held in Chapel Friday morning, under the direction of the Glee Club leader, R. H. Downing, '15, and the college cheerleader, E. A. Robinson, '15. The morning was given over to the practice first of the college hymns in the hymnal, and afterwards to practicing college yells and songs for the Hiram game last Saturday afternoon. A special effort was made to rouse all Allegheny spirit possible for the first home game, and the songs and yells at the game showed that the effort was a decided success.

NEW BLANKETS FOR THE TEAM.

One of the features of the Hiram game was the appearance of the team in their new blankets. The money for the blankets was raised by popular subscription from the different fraternities and groups in college. They are six feet square made of wool, gold in color with a large block 'A' in blue and bound in blue. They are handsome and the team makes a fine showing in them.

The number of medical schools has been reduced in the United States from 162 in 1910 to 115 at present.

What is considered to be the finest gymnasium in the South is now in process of erection at Washington and Lee.

Hulings Hall

Dr. G. T. Reynolds, of Pittsburgh, visited his daughter, Miss Caryl Reynolds, '15, on Friday.

Miss Mildred Hazen, '17, has been elected as the Annual Field Member of the Y. W. C. A.

The members of Biology III and V held a "dog roast" on Friday evening. They were chaperoned by Dr. and Mrs. Darling.

The active members of Alpha Gamma Delta entertained their gentleman friends at an informal dinner party held at the Hotel Halsey on Friday evening.

The Misses Bernice Thoburn, '16, Dorothea Abrams, '15, Esta Ebaugh, '15, Kathryn Fowler, '15, and Alice Hawkey, '16, attended a missionary convention held in Buffalo, N. Y., the latter part of the week.

The week-end guests at the Hall were Miss Ella Allgood, of New Castle, the guest of Miss Ruth Allgood, '16; Miss Barbara Beatty, of Oil City, of Miss Marguerite Beatty, '16; Miss Ernestine Whipple, of Oil City, of Miss Charlotte Whipple, '16.

Monday evening was "Pay Night" at the Hall. The different classes, according to custom, were dressed in various costumes. The Freshmen first entered the gymnasium, where the affair was held. They were dressed to represent different Mother Goose characters. Next came the Sophomores in "Witch" costumes, accompanied by four huge cats. The Juniors, representing Spaniards, followed and then came the Seniors representing their college generation as they had appeared at all the Washington's Birthday banquets. Class spirit was then shown by the different classes giving their yells. A pleasant social time was afterwards spent. The young ladies proceeded to pay their bills, for which this social was held.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting Sunday night was in charge of Miss Helen MacKenzie, '16, who had as her subject, "Mountains of Every Day Life." In an interesting manner the leader outlined some of the "mountains" in daily life which must be overcome in order to grow in character and in the grace of God. Following this a number of the girls gave short talks on the subject. Miss Adelaide Singley, '18, sang a pleasing solo.

Instead of having the regular prayer meetings on Wednesday evenings, the Y. W. C. A. girls have been organized into Bible Study classes which meet every Wednesday evening under the leadership of the Misses Faye Barnes, '15, Emma Waring, '16, Harriette Bassett, '15, Margaret Simpson, '15, Caryl Reynolds, '15, Ruth Nebinger, '15, Leone Rial, '16, Dorothea Abrams, '15, and Jeanette Robinson, '15.

On his first play on the 'varsity McKay hit the line hard and came within a foot of shoving the ball over for the touch-down which was made on the next play by Cox on a quarter-back buck.
