Wednesday.

Dear J. M. G.

I can't resist telling you how I could not resist telling you the MS right away to-day, and how I have enjoyed the big job I've gone and. It is as good - and will have a good result too.
You will find that you have to slow up (I dare say) more than before in your good hours.
Got grant you have learned the lesson

your friends could as plainly see you dangerously neglecting.
How glad of you I want to see me. If I could take two days somewhere at the National Bldg. somewhere where part of the time we could get together, how grand that would be for me. I assure in all the time coming when if we are here we can no longer get together.
Don't you all have colds at the heart under the pressure of the family as the capital unit of organized life? Devotedly,
Holla R—
