

April 15, 1924

Mr. Stephen W. Tener,
Western Reserve Building,
Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Tener:

I have just come back from the lecture trip on which I was starting when I saw you in February in Cleveland. This is my first chance to thank you for your letter of February 19, giving me the reference to Lincoln's purpose to appoint Horace Greeley Postmaster General. I am most glad to have this.

Thank you, too, for the copy of Lloyd George's Lincoln address at Springfield last fall. I have been much impressed with the way he has felt about Lincoln. Particularly do I like what he said at Lincoln's tomb. It is a fact, Lincoln is growing.

Believe me, dear Mr. Tener, I do appreciate your kindness in this matter.

Sincerely yours,