Miss Ida M. Tarball
120 E. 19th St.
New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Tarball:

We have just received an inquiry from one of our customers, from which we quote the following:

"For sometime past I have been endeavoring to secure a good bust or statuette of Abraham Lincoln.
As you probably know, there are many inferior busts sold in the stores, but I am particularly desirous of securing one showing the rugged facial characters of this wonderful man".

Knowing your familiarity with all the best paintings and sculpture, immortalizing Lincoln, we thought possibly you might help us out.

Sincerely yours,

McKINLAY, STONE & MACKENZIE

Miss T asked me to say that in her judgment the ~~best~~ ^{best} of Lincoln which best showing the rugged features of the man is that George Gray Barnard. ~~The~~ ~~for~~ ^{for} ~~by~~
~~to Mr. Barnard~~ I should say the ~~best~~ ^{best} could be obtained from Mr. Barnard whose address is 700 Park West Ave.
