My dear Mr. Nevins:

I have your note enclosing the letter from Dr. Farrand. It is dated January 31st but it did not reach me until the 6th. I have to study a bit to find out what I could do.

I could go either on Friday, March 16th or Saturday, the 17th. I am afraid these are the only dates that I have. Will they suit the University schedule?

And will you not say to Dr. Farrand, or whoever is interested in the matter, how much I appreciate the honor of speaking at Cornell. It always scares me a little to talk to young people, particularly about Lincoln, and I am taking it that my audience will be a student audience. But, if we can make the arrangement, I will try to do my best. I deeply appreciate the opportunity, and, believe me, I deeply appreciate your kind offices in the matter.

Faithfully yours

Edw. M. Pauline

P.S. your books held so long are going to you later on to - perhaps by express.
