Miss Ida M. Tarbell,

New York, N.Y.,

Dear Miss Tarbell:

From the enclosed newspaper item, I have learned you are the author of many books about Abraham Lincoln.

It is my desire to obtain a book about Abraham Lincoln for my daughter who attends school, and I will be very grateful to be furnished with a list of your books, also the name of the publishers and their price.

Please allow me to congratulate you on being the author of so many books, and be assured I will purchase some of them to read when I receive the list.

The enclosed clipping is from the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Sunday, November 24th 1935.

Thanking you.

Very truly yours.
