In the Cincinnati Gazette

Friday, Nov 6 1858

Permit me daily ^{to} of your valuable paper, residing in the North West, to suggest to the consideration of the triumphant and united opposition, the names of the following distinguished and Patriotic Statesmen as Standard bearers in the approaching Presidential contest.

For President,
Abraham Lincoln,
of Illinois,
Vice President,
John P. Kennedy, of Maryland.

There, Sir, is a ticket that can command and receive the united support of the entire opposition. With the above ticket in the field, with a banner on which shall be inscribed Union Harmony, Protection to American Capital, and American Labor - skill and enterprise, improvement of Western rivers and harbors, free labor, and unrelenting opposition to the interference of the General Government in favor of the spread of Slavery, opposition to any further acquisition of false territory, to humbug Squatter Sovereignty, to the principle involved in the Dred Scott decision. Let us oppose the appointment to offices of Profit members of either branch of Congress during the term for which they shall be elected; oppose extravagance and favoritism in the Public Expenditures; and favor a return to the early principles and practices of the founders of our Government.

and Preserve the Elective franchise pure and untarnished. With such standard bearers and such a platform the great Opposition of American Republican Party can go before the People of the Nation in 1860 with the full assurance of a triumphant victory over the present Pro-slavery, Illiberal, Border, Ruffian Democracy."
