Dear Madam:

For years I have been writing to folks who knew or saw Abraham Lincoln. I have hundreds of letters from men and women in all parts of the country telling of some incident in their life as it came in contact with that of Honest Abe. These letters I am carefully preserving so that future generations might have all the first hand information it is possible to acquire.

Do you know of any one who remembers Mr. Lincoln in the flesh? If so, I would be obliged to you for their name and address.

I have heard on two or three occasions Edgar White Burrill give his reading of your "Mr. Know Lincoln" over the radio. Recently received a very interesting letter from Mr. Burrill.

I have before me a copy of Collier's for Feb 14-1931, containing your article, "On Mr. Lincoln's Tomb".
Enjoyed it very much.

Would it be asking too much to have you give me a list of your Lincoln books and articles?

Can the books be procured thru Macmillans?

Thanking you for any information which you can give me, or for any courtesy which you might extend to me, and with every good wish,
I am
Yours sincerely,
Howard K. Terry
