VARSITY EASILY OVERCOMES ALUMNI

In Slow Game Varsity Defeats Alumni by Large Score. Bianchi and Lane Play Last Home Game

Last Saturday evening the Blue and Gold passers staged their annual contest with the Alumni in the college gym. The team that represented the "has beens" came far from measuring up to the calibre of teams representing that institution in former years. The 62 to 16 score would seem to indicate that the former stars were no match for the varsity, and they weren't either. Except during the first couple of minutes at the beginning of each period, when the Alumni were rested, the game resembled a foot race rather than a basketball game. On the whole, the game was not an ideal one from the spectators' point of view, but it was as good as was to have been expected in a year when so much difficulty is experienced in getting the Alumni together. The Alumni who participated in the contest deserve all of the credit in the world for their efforts, for even the younger bloods who are now in college, and who have consistently kept away from the gymnasium, experience no little difficulty in keeping a normal supply of wind for any length of time on a basketball floor. They played their best and that is all that we ask of any man.

As usual in all alumni games the Alumni team started off with a rush and the first three or four minutes of play they showed up in old time form. The varsity secured the tipoff, but the Alumni soon secured the ball and McKinney carried the ball down the floor for the first basket of the game. Here the Alumni showed fine form and kept the varsity guessing for several minutes until Kerr threw in an easy one from in under the basket.

Following this the varsity took a spurt and Kerr secured another one, followed by Dunbar and Bianchi, who each secured one. The play loosened up and the varsity began to work their teamwork. Meredith consistently outjumped his opponent and passed the ball to the guards who were the starting points of the plays. Lane and Bianchi, before the half was up, while playing a close guarding game, succeeded in slipping away from their man and shooting baskets. Lane secured two and Bianchi one more.

Time was called at the end of ten minutes to enable the Alumni to recuperate. After this short rest they entered the fight with renewed vigor. It was during this period that Ramsey succeeded in eluding Kerr and dropping one in from the middle of the floor. This ended the scoring for the Alumni for the first half. About this time Dunbar got two more off of Phillips, who was becoming slightly winded.

Not many fouls were called on either side. Kerr secured two out of several shots while Kahle, the foul-shooter for the Alumni, caged two also. The half ended with the score 21 to 5 in favor of the varsity.

The Alumni opened the second half with a changed line-up, Smith taking the place of Phillips at guard. For awhile they were able to show some fight, but the pace soon told on them and the varsity began to run rings around them and to shoot baskets at will. Kerr and Bianchi regained their shooting eye and Kerr caged six baskets this half and Bianchi seven. The team work of the varsity was perfected, the guards slipping down time after time to add their quota to the score. In addition to the large number of baskets secured by Bianchi, Lane, the other guard, dropped in two baskets. Dunbar again tallied and Meredith entered the score column, throwing in three difficult shots, before he was replaced by Stevens. The Alumni had better luck in shooting this half. McKinney was able to rush the ball down the floor several times which resulted in two baskets. Smith was left unguarded in the center of the floor and caged a long one from the center mark. Thomas experienced a rejuvenation and entered the fight long enough to add another basket to the total for his team. This ended the scoring for the Alumni.

After the period of rest, Preston was substituted for Dunbar and Stevens for Meredith. Both of these men showed fine form for the period which they played. Preston secured one basket and Stevens out-jumped McKinney.

For the Alumni the work of Ramsey was the most consistent. He was in the game at all times and gave Kerr one of the hardest fights he has had all season. McKinney was the chief point producer and the other men showed at times flashes of old time form. However, on the whole this was one of the weakest teams that has represented the Alumni for many years.

The varsity as a whole played a strong, consistent game. The work of Bianchi standing out a little from that of the rest of the team. Dunbar filled the place of Volk very satisfactorily. Meredith showed better shooting form than he has in any game this season and his work in getting the tip-off was good. Lane played his usual strong guarding game and in addition he made several good shots.

This was Bianchi's and Lane's last game on the home floor. These two men will be greatly missed next year. They have been strong factors in bringing victory to Allegheny and they have been the main line of defense this year.

The final score of the game was 62 to 16. The summary follows:

Allegheny—62		Alumni—16
Kerr	F	Thomas
Dunbar	F	Kahle
Meredith	C	McKinney
Lane	G	Phillips
Bianchi, Capt.	G	Ramsey

Field goals: Kerr, 9; Dunbar, 4; Meredith, 3; Lane, 4; Bianchi, 9; Preston, 1; Thomas, 1; McKinney, 3; Ramsey, 1; Smith, 1.

Fouls: Kerr, 2; Kahle, 4.

Referee: Fidler.

Scorer: Gilbert.

Timekeeper: Lee.

PRELIM.

The preliminary game between Meadville High and Oil City High, resulted in a victory for Meadville after a hard fought game. The final score was Meadville, 23; Oil City, 21.

GENEVA GAME.

On Friday night we meet Geneva on their home floor. The outcome of this game will decide the championship of this section of the State. Geneva has a strong claim to this championship. However, this was weakened by her defeat by Westminster last week.

If Allegheny wins the game, we will have a clear claim, having defeated all the strong teams of this section. We have not played Westminster who has issued a challenge to us based on their defeat of Geneva. A game was scheduled with Westminster and cancelled by them. Not very much attention needs to be paid to this challenge, considering this fact and the fact that they have not beaten Pitt.

Allegheny does not enter the game with Geneva with as strong a line-up as she had when Geneva was defeated in the last game due to the absence of Volk. It is to be hoped that he will be able to get into the game, but it is extremely doubtful. The outcome of this game will be watched for anxiously.

The sporting editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette Times has made the suggestion that the winner of this game play State in Pittsburgh for the championship of the western and central parts of the State. This is a very good suggestion and meets with the approval of Coach Hammett and Capt. Bianchi, who has expressed his willingness to play the game.

If the game with Geneva is successful and the proper arrangements can be made with State, the game will probably be played in Pittsburgh in the near future. All receipts outside of necessary expenses will go to the Red Cross.

Keep's is best place to come. Everything new.

VARSITY DEBATE FRIDAY NIGHT IN FORD MEMORIAL CHAPEL. WORK OF TEAMS DESERVES HEARTY STUDENT SUPPORT.

Important upon the horizon of intercollegiate contests looms the Triangle Debate next Friday night between Allegheny, Wooster, and Ohio University, an affair always viewed with the utmost interest by debating circles. The local contest of the triangle is to be held in Ford Memorial Chapel at eight o'clock on the evening of the fifteenth, when Allegheny's affirmative team composed of R. E. McCreary, '18, Captain; T. Colley, '21, and G. A. Benson, '20, will meet the negative team of the University of Ohio.

Allegheny's negative team, composed of C. W. Skinner, '20, Captain; F. M. Parrish, '20, and C. L. Jones, '20, will leave Thursday for the University of Wooster, where they will meet the opposing Wooster team at the same time the contest is in progress here at home. Dr. Schultz will accompany the team on this trip.

A huge amount of time and energy have been sacrificed by the men comprising Allegheny's Varsity teams, and if earnest endeavor is any gage of success, the coming contest is already an Allegheny victory. The past two weeks have been filled with all afternoon practice debates, and since the picking of the teams, almost daily meetings have been held with the Faculty Debate Board, composed of Dr. Schultz, Dr. Leake and Dr. Darling, in which the work of each individual has been thoroughly shaped to the highest degree of efficiency. The subject has been viewed from every angle and in every possible manner, and the concensus of opinion is that Allegheny will give her opponents the hardest kind of a fight for the laurels.

The serious, intensive, hard work of the men of the Varsity teams deserves the support of the entire college, and the way in which that support should be manifested is by attendance at the local contest of the Triangle, when Allegheny contests with the University of Ohio in Ford Memorial Chapel.

THE TEUTONIAN ORGANIZATION CHANGES ITS NAME.

Henceforth to Be Known as the Tallageive Association.

On account of the feeling occasioned by anything which suggests Hun-American, the members of the Teutonian Association of Allegheny College took it upon themselves to change their name. The committee worked diligently and, eager to find a name which would be absolutely American, they wrote to Dr. Arthur C. Parker, State Archiologist, at Albany, N. Y. He suggested the name, Tallageive, mainly on account of its being the original for Allegheny.

The Tallageivis were the mound-building Indians, who lived in this geographical area more than a thousand years ago. They were very industrious and fond of building. The records of their efforts have not yet been effaced from the regions where they lived. The Cherokee Indians, who are now found largely in Oklahoma, are thought to be the descendants of this ancient tribe.

The Cherokee Indians are a wonderful people and some of the modern descendants of the Tallageivis are the present Registrar of the Treasury, Mr. H. B. Teehee; Hon. Robert L. Owen, Senator from Oklahoma; Hon. Charles D. Carter, Congressman from Oklahoma; etc. The Cherokee Cadmus was named Sequoia and just recently his statue has ben placed in the Hall of Fame in the rotunda of the U. S. Capitol.

This name was unanimously accepted by the members of the Association and was passed upon by the members of the Faculty, so now we wish to announce publicly the new name, Tallageive, under which we will henceforth be known.

THE BELGIAN RELIEF WORK NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT.

Saturday Afternoon is Your Chance.

On next Saturday afternoon the War Relief Committee of the Women's Student Senate will give a series of college stunts and serve tea for the benefit of the Belgian War Relief Committee.

All of the college women and their friends are urged to attend. The entertainment will begin at three o'clock in the Hulings Hall Gymnasium.

Books for the Soldiers

CAMPAIGN ON THIS WEEK TO SECURE BOOKS FOR THE CAMP LIBRARIES. EVERYBODY SHOULD CONTRIBUTE.

March 18th to 25th is the week set aside by the American Library Association of the United States to secure 500,000 additional books for the soldiers in training camps and for the boys in France. The libraries of the United States have already collected from the people and given from their own stacks over 555,000 volumes of books. The American Library Association raised over $1,666,000.00 last Fall for Camp Libraries and the Navy. This has been expended for books and buildings and the necessary expenses of administration. College was not open at the time of the Fall drive and we had no part in the great movement to provide material for reading and study for our soldiers.

The Camp Libraries house from 15,000 to 20,000 volumes and seat from 120 to 250 men at a time. Many of the men spend much of their spare time in them, as the most home like spot in the camps. There is an urgent demand for books for study as well as for lighter reading. The books most needed are history, fiction, French grammars and texts, poetry, scientific books of recent date, travel, biography, political science and economics, the trades and agriculture. To furnish these books for the soldiers is a real factor in winning the war.

Each student is asked to contribute one or more books that he no longer needs. The books should be in good condition, printed on good paper and of as recent date as possible. The faculty and alumni are invited to join in making the collection a large one. Please leave books at the Library during the next week with your name. In case any one wishes to buy books to give to this collection suggestions may be secured at the Library. An earnest request for a generous donation of books is made so that a worthy contribution may be made.

LITERARY MONTHLY APPEARS.

After Five Month Dormant Period First Issue of "Lit" Appears. Many interesting Stories in Excellent Issue.

Last week the Literary Monthly again made its appearance on the Campus and another college publication, after being threatened with non-existence, was firmly established with a new lease of life. Last year, the "Lit" with other college institutions was sadly disorganized by the conditions brought about by the war, and it was not until a month or so ago that the Student Senate was able to seriously consider the problem facing that body in the form of the fate of Allegheny's time-honored magazine. However, arrangements were soon made and as a result the Editorial Board have presented to the college world one of the best issues of the "Lit" in some time. The Monthly is under the direction of Miss Musette Clouse, '19, Editor-in-Chief, and Helen Strickland, '19, Gertrude Thomas, '20, and Reverdy Clother, '20, Assistant Editors.

All in all, the first number of Volume 22 of the Literary Monthly, although five months later than usual, must be conceded to more than make up in quality for the long delay caused by the war conditions. The stories are interesting, well arranged, and well balanced, affording the reader much of interest as well as true literary excellence. It is to be regretted that the promising material revealed in the classes of 1920 and 1921 has not been given more opportunity in a literary way, but there still remains one more issue of the Monthly this year, and it is to be hoped that next year will see normal publication of the magazine.

Moreover, the Literary Monthly deserves the support of the student body to the fullest degree this year. Due to the circumstances under which it is being published, the "Lit" is without the support of the advertisers and its successful financing depends entirely upon the spirit in which the college subscribes. Like the Kaldron, the Monthly this year is under the supervision of the Student Senate and is, therefore, more than ever the student magazine, being vitally connected with the governing body of the students themselves. The subscription price for the year, comprising two issues, is fifty cents; for single copies, thirty cents. Subscriptions are payable to James Piper, '20, or Dorcas Hall, '20.

ALUMNI TO PRESENT GIFT TO COLLEGE

"Crawford" Chimes to be Placed in Ford Memorial Chapel on President Crawford's 25th Anniversary

"A twenty-fifth anniversary of college activity is something which comes to but few college Presidents; and moreover, but few colleges have such a President as our Alma Mater." Some such thought as this was in the minds of a number of Allegheny's alumni when there first came to mind the fact that the Spring of 1918 carried with it the twenty-fifth anniversary of President Crawford's period of service at Allegheny. Then the idea of a fitting memorial of the occasion, to be presented by the alumni of the old college, sprang into existence, and plans rapidly took shape. All ideas, all plans were finally crystallized in one which met with the approval of nearly every alumnus whose opinion was to be had. And so there grew from an idea to what is now announced as a certainty, "The Crawford Chimes."

Some time ago, when the matter was first beginning to take shape, a committee was appointed to take charge. As chairman of the committee was named Mr. A. A. Culbertson, '01, one of the most prominent business men of Erie, Pa. While in college Mr. Culbertson was one of the active leaders and his executive ability has been most markedly shown in his business career. He is president of the Culbertson Coal Company, of Erie, Pa., and also one of the officials of the Northwestern Pennsylvania Railway Company. In addition to this splendid executive head, the committee consists of Dr. Camden M. Cobern, '76; J. W. Barkley, '11, of Cleveland, Ohio; W. B. Secrist, '00, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; E. P. Cullum, '82, of Meadville, Pa., and Miss Edith Rowley. This committee elected Mr. Cullum, Treasurer, and Miss Rowley, Secretary, and after the decision to purchase chimes for the chapel, the campaign to raise $5,000 was immediately inaugurated. Everywhere enthusiastic response is being met with, and the alumni of the college are subscribing to the fund in a manner which shows the depth of feeling which the alumnus of Allegheny carries in his heart.

The contract for the chimes has already been given and they will be set in position to be played for the first time on the occasion of President Crawford's return at Commencement time, about May 4th. The chimes which are of the tube type will consist of two full octaves, fourteen tubes in all. This construction permits a wide range and it is said that almost any piece of music, including the war tunes, can be played on them. The chimes will be connected electrically with the organ, so that although the tubes themselves are to be located in the tower of the Chapel they may be played in connection with the organ by an experienced organist.

The idea kept constantly in mind by the committee in selecting the anniversary memorial was that of choosing something which would be a pride to the college and an addition to the campus truly symbolical of the feeling of the alumni. It was felt that some such addition to the college would be the thing most pleasing to the President himself, and the suggestion of chimes in Ford Memorial Chapel was greeted most heartily. War conditions were taken into consideration, but the fact that the Government urges all colleges to act exactly as in normal times over-balanced every question as to the propriety of the act under the conditions. "For us to fail to celebrate worthily the President's twenty-five years of devoted service to our Alma Mater would be most shameful, and not only that, but it would react on the college." Such is the feeling of practically every alumnus who has been approached on the matter.

In addition to the placing of the chimes, a large autograph book, suitable to the occasion, and bearing the signature of every alumnus who has contributed to the chime fund, will be presented to the President as a personal memorial of the occasion, and a personal token from the alumni. Great interest is being felt in the coming Commencement exercises and the occasion will be one long to be remembered in the history of the college.

The chimes are not the only tokens to be presented on the event of the President's twenty-fifth anniversary, for it is a certainty that the college, both students and faculty, are to have an active part in the celebration. Plans have been under foot for some time, and are now partially completed for these gifts and the near future will see the announcement of their nature.

ALUMNI TRUSTEE NOMINATIONS.

Nomination of Candidates for Alumni Trustees to be Voted on May 7 Now Open. Conditions Named.

In pursuance of the plan for the selection of Alumni Trustees, a call is now issued for the nomination of candidates to be voted on at the election to be held May 7, 1918. Four trustees are to be elected. Last year but 79 valid votes were cast and the election was declared void. There are in consequence of the failure to elect last June four positions to be filled this year.

One for four years from Jan. 1919, to succeed Edward B. Heckel.

One for four years from Jan. 1918, to succeed W. N. Ridge.

One for four years from Jan. 1918.

One for four years from Jan. 1919.

Please note the following from the constitution:

"All graduates of Allegheny College shall be entitled to nominate and vote for Alumni Trustees at any election after one Commencement has elapsed succeeding their graduation."

"No one shall be eligible to serve as Alumni Trustee except a graduate of Allegheny College of not less than fifteen years' standing."

"No member of the faculty shall be eligible to election as Alumni Trustee."

"Nominations must be signed and forwarded to the Secretary before the first day of April, on which day nominations shall cease. Only those who have been nominated by at least ten graduates shall be candidates for positions on the Board of Trustees."

No special form is prescribed for nominating a candidate. A nomination may be made in one or more letters, the only requirement being that at least ten qualified alumni propose the same candidate.

The payment of the membership fee in the Alumni Association is no longer a necessary qualification for nominating or for voting.

Commencement will be on May 6th and 7th this year. Plans are being made to commemorate suitably the completion of the twenty-five years of service of President Crawford, on his return from France.

Votes were cast as follows at the election in June, 1917: W. N. Ridge, 52; F. Breed, 41; R. B. Gamble, 37; Addison Waid, 24. Dues were paid to the amount of $198.00. Cash on hand, $43.70; expenses, $137.29; balance on hand, $104.41.

The directors wish to express their appreciation of the response to the appeal for dues last year. We ask your loyal support in the payment of dues as heretofore, but it is especially important that a large number of alumni exercise the privilege of voting for trustees in the May election. Please remember that the right to vote is in no way dependent upon the payment of dues.

In the absence of the treasurer, Mr. A. D. Andrews, and at the request of the President, Dr. J. E. Silliman, the nominations may be returned to Edith Rowley, Meadville, Penn.

FORUM.

The Forum held its weekly meeting on Friday, March 8th, at 4 o'clock. Parliamentary procedure was again taken up. Election of officers was held. It resulted in: Hoover, Speaker; Blodgett, Vice Speaker; Hartung, Secretary; Eisenman, Sergeant-at-Arms. No debate was held.

The debate for next meeting is: "Resolved that men who play Summer baseball should be barred from Allegheny's Athletic Teams." Also, there will be some practice from the parliamentary proceeding.

Y. W. C. A.

The Sunday evening meeting was led by Miss Ruth Fithian, '19, who talked on the subject, "Self Control." The leader emphasized moral self-control as opposed to physical self-control. Miss Dorothea Kerr, '21, sang a solo.

EDITORIAL.

The Campus wishes to congratulate the staff of the Literary Monthly on the excellent publication which they put out. It has been pronounced by many as the best issue which has been published for many years and it is hoped that the staff will have the same fine support from the students in preparing the next issue.

In connection with the campaign to secure books to send to the soldiers which is now on at Allegheny, a few of the suggestions made by the American Library Association War Service Bureau, may be of help:

"The War Service Administration hopes that for every book purchased, at least five will be presented to the libraries. It has been done in England; it can be done here.

Mobilize your idle books.

Give the book you prize the most; not the one you care for least.

Give your favorite author, the novel that interested you last Summer, the volume of poems with a meaning and message for you.

Give the book that causes a pang at parting, like saying good-bye to an old friend. Ten chances to one it will mean more to some soldier boy.

Write your name and a message on the fly leaf; it will make the bond seem closer.

Remember that he gives twice who gives quickly. But don't give thoughtlessly. We are judged by what we give.

GIRLS PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED.

About fifty of the college girls were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. R. E. Lee by the Student Committee of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church last Thursday evening. The girls who are members of the Methodist Church, were invited by written invitation and all others interested in the work of missions were made welcome.

The girls were divided into groups and each given a captain. Each group sang a missionary hymn and when an enumeration was taken of the girls who had belonged to any kind of a missionary band, it was found that thirty-seven girls out of those there had been so affiliated.

Following this the girls gave a number of papers of interest concerning Allegheny's Sister College at Lucknow, India. This College was founded by Isabella Thoburn and is an everlasting remembrance of her love and devotion. Those who took part were the Misses Musette Clouse, '19; Olevia Widdowson, '19; Esther Emery, '18; Louise Deens, '18; Helen Milhoff, '21, and Leda Brooks, '19.

Each group was given five minutes in which to compose a "Sister College Yell." All of the yells were fine, showing combination of Lucknow and Allegheny and the spirit of the Eastern College. The yell which the committee thought showed the most spirit and had the best thought in it was:

Sister College, here's to you,
Alle-ga-roo-ga-roo-ga-roo!
And to Isabella Thoburn, too,
Alle-ga-roo-ga-roo ! ! ! !

A play was put on by some of the girls, which portrayed the spirit of true 'systematics" in missionary giving. Those who took part in this play were the Misses Henrietta Leyda, '19; Dorothy Roach, '21; Ernastine Sprong, '19; Helen Shuster, '21; Doris Stockdale, '19, and Doris Gamble, '20.

Following this, short talks were given on the work in India by Mrs. Swartley and Mrs. Hammett. Mrs. Akers also explained the work of the Isabella Thoburn Auxiliary. This is a system by which the girls can continue their work after they have graduated from college. Mrs. Akers has been honored by being made General Secretary of the Philadelphia Branch of the work which includes the States of Pennsylvania and Delaware.

Following the program refreshments were served. Much of the credit for the success of the evening, and the enjoyment is due to Mrs. Thoburn, as chairman of the committee. All the girls who were present appreciated the work of the committee and extend their most hearty thanks.

BIBLE STUDY GROUPS.

Last Thursday morning in Chapel Mr. Donnelly, State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., spoke to the student body concerning the groups about to be organized for the study of the teachings of Christ in relation to the modern world problems. Mr. Donnelly said that in order to maintain our idealistic attitude toward the war and its aims similar groups had been organized at Johns-Hopkins University, Harvard and Penn State College, as well as at many other similar institutions. He spoke of the decline of moral tone in England and France and said that unless we at home took action to propagate the principles stated by President Wilson, the suffering and privation of our men in France would be in vain; that even if we won the war but lost sight of these principles, it would be blood and money spent in vain.

Before chapel was dismissed, Mr. Hollingshead announced that here at Allegheny the fraternity had been chosen as the most logical group in which to hold these discussions and proposed that one evening a week each fraternity should invite its leader, a faculty member, to dinner and that the hour immediately following should be spent in discussing Christian principles in relation to the world problems of today.

LE PETIT SALON.

Le Petit Salon met in the Hulings Hall parlors Monday afternoon, March 4. Monsieur Ward took charge of the program which was entirely a musical one, consisting of the following numbers:

Solo de Piano—"Valse Leute"—Mlle. Francis, '19.

Solo—"Printemps qui commence" de l'Opéra "Samson et Délilah"—Mlle. Carew, '20.

Solo de Violon—Sérénade—Mlle. Emery, '18.

Un discours écrit sur l' Opéra "Manon"—Préparé par Mlle. Johnson, '19, et lu par Mlle. Carew, '20. Illustré par quatre disques chanté par Caruso, Farrar, et Clément.

Solo—"Mon coeur s'ouvre àtavoix" —Mlle. Ellis, '19.

Solo de Violon—"Meditation" de l' Opéra "Thaïs"—Mlle. Dorothy Richard.

Solo—"Depuis le Jour" de l' Opéra "Louise"—Mme. Minium.

Chanson—La Marseillaise.

The program was splendid. It may be said that one musical program is given by the club each year.

Misses Helen Munhall, '19, and Marjorie Roudebush, '19, the hostesses, then served refreshments.

Y. M. C. A.

At the weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. held on last Thursday evening, Professor Ward spoke on the subject of faith. He based his remarks on the passage from Hebrews which reads: Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Our lack of faith and the part that faith plays in every day life were among the aspects of the subject mentioned by the speaker. Later, State Secretary Donnelly, of the Y. M. C. A., spoke on the proposed Bible Study groups.

The Pittsburgh Christian Advocate for Feb. 28, 1918, contains a story entitled "A Square Peg." This story was written by Florence Grauel Miller. Mrs. Miller graduated in 1910 and is the wife of F. P. Miller, '10.

"SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE.

Mr. Paul A. Stearns,
607 Highland Ave.,
Meadville, Pa., U. S. A.

Dear Sir:—

The "Campuses" of January 8th and also of November 12th are lying on the bed beside me. The voice of A. Hughes, '17, as he gossiped about you all, still rings in my ears. And I have just been munching some chocolate and walnuts, brought me yesterday by Dr. Crawford. An "Allegheny" atmosphere is thus created here in "Sunny France" that defies serious interruptions, such as the rollicking conversation of a group of invalid officers playing bridge in the next room, or the quips and jests of other convalescents exercising up and down the corridor. The nurse comes along and thrusts the thermometer under my tongue and takes my pulse; I say not a word,—I am thinking of Allegheny and Alleghenians of those old days of '11 and '12.

But silence has been the order of my days and nights for the past week, —a case of acute laryngitis and bronchitis. Today I have spoken aloud for the first time. Dr. Poux, a Meadville boy, by the way, is responsible for the good treatment that restores to me that useful member, my voice.

After a year and a quarter spent as Y. M. C. A. Secretary in the Italian and Russian prison camps in Austria, and, after declaration of war, in the World Committee office in Geneva, I find myself installed in a big "hut" at a base camp for our splendid American fighting boys. My work is that of director of religious, recreational, and social activities. Hearing one day of the presence in the district of a certain Dr. Wm. H. Crawford, I sent him an anonymous invitation to luncheon at "Hut 2." You may imagine my pleasure and his surprise when he found one of his "boys" awaiting him.

Dr. Crawford has been of infinite service in our district by superintending the organization of Men's Bible Classes in every Y. M. C. A. center. He has also made out a suggestive outline study of the life of Christ for use in the classes. And how the soldiers and officers have enjoyed his stirring up-to-the-minute talks and addresses. Whenever one mentions his name in this district a cheer comes from the boys.

We want to thank the students for the loan of Dr. Crawford to the American Army in France for this short Spring term. It is from men such as Dr. Crawford that we may expect the spiritual food for our Army. Army rations alone will never win in this war.

I might tell you of meeting "Mike" Callahan, '13, my first days in Paris,— of his experiences in ambulance service,—and of a great many friends of Alleghenians whom I have met. But time and temperament forbid.

I hope to soon be at work again. What a great task the Y. M. C. A. has taken unto itself! And yet despite many drawbacks and disappointments, we workers feel day by day that pleasant after-glow of a task somewhat rightfully and successfully performed.

The women who have come over here to serve in our "canteens" are exerting a specially noteworthy influence for good in the lives of our "boys." Send some more! Let them first be consecrated Christians!

Wishing the student body the best of opportunities for service in this great struggle, I am

Sincerely,
ROY A. WELKER, ex-'12.

READ THE ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Campus calls the attention of the student body to the necessity of patronizing the business men who advertise in these columns. The Meadville business men are spending good money to help make the Campus a success, and naturally they look for some returns on their investments.

Undoubtedly the business houses who are not running ads this year have what they consider good reasons for not doing so. But the fact remains that they are not advertising, and so are not pulling for the college. If the students will spend their money where it is wanted, the houses that are not now advertising will realize that they will have to run ads regularly to get the college trade that they most desire.

MISS PITMAN DEMONSTRATES TO THE GIRLS.

An Exponent of the Florence Fleming Noyes School of Rythmic Expression.

Miss Pitman, an exponent of the Florence Fleming Noyes School of Rythmic Expression, of New York City, gave an exhibition in the Hulings Hall gymnasium Saturday evening, which was much appreciated by all those attending. Miss Pitman explained her work by saying:

"The renaissance of the true dance is a step toward a higher civilization insofar as it revives the spirit of the ancient Greeks and not merely their dance-forms. For them dancing was a spontaneous rythmic expression; a moral training; as mathematics was a drill for the intellect. As such it can be made a spiritual influence in our lives today."

It is said that Florence Fleming Noyes through her system of Rythmic Expression, is contributing an important element to the educational systems of the near future, which will overcome an evil which leading physicians and psychologists recognize as one of the gravest tendencies of American girl life of today.

Miss Pitman visited Meadville as the guest of Miss Steward.

DUZER DU HAS SELECTED PLAYS AND SET THE DATE FOR PLAYS.

Finally after some time spent in looking over plays the Committee on Plays has reported to the Club the selection of two one-act plays for this year's production. Both of the plays are by Lady Gregory, who is a very well known writer of high grade Irish plays.

The first play, "Spreading the News," is played by ten characters. The outskirts of a typical Irish fair is the scene of this play. The old lady apple merchant and all the necessary "small town" characters are present in this very pleasing Irish play.

The second play, "Hyacinth Halvey," is played by six characters. In this play a genuine Irish postmistress keeps well informed of all the village business by a close observation of the mail in her office. By the Post Office is the usual village "Butcher Shop" and its large familied proprietor. The other town characters including the "bad boy" and the policeman are present.

The plays will be given on the evening of Thursday, April 4th in the gymnasium. It would be decidedly impractical to try and give the plays at the Academy of Music this year. There is an insufficient amount of time and of men to do this year as has been done in past years.

MY MONTH IN CAMP.

"My Month in Camp" is the title of an article by Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell, '79.

In this article, Bishop Mitchell praises the work of the Y. M. C. A. very highly. He considers that the Y. M. C. A. is doing the finest bit of Christian service for humanity that has ever been done by a Christian organization. He especially praises the men who are in charge of the Y. M. C. A. in the camps.

Concerning the life and character of the soldier he says: "The whole life lived by the boys in these camps has the tendency to ennoble and uplift. I saw much of the daily life of the soldiers when they were off duty. For two weeks I traveled every day for two hours in crowded street cars, going out and back from Camp Gordon, with nearly everybody in the car in uniform. There was nothing in my dress to suggest the clergyman. I want to give this testimony for what it is worth, others may have had a different experience: I saw no horseplay such as is so common among students and other youths when away from conventional restraints. I never saw a boy in khaki do a thing which was not the act of a perfect gentleman."

This article is printed in full in the Northwestern Christian Advocate and is an earnest and conscientious description of the life of the men in the camps.

PURCHASING POWER OF MONEY IN WAR TIME.

"But if we won't make the needed sacrifice, and perhaps delude ourselves into believing that we don't have to, or even that we ought not to do so; that, on principle, we favor 'business as usual' for ourselves while expecting business unusual to be superadded by the Government; we simply go through the motions of giving over billions to the Government without really giving them up. Thereupon, the Government, in order to buy away from us what we will not otherwise surrender, bids up prices.

"And the rise in prices which comes about from this sort of lending is cumulative. As the prices of war supplies rise the money cost of war grows and the Government has to borrow more. Bigger loans by us to the Government require bigger loans to us from the banks. This further expansion of bank credit favors a further rise of commodity prices, starting the whole process over again in a vicious circle.

"But rising co[illegible]dity prices present only one of a [illegible]s of evils which will follow if we [illegible]ue far on the wrong road. In the w[illegible] scramble to buy—the public competing against the Government and the producer trying to satisfy both—there is increasing difficulty in getting supplies. There occurs railway congestion, car shortage, coal famine (for instance, from using up coal in nonessential industries and from using the cars needed to move it) and other dislocations.

"The best and quickest way of finding the right road—the road of thrift—is by reducing consumption and increasing production, by repressing nonessentials and by organizing a redirection of industry. President Wilson has well said, 'It is our duty to protect our people, so far as we may, against the very serious hardships and evils which would be likely to arise out of the inflation which would be produced by vast loans.' And again, 'Now is the time for America to correct her unpardonable fault of wastefulness and extravagance.'

"The importance of all this is emphasized by the report of the Federal Reserve Board just issued, which contains a note of warning on these subjects. A parliamentary committee has furthermore reached substantially the same conclusions from a study of the past three and a half years' costly experiences in England."

The committee later will issue further statements on such subjects as reducing consumption and increasing production; repressing nonessentials and of organizing a redirection of industry, and the adjusting of wages in relation to the purchasing power of money.

We are hoping that he will be able to play against Geneva next Friday on Geneva's floor. Incidentally mention might be made of the fact that the Alumni game Saturday was the first game "Junts" has not played in since coming to Allegheny. His position was taken care of by Dunbar, '21.

Brent Trosh, ex-'05, of Oil City, spent the week-end at the House.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON.

Sunday dinner guests at the House included Professors Stemple, Ward, Conant and Miller.

Walter H. Fegely visited the House one day last week. He is now chief chemist of the Erie Malleable Iron Works.

The following is an excerpt from a letter received from James E. Isherwood last week:

"Army Candidates School,
"Army Post Office No. 714.

"Prex visited the bunch at No. 9 but as yet I haven't seen him. May be in Paris before long and will look him up. Stroup, Lackey and Shryock, are still in town and a M. H. S. youngster, Poux by name, has been over to see me several times lately. Seems good to meet old acquaintances again. Met a Sig from Tennessee the other day.

"Work is going good and the longer I stay the better I like the Infantry. I may get the pink slip but sure would hate to go back to hospital work after a life like this. Only two or three weeks left now and the tale will be told. Weather has been like Spring for the past three weeks.

"Had a letter from Davis yesterday. Reamer and Coulsan hope to get in on the next school here. Frosty has taken Wilbur's place in the laboratory and naturally is all smiles. Wilbur received a commission in Artillery. Shaner sticks to his job quite closely and they see little of him. Davis has put in an application for the Signal Corps but it has been temporarily postponed. Lawhead and Hart are still caring for the wounded Tommies in a ward. Coulsan is at present pushing a pen in the registrar's office. They had some time at Xmas with a banquet and all the boxes fellows sent. I received some tooth paste as my share. Needless to say it came in very handy. Well, I must close now and get ready for dinner. Best wishes to all the brothers.

"Fraternally yours,
"Sgt. J. E. Isherwood."

A smoker was held at the House Saturday evening in commemoration of the founding of the fraternity, March 9, 1856.

"Shorty" Carr was a visitor at the House last week. He is now a civil engineer for the Pennsylvania Railroad and lives in West Virginia.

ALPHA CHI RHO.

Sunday dinner guests of the Fraternity were Dr. and Mrs. Akers, and the Misses Margaret Chapin, '19, and Inez Brumbaugh, '21.

W. E. Coon, '14, of Conneautville, Pa., spent a few hours at the House last Saturday.

Frank Parrish and Clifford Skinner leave next Thursday for Wooster with the Varsity debating team.

PRAYER OF A MAID AT HER KNITTING.

[N. Margaret Campbell, '10.]

My heart's in France and all my thoughts are there—
Be swift my hands to knit another round—
Who knows how far this dull, gray task may fare
To lay a healing touch upon some wound?
I dare not think how still my love may lie
Deep in some valley, blind to stars and sun;
I dare not think that dreams like ours may die,
That journeys end, before they're half begun.
O, angels from the shining hosts of God
Seek out my love by trench or camp or sea;
He walks the path the martyrs all have trod,
His Captain is the Man of Galilee;
And if beyond the reach of mortal care,
Death walks beside him on the shot-torn field,
O, forge an armor from my constant prayer
And fold my wings about him as a shield.
My heart's in France; how can my thoughts be here?
Be strong my hands to knit, to work, to play—
I'll smile and sing so none may guess my fear;
I'm fighting by my love in France today.

Miss Campbell is a sister of Miss Charlotta Campbell, '17. She was graduated from Allegheny in the Class of 1910, and is now on the editorial staff of the Association Monthly published by the National Y. W. C. A.
