Dear Miss Tarbell:

The date for the publication of the League of American Writers' booklet against anti-Semitism, to which you have so generously contributed, has been set for March 13th.

There has been a great deal of press interest and many of the important radio stations have offered us time on their programs. We are eager to reach as many people as possible with the point of view expressed by the contributors in our pamphlet. It would, therefore, be of great value if you would do us the honor of arranging a time suitable to you and the station, to appear as guest, for this purpose. The League radio department will make all necessary arrangements with the radio station as to preparation of a script based on your reply, the time, and all other technical details.

Would you be so kind as to let us hear from you at your earliest convenience, telling us what your pleasure is about taking part in our efforts to combat anti-Semitism, by publicizing the contents of our pamphlet on the air.

We hope that you will find it possible to cooperate with us and make this added contribution to a cause which we know has your sympathetic interest.

Yours sincerely,

Donald Ogden Stewart
