

May 30, 1935

My dear Mr. Campbell:

Sometime in March you were good enough to write to Mr. Clarence Axman Editor of the Eastern Underwriter that you would be glad to see me at #1 Madison Avenue to talk over the matter of insurance.

I have been out of town a good deal of the time since then and not free to ask for an appointment. Now, I should like to arrange for an interview. What I particularly want is something of which I know you are very familiar - health insurance as it is carried on by the Metropolitan Life.

I am out of town over the week end. Would Wednesday of next week be convenient for you. I would be glad to go over to #1 Madison at any hour which you say.

I was pleased that you should tell Mr. Axman of our meeting so long ago. It will be a pleasure to see you again.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. A. C. Campbell
1 Madison Avenue
New York City