ALBERT R. McALLISTER
COUNSELLOR AT LAW
BRIDGETON, NEW JERSEY

May 16, 1923.

Miss Ida Tarbell,
120 E. 19th St.,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Your letter of the tenth inst. in reference to Col. J. Howard Willets has been received. During the Winter the Colonel suffered from a severe attack of La Grippe and he has not "come back", and I am of the opinion that he would be unable to give you much information of his many interviews with President Lincoln.

If he regains his strength, I will gladly communicate with you.

Very truly yours,

A R McA
