Dear Madam:

On March 19 you wrote asking for a copy of the Lincoln speech at Kalamazoo and we were able to forward photostats of the reprint.

We now have in our library a photostatic copy from the Detroit Daily Advertiser giving the first printing of the address.

If Miss Tarbell would like to have photostats of the original, we would be happy to send them to her.

Very sincerely yours,

Louis A. Warren
Director
