Dear Miss Tarbell,

I returned from Boston last night and found your kind letter on my Table. I am very glad to hear that your eye-trouble has disappeared. I hope it will never return. Take good care.

I am afraid you are too lenient in your judgment of my "infirmities." Be searching and merciless; the more the better. Of course, you will be welcome here any time you,

Very sincerely yours
C. Schenck
